The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court (2019-2020)

An Act combating misinformation about ex-offender voting rights.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 51 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 2 section 66, inserted by section 7A of chapter 205 of the acts of 2018, the following section:-

3 Section 67. (a) Any person who is convicted of a felony, as defined in section 1 of 4 chapter 274, in the commonwealth, but is not sentenced to incarceration in a jail or correctional 5 facility, shall be notified in writing by the ruling court, immediately following such conviction
6 and sentencing, of his or her voter eligibility, and shall confirm, in writing, that he or she was so 7 notified.

8 (b) A probation officer shall immediately notify, in writing, any person that is placed in 9 their care, who was convicted of a felony or incarcerated due to a felony conviction, of said
10 person’s voter eligibility status, shall provide said person with written information on voter 11 eligibility and voter registration, and shall obtain written confirmation from said person that he 12 or she was so notified.

13 (c) A parole officer shall immediately notify, in writing, any person that is placed in their 14 care, who was incarcerated due to a felony conviction, of said person's voter eligibility status, 15 shall provide said person with written information on voter eligibility and voter registration, and 16 shall obtain written confirmation from said person that he or she was so notified.

17 (d) Any person who is incarcerated due to a felony conviction shall, upon release from a 18 jail or correctional facility, be notified, in writing, by said jail or facility of his or her voter 19 eligibility and provided with written voter eligibility and voter registration information, and shall 20 confirm, in writing, that he or she was so notified.

21 (e) The office of the commissioner of probation shall notify, in writing, any person that 22 was convicted of a felony by a court of the commonwealth within the period of 10 years prior to 23 the effective date of this section, who is not currently incarcerated, of their voter eligibility, shall 24 provide said person with written voter eligibility and voter registration information and shall 25 obtain written confirmation from said person that he or she was so notified.
