  12 that hearsay evidence admissible under the hearsay exception under Rule 801(d)(3), Alaska

  14 be met at the time of grand jury.

| 25 | or agent of the Department of Law so that having a prosecuting attorney or the             |
| 26 | Department of Law proceed with an investigation would create an appearance of              |

| 28 | general. The attorney general shall appoint a neutral attorney to assist the grand jury in |

Sec. 12.40.160. Sec. 12.40.170. Due Process. If, while conducting an investigation, a grand jury requests or receives information that may be considered prejudicial or inadmissible in court, the prosecuting attorney shall inform the grand jury of the ramifications and emphasize that inclusion of the information may jeopardize the validity of an indictment issued by the grand jury. If the grand jury proceeds with the investigation despite the inclusion of prejudicial or inadmissible evidence, the grand jury may request that any indictment based on that investigation be transferred to another grand jury. # * Sec. 14. AS 12.45.045(a) is amended to read:

| (a) In prosecutions for the crimes of sexual assault in any degree, sexual abuse           |
|--|
| of a minor in any degree, unlawful exploitation of a minor, sex trafficking in any         |
| degree, or an attempt to commit any of these crimes, evidence of the sexual conduct        |
| of the complaining witness, occurring either before or after the offense charged, may      |
| not be admitted nor may reference be made to it in the presence of the jury except as      |
| provided in this section. When the defendant seeks to admit the evidence for any           |
| purpose, the defendant shall apply for an order of the court not later than five days      |
| before trial or at a later time as the court may, for good cause, permit. The defendant    |
| may, for good cause shown, apply for an order during trial if the request is based on      |
| information learned after the deadline or during the trial. After the application is made, |
| the court shall conduct a hearing in camera to determine the admissibility of the          |
| evidence. If the court finds that evidence offered by the defendant regarding the sexual   |
| conduct of the complaining witness is relevant, and that the probative value of the        |
| evidence offered is not outweighed by the probability that its admission will create       |
| undue prejudice, confusion of the issues, or unwarranted invasion of the privacy of the    |
| complaining witness, the court shall make an order stating what evidence may be            |
| introduced and the nature of the questions that may be permitted. The defendant may        |
| then offer evidence under the order of the court.  |
