The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Eighty-Ninth General Court (2015-2016)

An Act regulating the use of credit reports by employers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Chapter 93 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012 Official Edition,
- 2 is hereby amended by inserting after section 51A the following section:-
- 3 Section 51B. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), no person, including an
- 4 employer, prospective employer, employment agency, employment screener or licensing agency,
- 5 shall:
- 6 (1) use a consumer report in connection with or as a criterion for an employment
- 7 purpose, including decisions related to hiring, termination, promotion, demotion, discipline,
- 8 compensation, or the terms, conditions or privileges of employment;
- 9 (2) request or procure a consumer report for the purposes described in clause (1);
- 10 (3) ask an employee or applicant about his or her consumer report or about any
- 11 information contained therein regarding credit worthiness, credit standing or credit capacity.
- 12 (b) The provisions in paragraph (a) shall not apply in the following circumstances

- 13 (A) if an employer is required by federal or state law to use a consumer report for 14 employment purposes;
- (B) if the employee or applicant applies for or holds an executive or managerial position at a federally insured financial institution, and the annual compensation for the position, exclusive of bonuses or commissions, equals or exceeds $200,000 per year; or
- 18 (C) if the employee or applicant applies for or holds a position that requires 19 national security clearance..
- 20 (c) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this section, an employer shall not use a consumer report in a manner that results in adverse employment discrimination prohibited by federal or state law, including chapter 151B of the general laws and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.
- (d) If an employer obtains, uses, or seeks to obtain a consumer report pursuant toparagraph (b) of this section, the employer shall:
- 26 (1) obtain the employee's or applicant's written consent, in a document consisting 27 solely of the consent, each time the employer seeks to obtain the employee's or applicant's 28 consumer report;
- 29 (2) disclose in writing to the employee or applicant the employer's reasons for 30 accessing the consumer report, and, if the employer intends to take an adverse employment 31 action in whole or in part based on the report, disclose the reasons for the action, including which 32 information in the report the employer is basing the decision on, in writing at least 14 days prior 33 to taking the action, along with a copy of the report and the notice of consumer rights required by

- section 1681G(c)(1) of chapter 15 of the United States Code. The employer shall provide the employee or applicant, in a private discussion, the opportunity to dispute the relevance of the information upon which the employer based the adverse employment action, and shall consider any such dispute before making a final decision;
- 38 (3) if the employee or applicant provides oral or written notice to the employer 39 during the 14 day period set forth in subparagraph (2) that he or she has disputed the accuracy of 40 the consumer report with a consumer reporting agency, the employer shall not take an adverse 41 employment action until the resolution of the dispute under section 58 of this chapter or section 42 1681i(a) of chapter 15 of the United States Code, and shall consider the results of any such 43 resolution;
- 44 (4) ensure that none of the costs associated with obtaining a consumer report are 45 paid by or passed on to the employee or applicant.
- 46 (e) Any person aggrieved by a violation of this section shall be entitled to file a complaint 47 with the Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination, under chapter 151B of the general 48 laws.
- 49 (f) Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall constitute an unfair practice 50 under the provisions of clause (a) of section 2 of chapter 93A.
- (g) No person shall retaliate, discriminate, or take any adverse action against an employee or applicant on the basis that the employee or application has or intends to:
- (1) file a complaint pursuant to paragraphs (e) or (f) of this section;
- 54 (2) allege that the person violated any provision of this section;

- 55 (3) testify, assist, give evidence, or participate in an investigation, proceeding or 56 action concerning a violation of this section; or
- 57 (4) otherwise oppose a violation of this section.
- 58 (h) No person shall require or request an employee or applicant to waive any provision of 59 this section. Any such waiver shall be deemed null, void and of no effect.
- SECTION 2. Subsection (a) of section 51 of chapter 93 of the general laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting after the words "employment purposes," in line 12 in clause (3)(ii), the following words:- "subject to the provisions of section 51B of this chapter;".
