79 SECTION 4.

80 Said article is further amended by revising Code Section 8-3-213, relating to state action for 81 enforcement, fines, damages, civil action by local agency, and administrative proceeding, as 82 follows:

83 "8-3-213.

84 (a)(1) When a charge is ~~filed~~ issued to initiate an administrative complaint under Code
 85 Section ~~8-3-208~~ 8-3-211, a complainant, a respondent, or an aggrieved person on whose 86 behalf the complaint was filed may elect to have the claims asserted in that charge
 87 decided in a civil action brought by the Attorney General on behalf of the aggrieved 88 person as provided under paragraph (2) of this subsection in lieu of a hearing under 89 ~~subparagraph (e)(1)(A) or (e)(1)(B)~~ subsection (e) of this Code section. The election
 90 must be made not later than 20 days after the receipt by the electing person of service
 91 under Code Section 8-3-211 or, in the case of the administrator, not later than 20 days
 92 after such service. The person making such election shall give notice of doing so to the 93 administrator and to all other complainants and respondents to whom the charge relates.
 94 (2) If the administrator has been unable to obtain voluntary compliance or as a result of 95 an investigation under Code Section 8-3-209 finds that there is reasonable cause to 96 believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred, at the recommendation of the

97 administrator, the Attorney General, ~~after reviewing the administrator's findings and~~ 98 ~~determining that such findings are well grounded in fact and warranted by law~~, shall 99 bring an action in the name of the state on behalf of the aggrieved person to enforce the 100 provisions of this article.

101 (3) If an election is made under ~~paragraph (1) or (2)~~ of this subsection, the administrator
 102 shall authorize and, not later than 30 days after the election is made, the Attorney
 103 General, ~~after reviewing the administrator's charge and determining that such charge is~~ 104 ~~well grounded in fact and warranted by law~~, shall commence a civil action in the name
 105 of the state on behalf of the aggrieved person seeking relief under this Code section in a 106 superior court.

107 (b) Whenever an action filed in court pursuant to paragraph (2) of subsection (a) of this 108 Code section or Code Section 8-3-217 or 8-3-218 comes to trial, the administrator shall 109 immediately terminate all efforts to obtain voluntary compliance.

110 (c)(1) The court may impose the following fines if the respondent has been adjudged to

 117 more discriminatory housing practices within the preceding seven years.

118 (2) The court ~~may award in its discretion~~ may award the prevailing party reasonable
 119 attorney's fees and court costs; provided, however, that a respondent may be awarded
 120 reasonable attorney's fees and costs to the administrator or aggrieved person in any action
 121 in which the administrator or aggrieved person prevails or to the respondent in any action
 122 in which court costs only if the respondent prevails only on all alleged violations of this 123 article and upon a showing that the action is frivolous, unreasonable, or without 124 foundation.

125 (3) In addition to the remedies set forth in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection, the 126 court may award actual damages and punitive damages to the aggrieved person. Punitive
 127 damages awarded under this subsection may be awarded only when the evidence shows
 128 that the respondent's actions showed willful misconduct, malice, fraud, wantonness,
 129 oppression, or that entire want of care which would raise the presumption of conscious
 130 indifference to consequences or to the rights of the aggrieved party.

131 (d) Any local agency certified as substantially equivalent by the secretary of housing and 132 urban development pursuant to Section 810 of the federal Fair Housing Amendments Act
 133 of 1988 may institute a civil action in any appropriate court, including superior court, if it

134 is unable to obtain voluntary compliance with the local fair housing law. The agency need
 135 not have petitioned for an administrative hearing or exhausted its administrative remedies
 136 prior to bringing a civil action. The court may impose fines as provided in the local fair 137 housing law.

138 ~~(e)(1) If the administrator is unable to obtain voluntary compliance with this article and~~
 139 ~~has reasonable cause to believe that a discriminatory housing practice has occurred:~~

140 ~~(A) The administrator may institute an administrative proceeding under Chapter 13 of~~ 141 ~~Title 50; or~~

142 ~~(B) The person aggrieved may request administrative relief under Chapter 13 of Title~~

144 ~~When an administrative hearing is to be instituted under subparagraph (A) or (B) of this~~
 145 ~~paragraph Where an election is not made under paragraph (1) of subsection (a) of this~~ 146 ~~Code section, the administrator shall refer the case to the board of commissioners to~~ 147 ~~conduct a hearing in accordance with this article. The board of commissioners shall~~ 148 ~~designate a panel of three of its members, one of which must be an attorney licensed to~~

 166 ~~commissioners'~~ administrative law judge's discretion for an additional time not to exceed 167 ten working days. The respondent's answer must show by a certificate of service that the 168 respondent has served a copy of the answer on the administrator and complainant or the 169 complainant's attorney at the last known address of the complainant or the complainant's
 170 attorney where the complainant is represented by an attorney. Upon leave of the ~~board~~

171 ~~of commissioners~~ administrative law judge, the complainant may amend the charges
 172 contained in the notice of hearing. The respondent may amend an answer at any time
 173 prior to the hearing or, upon leave of the ~~board of commissioners~~ administrative law
 174 judge, may amend thereafter. No ~~final~~ order shall be issued unless the respondent has 175 had the opportunity of a hearing on the charges contained in the notice of hearing or 176 amendment on which the final order is based. If the respondent fails to answer the 177 complaint, the ~~board of commissioners~~ administrative law judge may enter the 178 respondent's default. Unless the default is set aside for good cause shown, the hearing
 179 may proceed under the available evidence.

180 ~~(4) At any time after a notice of hearing is served upon a respondent, discovery shall be~~
 181 ~~authorized in the same manner and fashion as discovery is permitted under Code Sections~~
 182 ~~9-11-26 through 9-11-37. Any order contemplated in Code Sections 9-11-26 through~~ 183 ~~9-11-37 may be issued by the board of commissioners. Judicial enforcement of any such~~

 270 may affirm a final order of the ~~board of commissioners~~ administrative law judge or remand 271 the case for further proceedings. The court may reverse or modify the final order if 304 and determined by the court."

305 SECTION 8.

306 Said article is further amended by revising subsections (a) and (b) of Code Section 8-3-217,
 307 relating to civil actions by aggrieved persons, as follows:

308 "(a)(1) An aggrieved person may commence a civil action in an appropriate superior 309 court not later than two years after the occurrence or the termination of an alleged

 311 under this article, whichever occurs last, to obtain appropriate relief with respect to such 312 discriminatory housing practice or breach of a conciliation agreement.

313 (2) The computation of such two-year period shall not include any time during which an 314 administrative proceeding under this article was pending with respect to a complaint or 315 charge under this article based upon such discriminatory housing practice. This 316 paragraph does not apply to actions arising from a breach of a conciliation agreement.

317 (3) An aggrieved person may commence a civil action under this subsection whether or 318 not a complaint has been filed under Code Section 8-3-208 and without regard to the 319 status of any such complaint, but if the administrator has obtained a conciliation
 320 agreement with the consent of an aggrieved person, no action may be filed under this 321 subsection by such aggrieved person with respect to the alleged discriminatory housing 322 practice which forms the basis for such complaint except for the purpose of enforcing the 323 terms of such conciliation agreement.

324 (4) An aggrieved person may not commence a civil action under this subsection with 325 respect to an alleged discriminatory housing practice which forms the basis of a charge 326 issued by the administrator if ~~the board of commissioners~~ an administrative law judge has 327 commenced a hearing on the record under this article with respect to such charge.

328 (b)(1) The court may grant as relief, as it deems appropriate, any permanent or temporary 329 injunction, temporary restraining order, or other order and may award to the plaintiff 330 reasonable attorney's fees, court costs, actual damages, and punitive damages ~~not to~~
 331 ~~exceed penalties permitted by the federal Fair Housing Amendments Act of 1988, 42~~
 332 ~~U.S.C. Section 3601, et seq., as amended.~~ Punitive damages may be awarded under this 333 article only when the evidence shows that the respondent's actions showed willful 334 misconduct, malice, fraud, wantonness, oppression, or that entire want of care which 335 would raise the presumption of conscious indifference to consequences or to the rights
 336 of the aggrieved party.

337 (2) Where it is proved that the aggrieved party took an active part in the initiation,
 338 continuation, or procurement of civil proceedings against a respondent, the aggrieved
 339 party may be liable for abusive litigation as provided for in Article 5 of Chapter 7 of 340 Title 51."

341 SECTION 9.

342 Said article is further amended by revising subsection (d) of and by adding a new subsection
 343 to Code Section 8-3-218, relating to civil actions by Attorney General, as follows:

354 (2) In a civil action brought under subsection (a) or (b) of this Code section, the court in 355 its discretion may allow the prevailing party reasonable attorney's fees and court costs;
356 provided, however, that a respondent may be awarded reasonable attorney's fees and 357 court costs ~~only~~ if the respondent prevails on all alleged violations of this article and upon 358 a showing that the action is frivolous, unreasonable, or without foundation."

359 "(f) Nothing in this article shall be interpreted to limit or alter the Attorney General's 360 authority to determine whether to file or otherwise maintain a civil action."

361

SECTION 10.

362 All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are repealed.
