Sec. 10. A consumer genetic testing provider that violates this chapter commits a deceptive act that is actionable by the attorney general and is subject to the remedies and penalties under IC 24-5-0.5.

7 SECTION 3. IC 24-5-0.5-3, AS AMENDED BY P.L.34-2022, 8 SECTION 7, IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE 9 JULY 1, 2024]: Sec. 3. (a) A supplier may not commit an unfair, 10 abusive, or deceptive act, omission, or practice in connection with a 11 consumer transaction. Such an act, omission, or practice by a supplier 12 is a violation of this chapter whether it occurs before, during, or after 13 the transaction. An act, omission, or practice prohibited by this section 14 includes both implicit and explicit misrepresentations.

(b) Without limiting the scope of subsection (a), the following acts, and the following representations as to the subject matter of a consumer transaction, made orally, in writing, or by electronic communication, by a supplier, are deceptive acts:

(1) That such subject of a consumer transaction has sponsorship, approval, performance, characteristics, accessories, uses, or benefits it does not have which the supplier knows or should reasonably know it does not have.

(2) That such subject of a consumer transaction is of a particular standard, quality, grade, style, or model, if it is not and if the supplier knows or should reasonably know that it is not.

26 (3) That such subject of a consumer transaction is new or unused, if it is not and if the supplier knows or should reasonably knowthat it is not.

29 (4) That such subject of a consumer transaction will be supplied 30 to the public in greater quantity than the supplier intends or 31 reasonably expects.

32 (5) That replacement or repair constituting the subject of a
33 consumer transaction is needed, if it is not and if the supplier 34 knows or should reasonably know that it is not.

35 (6) That a specific price advantage exists as to such subject of a 36 consumer transaction, if it does not and if the supplier knows or 37 should reasonably know that it does not.

(7) That the supplier has a sponsorship, approval, or affiliation in such consumer transaction the supplier does not have, and which the supplier knows or should reasonably know that the supplier does not have.

42 (8) That such consumer transaction involves or does not involve

1	a warranty, a disclaimer of warranties, or other rights, remedies,
2	or obligations, if the representation is false and if the supplier
3	knows or should reasonably know that the representation is false.
4	(9) That the consumer will receive a rebate, discount, or other
5	benefit as an inducement for entering into a sale or lease in return
6	for giving the supplier the names of prospective consumers or
7	otherwise helping the supplier to enter into other consumer
8	transactions, if earning the benefit, rebate, or discount is
9	contingent upon the occurrence of an event subsequent to the time
10	the consumer agrees to the purchase or lease.
11	(10) That the supplier is able to deliver or complete the subject of
12	the consumer transaction within a stated period of time, when the
12	supplier knows or should reasonably know the supplier could not.
13	If no time period has been stated by the supplier, there is a
15	presumption that the supplier has represented that the supplier
16	will deliver or complete the subject of the consumer transaction
17	within a reasonable time, according to the course of dealing or the
18	usage of the trade.
19	(11) That the consumer will be able to purchase the subject of the
20	consumer transaction as advertised by the supplier, if the supplier
20 21	does not intend to sell it.
21
22	(12) That the replacement or repair constituting the subject of a
23 24	consumer transaction can be made by the supplier for the estimate the supplier gives a customer for the replacement or repair, if the 25	specified work is completed and:
26	(A) the cost exceeds the estimate by an amount equal to or $(100)$ of the estimate
27	greater than ten percent (10%) of the estimate;
28	(B) the supplier did not obtain written permission from the
29	customer to authorize the supplier to complete the work even
30	if the cost would exceed the amounts specified in clause (A);
31	(C) the total cost for services and parts for a single transaction
32	is more than seven hundred fifty dollars ($750); and
33	(D) the supplier knew or reasonably should have known that
34	the cost would exceed the estimate in the amounts specified in
35	clause (A).
36	(13) That the replacement or repair constituting the subject of a
37	consumer transaction is needed, and that the supplier disposes of
38	the part repaired or replaced earlier than seventy-two (72) hours
39	after both:
40	(A) the customer has been notified that the work has been
41	completed; and

9 Except as provided in subsection (k), the court may award reasonable 10 attorney's fees to the party that prevails in an action under this 11 subsection. This subsection does not apply to a consumer transaction 12 in real property, including a claim or action involving a construction 13 defect (as defined in IC 32-27-3-1(5)) brought against a construction professional (as defined in IC 32-27-3-1(4)), except for purchases of 14 15 time shares and camping club memberships. This subsection does not apply with respect to a deceptive act described in section 3(b)(20) of 16 17 this chapter. This subsection also does not apply to a violation of 18 IC 24-4-24, IC 24-4.7, IC 24-5-12, IC 24-5-14, or IC 24-5-14.5. Actual 19 damages awarded to a person under this section have priority over any 20 civil penalty imposed under this chapter.

21 (b) Any person who is entitled to bring an action under subsection 22 (a) on the person's own behalf against a supplier for damages for a 23 deceptive act may bring a class action against such supplier on behalf 24 of any class of persons of which that person is a member and which has 25 been damaged by such deceptive act, subject to and under the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure governing class actions, except as herein 26 27 expressly provided. Except as provided in subsection (k), the court may 28 award reasonable attorney's fees to the party that prevails in a class 29 action under this subsection, provided that such fee shall be determined 30 by the amount of time reasonably expended by the attorney and not by 31 the amount of the judgment, although the contingency of the fee may 32 be considered. Except in the case of an extension of time granted by the 33 attorney general under IC 24-10-2-2(b) in an action subject to IC 24-10, 34 any money or other property recovered in a class action under this 35 subsection which cannot, with due diligence, be restored to consumers 36 within one (1) year after the judgment becomes final shall be returned 37 to the party depositing the same. This subsection does not apply to a 38 consumer transaction in real property, except for purchases of time 39 shares and camping club memberships. This subsection does not apply 40 with respect to a deceptive act described in section 3(b)(20) of this 41 chapter. Actual damages awarded to a class have priority over any civil 42 penalty imposed under this chapter.

1 (c) The attorney general may bring an action to enjoin a deceptive 2 act, including a deceptive act described in section 3(b)(20) of this 3 chapter, notwithstanding subsections (a) and (b). However, the attorney 4 general may seek to enjoin patterns of incurable deceptive acts with 5 respect to consumer transactions in real property. In addition, the court 6 may: 7 (1) issue an injunction; 8 (2) order the supplier to make payment of the money unlawfully 9 received from the aggrieved consumers to be held in escrow for distribution to aggrieved consumers; 10 (3) for a knowing violation against a senior consumer, increase 11 the amount of restitution ordered under subdivision (2) in any 12 13 amount up to three (3) times the amount of damages incurred or value of property or assets lost; 14 15 (4) order the supplier to pay to the state the reasonable costs of 16 the attorney general's investigation and prosecution related to the 17 action; 18 (5) provide for the appointment of a receiver; and 19 (6) order the department of state revenue to suspend the supplier's 20 registered retail merchant certificate, subject to the requirements 21 and prohibitions contained in IC 6-2.5-8-7(i), if the court finds 22 that a violation of this chapter involved the sale or solicited sale 23 of a synthetic drug (as defined in IC 35-31.5-2-321), a synthetic 24 drug lookalike substance (as defined in IC 35-31.5-2-321.5 25 (repealed)) (before July 1, 2019), a controlled substance analog 26 (as defined in IC 35-48-1-9.3), or a substance represented to be a 27 controlled substance (as described in IC 35-48-4-4.6). 28 (d) In an action under subsection (a), (b), or (c), the court may void 29 or limit the application of contracts or clauses resulting from deceptive 30 acts and order restitution to be paid to aggrieved consumers. 31 (e) In any action under subsection (a) or (b), upon the filing of the 32 complaint or on the appearance of any defendant, claimant, or any 33 other party, or at any later time, the trial court, the supreme court, or the 34 court of appeals may require the plaintiff, defendant, claimant, or any 35 other party or parties to give security, or additional security, in such sum as the court shall direct to pay all costs, expenses, and 36 37 disbursements that shall be awarded against that party or which that 38 party may be directed to pay by any interlocutory order by the final 39 judgment or on appeal. 40 (f) Any person who violates the terms of an injunction issued under 41

41 subsection (c) shall forfeit and pay to the state a civil penalty of not 42 more than fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) per violation. For the purposes of this section, the court issuing an injunction shall retain jurisdiction, the cause shall be continued, and the attorney general acting in the name of the state may petition for recovery of civil penalties. Whenever the court determines that an injunction issued under subsection (c) has been violated, the court shall award reasonable costs to the state.

(g) If a court finds any person has knowingly violated section 3 or 10 of this chapter, other than section 3(b)(19), 3(b)(20), or 3(b)(40), or 3(b)(42) of this chapter, the attorney general, in an action pursuant to subsection (c), may recover from the person on behalf of the state a civil penalty of a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000) per violation.

(j) An offer to cure is:

(1) not admissible as evidence in a proceeding initiated under this section unless the offer to cure is delivered by a supplier to the consumer or a representative of the consumer before the supplier files the supplier's initial response to a complaint; and

32 (2) only admissible as evidence in a proceeding initiated under

1 the value of the offer to cure.

2 (1) If a court finds that a person has knowingly violated section 3 3(b)(20) of this chapter, the attorney general, in an action under 4 subsection (c), may recover from the person on behalf of the state a 5 civil penalty not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) per 6 consumer. In determining the amount of the civil penalty in any action 7 by the attorney general under this subsection, the court shall consider, 8 among other relevant factors, the frequency and persistence of 9 noncompliance by the debt collector, the nature of the noncompliance, 10 and the extent to which the noncompliance was intentional. A person may not be held liable in any action by the attorney general for a 11 12 violation of section 3(b)(20) of this chapter if the person shows by a 13 preponderance of evidence that the violation was not intentional and 14 resulted from a bona fide error, notwithstanding the maintenance of 15 procedures reasonably adapted to avoid the error. A person may not be 16 held liable in any action for a violation of this chapter for contacting a 17 person other than the debtor, if the contact is made in compliance with 18 the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.

19 (m) If a court finds that a person has knowingly or intentionally 20 violated section 3(b)(40) of this chapter, the attorney general, in an 21 action under subsection (c), may recover from the person on behalf of 22 the state a civil penalty in accordance with IC 24-5-14.5-12(b). As 23 specified in IC 24-5-14.5-12(b), a civil penalty recovered under 24 IC 24-5-14.5-12(b) shall be deposited in the consumer protection 25 division telephone solicitation fund established by IC 24-4.7-3-6 to be 26 used for the administration and enforcement of IC 24-5-14.5. In 27 addition to the recovery of a civil penalty in accordance with 28 IC 24-5-14.5-12(b), the attorney general may also recover reasonable 29 attorney fees and court costs from the person on behalf of the state. 30 Those funds shall also be deposited in the consumer protection division 31 telephone solicitation fund established by IC 24-4.7-3-6.

(n) If a court finds that a person has violated section 3(b)(42) of this chapter, the attorney general, in an action under subsection (c), may recover from the person on behalf of the state a civil penalty for each violation in the amount of:

36 (1) not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) if the court
37 finds that the violation was neither knowing nor intentional;
