SENATE BILL No. 185

DIGEST OF SB 185 (Updated January 16, 2020 4:17 pm - DI 133)

Citations Affected: IC 15-22.

Synopsis: Sale of companion animals. Prohibits the sale of a companion animal unless the companion animal: (1) is at least eight weeks of age; and (2) has received appropriate vaccinations. Makes a violation a Class C infraction for every animal unlawfully sold, and increases the penalty to a Class B infraction if the person has a prior judgment for an unlawful sale. Defines "unfit for sale" and provides remedies for a person who purchases a companion animal that was unfit for sale or that was the subject of misrepresentations concerning the animal's age or medical history.

Effective: July 1, 2020.

SENATE BILL No. 185

A BILL FOR AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning criminal law and procedure.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

- 1 SECTION 1. IC 15-22 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS
2 A NEW ARTICLE TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1,
3 2020]:
4 ARTICLE 22. SALE OF COMPANION ANIMALS
5 Chapter 1. Application
6 Sec. 1. This chapter does not apply to the following:
7 (1) A research facility registered with the United States
8 Department of Agriculture under the federal Animal Welfare
9 Act (7 U.S.C. 2131 et seq.).
10 (2) An animal shelter.
11 (3) A humane society.
12 (4) An animal rescue operation that is exempt from federal
13 income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal
14 Revenue Code.
15 (5) An animal control agency or a governmental entity
16 operating another animal impounding facility.
17 Sec. 2. The following definitions apply throughout this article:

SB 185—LS 6478/DI 106

1 (1) "Appropriate vaccines" means:

2 (A) if the companion animal is a kitten:

3 (i) the rabies vaccine; and

4 (ii) all core vaccines recommended by the most recent
5 report issued by the feline vaccine advisory panel of the 6 American Association of Feline Practitioners; and

7 (B) if the companion animal is a puppy:

8 (i) the rabies vaccine; and

9 (ii) all core vaccines recommended by the most recent
10 revision of the canine vaccination guidelines published
11 by the American Animal Hospital Association.

12 (2) "Companion animal" has the meaning set forth in
13 IC 15-20-4-2.

14 (3) "Person" means an individual, a corporation, a limited
15 liability company, a partnership, or other business entity.

16 (4) "Seller" means a person who sells a companion animal.

17 (5) "Veterinarian" has the meaning set forth in
18 IC 15-17-2-102.

19 Chapter 2. Requirements for Sale of a Companion Animal

20 Sec. 1. A seller may not sell a companion animal unless the 21 companion animal is at least eight (8) weeks of age.

22 Sec. 2. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), a seller may not
23 sell a companion animal unless the animal has received all
24 appropriate vaccines.

25 (b) A seller may sell a companion animal that has not received
26 all appropriate vaccines if a veterinarian determines that one (1)
27 or more specific vaccines should not be administered to the
28 companion animal due to the age or condition of the companion
29 animal.

30 Sec. 3. A person that violates this chapter commits a Class C
31 infraction for every animal sold in violation of this chapter.
32 However, the offense is a Class B infraction for every animal sold
33 if the person has a prior unrelated judgment for a violation of this 34 chapter.

35 Chapter 3. Recourse if a Companion Animal is Unfit for Sale

36 Sec. 1. For purposes of this chapter, a companion animal is 37 "unfit for sale" if, in the professional opinion of a veterinarian, one
38 (1) or more of the following apply:

39 (1) The companion animal has become ill or otherwise
40 symptomatic due to an illness, injury, or other defect that 41 existed in the companion animal before the purchaser took 42 possession of the animal.

- 1 (2) The companion animal has a congenital or hereditary
2 condition that adversely affects the health of the animal or
3 that requires or is likely to require hospitalization or 4 nonelective surgical procedures.
- 5 Sec. 2. If a companion animal is unfit for sale, a purchaser is 6 entitled to relief under this chapter if the purchaser notifies the 7 seller in writing that the companion animal is unfit for sale not 8 later than:
- 9 (1) fifteen (15) days from the day the purchaser took
10 possession of the companion animal, if the companion animal
11 is unfit for sale under section 1(1) of this chapter; or 12 (2) sixty (60) days from the day the purchaser took possession
13 of the companion animal, if the companion animal is unfit for 14 sale under section 1(2) of this chapter.
- 15 Sec. 3. Except as provided in sections 4 and 5 of this chapter, if 16 a companion animal is unfit for sale, the purchaser may elect one
17 (1) of the following remedies:
- 18 (1) Return the companion animal to the seller for a refund of 19 the purchase price.
20 (2) If a replacement companion animal is available, exchange
21 the companion animal for a companion animal of the same
22 species and of equivalent value and receive reimbursement for 23 reasonable veterinary fees for diagnosis and treatment in an 24 amount of not more than the original purchase price of the
25 companion animal.
26 (3) Retain the companion animal and receive reimbursement
27 from the seller for reasonable veterinary fees for diagnosis
28 and treatment in an amount of not more than the original
29 purchase price of the companion animal.
- 30 Sec. 4. A purchaser is not entitled to a remedy described in 31 section 3 of this chapter if one (1) or more of the following apply:
- 32 (1) The medical condition that makes the companion animal
33 unfit for sale was exacerbated due to neglect, maltreatment,
34 or injury that occurred after the purchaser took possession of 35 the companion animal.
36 (2) The purchaser failed to carry out the recommended
37 treatment prescribed by the veterinarian who made the initial 38 diagnosis, unless the cost of the treatment together with the 39 veterinarian's fees exceeds the purchase price of the
40 companion animal.
41 (3) At the time of sale, the seller disclosed the companion
42 animal's specific medical condition in a written document

prepared by a veterinarian.
Sec. 5. A purchaser is not entitled to a remedy described in section 3 of chapter unless the purchaser provides the seller with a copy of:

- (1) a written diagnosis prepared by a veterinarian explaining the reason that the companion animal was unfit for sale; and
- (2) if applicable, an itemized statement of fees prepared by the treating veterinarian.

Sec. 6. A purchaser may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to obtain a remedy described in this chapter.

Chapter 4. Recourse If a Seller Misrepresents the Age or Medical History of a Companion Animal

Sec. 1. This chapter applies if a seller makes a misrepresentation concerning the age or medical history of a companion animal, including a misrepresentation concerning vaccination.

Sec. 2. If a seller makes a misrepresentation concerning a companion animal as described in section 1 of this chapter, a purchaser is entitled to relief under this chapter if the purchaser notifies the seller in writing of the misrepresentation not later than sixty (60) days from the date the purchaser discovers the misrepresentation.

Sec. 3. A purchaser entitled to relief under this chapter may elect one (1) of the following remedies:

- (1) Return the companion animal to the seller for a refund of the purchase price.
- (2) If a replacement companion animal is available, exchange the companion animal for a companion animal of the same species and of equivalent value and receive reimbursement for reasonable veterinary fees, if applicable, for diagnosis, treatment, and vaccination in an amount of not more than the original purchase price of the companion animal.
- (3) Retain the companion animal and receive reimbursement from the seller for reasonable veterinary fees, if applicable, for diagnosis, treatment, and vaccination in an amount of not more than the original purchase price of the companion animal.
