2012 Legislature

<pre>16 pursuant to this chapter shall: 17 (m) Demonstrate that she or he has obtained a passing 18 score, as established by rule of the board, on all parts of the 19 examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic 20 Medical Examiners or other examination approved by the board no</pre>	1
<ul> <li>licensure or certification as an osteopathic physician</li> <li>in this state; amending s. 459.021, F.S.; revising</li> <li>provisions relating to registration of physicians,</li> <li>interns, and fellows; providing an effective date.</li> <li>Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:</li> <li>Section 1. Paragraph (m) of subsection (1) and subsection</li> <li>(2) of section 459.0055, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:</li> <li>459.0055 General licensure requirements</li> <li>(1) Except as otherwise provided herein, any person</li> <li>desiring to be licensed or certified as an osteopathic physician</li> <li>pursuant to this chapter shall:</li> <li>(m) Demonstrate that she or he has obtained a passing</li> <li>score, as established by rule of the board, on all parts of the</li> <li>examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic</li> <li>Medical Examiners or other state occurred no more than 5</li> <li>years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the</li> <li>examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic</li> <li>Medical Examiners or other state occurred no more than 5</li> <li>years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the</li> <li>examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic</li> <li>Medical Examiners or other state occurred no more than 5</li> <li>years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the</li> <li>examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic</li> <li>Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination</li> <li>approved by the board.</li> </ul>	2	An act relating to osteopathic physicians; amending s.
in this state; amending s. 459.021, F.S.; revising provisions relating to registration of physicians, interns, and fellows; providing an effective date. Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: Section 1. Paragraph (m) of subsection (1) and subsection (2) of section 459.0055, Florida Statutes, are amended to read: 459.0055 General licensure requirements (1) Except as otherwise provided herein, any person desiring to be licensed or certified as an osteopathic physician pursuant to this chapter shall: (m) Demonstrate that she or he has obtained a passing score, as established by rule of the board, on all parts of the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other examination approved by the board no more than 5 years before making application in this state or, if holding a valid active license in another state, that the initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other state occurred no more than 5 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination approved by the board.	3	459.0055, F.S.; revising the requirements for
6 provisions relating to registration of physicians, interns, and fellows; providing an effective date. 8 9 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: 10 11 Section 1. Paragraph (m) of subsection (1) and subsection 12 (2) of section 459.0055, Florida Statutes, are amended to read: 13 459.0055 General licensure requirements 14 (1) Except as otherwise provided herein, any person 15 desiring to be licensed or certified as an osteopathic physician 16 pursuant to this chapter shall: 17 (m) Demonstrate that she or he has obtained a passing 18 score, as established by rule of the board, on all parts of the 19 examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic 10 Medical Examiners or other examination approved by the board no 21 initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5 24 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the 25 examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic 26 Medical Examiners or other state occurred no more than 5 27 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the 28 examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic 29 Medical Examiners or other state occurred no more than 5 24 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the 25 examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic 26 Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination 27 approved by the board.	4	licensure or certification as an osteopathic physician
<pre>7 interns, and fellows; providing an effective date. 8 9 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: 10 11 Section 1. Paragraph (m) of subsection (1) and subsection 12 (2) of section 459.0055, Florida Statutes, are amended to read: 13 459.0055 General licensure requirements 14 (1) Except as otherwise provided herein, any person 15 desiring to be licensed or certified as an osteopathic physician 16 pursuant to this chapter shall: 17 (m) Demonstrate that she or he has obtained a passing 18 score, as established by rule of the board, on all parts of the 19 examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic 20 Medical Examiners or other examination approved by the board no 21 more than 5 years before making application in this state or, iff 22 holding a valid active license in another state, that the 23 initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5 24 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the 25 examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic 26 Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination 27 approved by the board.</pre>	5	in this state; amending s. 459.021, F.S.; revising
Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: Section 1. Paragraph (m) of subsection (1) and subsection (2) of section 459.0055, Florida Statutes, are amended to read: 459.0055 General licensure requirements (1) Except as otherwise provided herein, any person desiring to be licensed or certified as an osteopathic physician pursuant to this chapter shall: (m) Demonstrate that she or he has obtained a passing score, as established by rule of the board, on all parts of the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other examination approved by the board no more than 5 years before making application in this state or, if holding a valid active license in another state, that the initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination approved by the board.	6	provisions relating to registration of physicians,
Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: Section 1. Paragraph (m) of subsection (1) and subsection (2) of section 459.0055, Florida Statutes, are amended to read: 459.0055 General licensure requirements (1) Except as otherwise provided herein, any person desiring to be licensed or certified as an osteopathic physician pursuant to this chapter shall: (m) Demonstrate that she or he has obtained a passing score, as established by rule of the board, on all parts of the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other examination approved by the board no initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other state occurred no more than 5 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination approved by the board.	7	interns, and fellows; providing an effective date.
10 Section 1. Paragraph (m) of subsection (1) and subsection (2) of section 459.0055, Florida Statutes, are amended to read: 459.0055 General licensure requirements (1) Except as otherwise provided herein, any person desiring to be licensed or certified as an osteopathic physician pursuant to this chapter shall: (m) Demonstrate that she or he has obtained a passing score, as established by rule of the board, on all parts of the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other examination approved by the board no more than 5 years before making application in this state or, if holding a valid active license in another state, that the initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination approved by the board.	8
11Section 1. Paragraph (m) of subsection (1) and subsection12(2) of section 459.0055, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:13459.0055 General licensure requirements14(1) Except as otherwise provided herein, any person15desiring to be licensed or certified as an osteopathic physician16pursuant to this chapter shall:17(m) Demonstrate that she or he has obtained a passing18score, as established by rule of the board, on all parts of the19examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic20Medical Examiners or other examination approved by the board no21initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 523years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the24examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic25more than 5 years before making application in this state or, if26holding a valid active license in another state, that the21initial licensure of the National Board of Osteopathic22paperoved by the National Board of Osteopathic23approved by the board.	9	Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:
(2) of section 459.0055, Florida Statutes, are amended to read: 459.0055 General licensure requirements (1) Except as otherwise provided herein, any person desiring to be licensed or certified as an osteopathic physician pursuant to this chapter shall: (m) Demonstrate that she or he has obtained a passing score, as established by rule of the board, on all parts of the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other examination approved by the board no more than 5 years before making application in this state or, if holding a valid active license in another state, that the initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination approved by the board.	10
<ul> <li>459.0055 General licensure requirements</li> <li>(1) Except as otherwise provided herein, any person</li> <li>desiring to be licensed or certified as an osteopathic physician</li> <li>pursuant to this chapter shall:</li> <li>(m) Demonstrate that she or he has obtained a passing</li> <li>score, as established by rule of the board, on all parts of the</li> <li>examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic</li> <li>Medical Examiners or other examination approved by the board no</li> <li>more than 5 years before making application in this state or, if</li> <li>holding a valid active license in another state, that the</li> <li>initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5</li> <li>years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the</li> <li>examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic</li> <li>Medical Examiners or other state application in this state or, if</li> <li>approved by the board.</li> </ul>	11	Section 1. Paragraph (m) of subsection (1) and subsection
<ul> <li>(1) Except as otherwise provided herein, any person</li> <li>desiring to be licensed or certified as an osteopathic physician</li> <li>pursuant to this chapter shall:</li> <li>(m) Demonstrate that she or he has obtained a passing</li> <li>score, as established by rule of the board, on all parts of the</li> <li>examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic</li> <li>Medical Examiners or other examination approved by the board no</li> <li>more than 5 years before making application in this state or, if</li> <li>holding a valid active license in another state, that the</li> <li>initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5</li> <li>years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the</li> <li>examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic</li> <li>Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination</li> <li>approved by the board.</li> </ul>	12	(2) of section 459.0055, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:
desiring to be licensed or certified as an osteopathic physician pursuant to this chapter shall: (m) Demonstrate that she or he has obtained a passing score, as established by rule of the board, on all parts of the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other examination approved by the board no more than 5 years before making application in this state or, if holding a valid active license in another state, that the initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination approved by the board.	13	459.0055 General licensure requirements
pursuant to this chapter shall: (m) Demonstrate that she or he has obtained a passing score, as established by rule of the board, on all parts of the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other examination approved by the board no more than 5 years before making application in this state or, if holding a valid active license in another state, that the initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination approved by the board.	14	(1) Except as otherwise provided herein, any person
<ul> <li>(m) Demonstrate that she or he has obtained a passing</li> <li>score, as established by rule of the board, on all parts of the</li> <li>examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic</li> <li>Medical Examiners or other examination approved by the board no</li> <li>more than 5 years before making application in this state or, if</li> <li>holding a valid active license in another state, that the</li> <li>initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5</li> <li>years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the</li> <li>examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic</li> <li>Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination</li> <li>approved by the board.</li> </ul>	15	desiring to be licensed or certified as an osteopathic physician
score, as established by rule of the board, on all parts of the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other examination approved by the board no more than 5 years before making application in this state or, if holding a valid active license in another state, that the initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination approved by the board .	16	pursuant to this chapter shall:
19 examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic 20 Medical Examiners or other examination approved by the board no 21 more than 5 years before making application in this state or, if 22 holding a valid active license in another state, that the 23 initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5 24 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the 25 examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic 26 Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination 27 approved by the board .	17	(m) Demonstrate that she or he has obtained a passing
Medical Examiners or other examination approved by the board no more than 5 years before making application in this state or, if holding a valid active license in another state, that the initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination approved by the board .	18	score, as established by rule of the board, on all parts of the <pre>more than 5 years before making application in this state or, if holding a valid active license in another state, that the initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination approved by the board.</pre>	19	examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic
holding a valid active license in another state, that the initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination approved by the board.	20	Medical Examiners or other examination approved by the board no
23 initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5 24 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the 25 examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic 26 Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination 27 approved by the board.	21	more than 5 years before making application in this state or, if
24 years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the 25 examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic 26 Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination 27 approved by the board.	22	holding a valid active license in another state, that the
<pre>25 examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic 26 Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination 27 approved by the board.</pre>	23	initial licensure in the other state occurred no more than 5
26 Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination 27 approved by the board.	24	years after the applicant obtained a passing score on the
27 approved by the board.	25	examination conducted by the National Board of Osteopathic
	26	Medical Examiners or other substantially similar examination
28 (2) If the applicant holds a valid active license in	27	approved by the board.
	28	(2) If the applicant holds a valid active license in

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

2012 Legislature

29	another state and it has been more than 2 years since the active
30	practice of osteopathic medicine, or if an applicant does not
31	hold a valid active license to practice osteopathic medicine in
32	another state and it has been more than 2 years since completion
33	of a resident internship, residency, or fellowship, and if the
34	board determines that the interruption in practice has adversely
35	affected the osteopathic physician's present ability and fitness
36	to practice, the board may:
37	(a) Deny the application;
38	(b) Issue a license having reasonable restrictions or
39	conditions that may include, but are not limited to, a
40	requirement for the applicant to practice under the supervision
41	of a physician approved by the board; or
42	(c) Issue a license upon receipt of documentation
43	confirming that the applicant has met any reasonable conditions
44	of the board which may include, but are not limited to,
45	completing continuing education or undergoing an assessment of
46	skills and training. For an applicant holding a valid active
47	license in another state, he or she shall submit evidence of the 48	active licensed practice of medicine in another jurisdiction in
49	which initial licensure must have occurred no more than 5 years
50	after the applicant obtained a passing score on the examination
51	conducted by the National Board of Medical Examiners or other
52	substantially similar examination approved by the board;
53	however, such practice of osteopathic medicine may have been
54	interrupted for a period totaling no more than 2 years or for a
55	longer period if the board determines that the interruption of
56	the osteopathic physician's practice of osteopathic medicine for
·	Page 2 of 4

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

2012 Legislature

57 such longer period has not adversely affected the osteopathic 58 physician's present ability and fitness to practice osteopathic 59 medicine.

60 Section 2. Subsections (1), (3), (4), and (6) of section 61 459.021, Florida Statutes, are amended to read:

459.021 Registration of resident physicians, interns, and fellows; list of hospital employees; penalty.-

64 Any person who holds a degree of Doctor of Osteopathic (1)65 Medicine from a college of osteopathic medicine recognized and 66 approved by the American Osteopathic Association who desires to 67 practice as a resident physician, assistant resident physician, 68 house physician, intern, or fellow in fellowship training which leads to subspecialty board certification in this state, or any 69 70 person desiring to practice as a resident physician, assistant 71 resident physician, house physician, intern, or fellow in 72 fellowship training in a teaching hospital in this state as 73 defined in s. 408.07(45) or s. 395.805(2), who does not hold an 74 active license issued under this chapter shall apply to the 75 department to be registered, on an application provided by the 76 department, before commencing such a training program and shall 77 remit a fee not to exceed $300 as set by the board.

(3) Every hospital or teaching hospital having employed or contracted with or utilized the services of a person who holds a degree of Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine from a college of osteopathic medicine recognized and approved by the American Osteopathic Association as a resident physician, assistant resident physician, house physician, intern, or fellow in fellowship training registered under this section shall

Page 3 of 4

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.

2012 Legislature

designate a person who shall furnish, on dates designated by the board, in consultation with the department, to the department a list of all such persons who have served in such hospital during the preceding 6-month period. The chief executive officer of each such hospital shall provide the executive director of the board with the name, title, and address of the person responsible for filing such reports.

92 (4) The registration may be revoked or the department may 93 refuse to issue any registration for any cause which would be a 94 ground for its revocation or refusal to issue a license to 95 practice osteopathic medicine, as well as on the following 96 grounds:

97 (a) Omission of the name of an intern, resident physician, 98 assistant resident physician, house physician, or fellow in 99 fellowship training from the list of employees required by 100 subsection (3) to be furnished to the department by the hospital 101 or teaching hospital served by the employee.

(b) Practicing osteopathic medicine outside of a bona fidehospital training program.

104 (6) Any person desiring registration pursuant to this 105 section shall meet all the requirements of s. 459.0055, except 106 paragraphs (1)(1) and (m).

107

Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2012.

Page 4 of 4

CODING: Words stricken are deletions; words underlined are additions.