26 Findings 27 28 The member states find that: 29 a. Corporate giveaways are among the least effective uses 30 of taxpayer dollars to create and maintain jobs; 31 b. Local and state leaders are in a prisoners' dilemma 32 where it is best for all to create a level playing field for all 33 employers without any corporate giveaways, but each level of 34 government has an incentive to subsidize a company, generating a 35 race to the bottom; 36 c. Governments should attract and retain companies based 37 on general conditions, including modern infrastructure, an educated workforce, a clean environment, and a favorable tax and 38 39 regulatory climate, not based on a specific grant for a 40 particular company; 41 d. Corporate giveaways fuel business inequality as only 42 the largest businesses receive the vast majority of these funds; 43 e. A reasonable first step in phasing out corporate 44 giveaways is an anti-poaching agreement among state governments 45 prohibiting state company-specific tax incentives and state company-specific grants as an inducement for entities to 46 47 relocate existing facilities; f. Creating a national board of gubernatorial appointees 48 49 charged with finding consensus around improvements to this agreement. The board shall collect testimony from all interested parties, including organizations and associations representing state legislators, taxpayers, and subject matter experts on how the agreement can be improved and strengthened.

ARTICLE IX

Liberal Construction

This compact shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purposes. If any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this compact, or the applicability of any phrase, clause, sentence, or provision of this compact to any government, agency, person, or circumstance is declared in a final judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction to be contrary to the constitution of the United States or is otherwise held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability of the remainder of this compact to any government, agency, person, or circumstance shall not be affected. If this compact is held to be contrary to the constitution of any member state, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining member states and in full force and effect as to the affected member state as to all severable matters.

Section 2. This act shall take effect upon the adoption of the interstate compact agreement by two or more states.
