8 COMMENDING ECUMENICAL MINISTRIES, INC., ON 50 YEARS
9 OF SERVICE.

10
11 WHEREAS, Ecumenical Ministries, Inc., known as EMI,
12 in Baldwin County, Alabama, is a faith-based, nonprofit 13 organization founded in 1970; and

14 WHEREAS, EMI has helped hundreds of volunteers, 15 organizations, and churches come together to help those in 16 need in communities throughout Baldwin County; and

17 WHEREAS, in 2020, EMI celebrates 50 years of 18 service; and

19 WHEREAS, EMI volunteers, staff, and donors helped 20 more than 96,000 individuals facing emergencies by providing 21 more than a million meals through its pantries; and

22 WHEREAS, EMI's Meals on Wheels volunteers and staff
23 delivered more than a half-million low-cost meals to the 24 elderly, shut-ins, and handicapped individuals; and

25 WHEREAS, EMI volunteers, staff, and donors have 26 repaired more than 480 low-income, owner-occupied houses in 27 the last five years, including house roofs and handicap ramps;

1 provided more than 25,000 hand-picked Christmas gifts to 2 low-income children; initiated paving 350 miles of roads in 3 rural communities, many of them having low-income families;
4 and initiated racial reconciliation opportunities for 5 thousands of individuals; and

6 WHEREAS, the example set by EMI volunteers, staff, 7 and donors shows how communities can be improved civilly when 8 citizens of all denominations, races, economic status, and 9 political persuasion work together on a common community
10 problem; now therefore,

11 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF 12 THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That we hereby express our sincere 13 and deep appreciation for Ecumenical Ministries, Inc., and its 14 tens of thousands of hours of diligent and cooperative work;
15 as EMI nears its 50th Anniversary in 2020, we extend highest 16 esteem and admiration to its volunteers, staff, and donors.
