as introduced

Sec. 2. 3

1.1	(c) Each network company shall allow an eligible driver to elect to also contribute to
1.2	the eligible driver's portable benefit account and shall deduct the amount elected by the
1.3	eligible driver from the individual's earnings and designate such amount for contribution
1.4	to the portable benefit account.
1.5	(d) A network company shall deposit any deductions elected under paragraph (c) into
1.6	the eligible driver's portable benefit account on a quarterly basis, no later than seven days
1.7	following the allocation date for the quarter.
l.8	(e) Contributions made by a network company under paragraph (a) shall come directly
1.9	from the network company and not be deducted or drawn from an eligible driver's earnings.
1.10	(f) Any contribution under paragraphs (a) or (c) shall be made to the default portable
.11	benefit account the network company elects on behalf of the eligible driver, unless an eligible
1.12	worker elects a different portable benefit account and informs the network company at least
1.13	30 days prior to the allocation date.
1.14	(g) Each network company shall ensure that the default portable benefit account offered
1.15	by the network company makes available at least one individual retirement account provider.
1.16	Subd. 2. Distributions ; commingling prohibited. (a) An eligible driver who has
1.17	deposited money in a portable benefit account may receive a distribution of amounts for a
1.18	permissible use.
1.19	(b) Assets in a portable benefit account shall not be commingled with other property
1.20	except in a common trust fund or common investment fund.
.21	Sec. 3. [181C.03] OCCUPATIONAL ACCIDENT INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS.
1.22	Subdivision 1. Definitions. (a) For the purposes of this section, the following terms have
1.23	the meanings given.
1.24	(b) "Average weekly earnings" means the app-based driver's total earnings from a
1.25	particular network company during the 28 calendar days immediately prior to a covered
1.26	accident divided by four.
1.27	(c) "Maximum weekly compensation rate" has the meaning given in section 176.101,
1.28	subdivision 1, paragraph (b), clause (1).
1.29	(d) "Minimum weekly compensation rate" has the meaning given in section 176.101,
1.30	subdivision 1, paragraph (c).

Sec. 3. 4

SS/VJ

5.1	Subd. 2. Occupational accident insurance purchase requirement. (a) A network
5.2	company must purchase occupational accident insurance, as described in paragraph (c), for
5.3	all app-based drivers who provide services through their networks within the state.
5.4	(b) Network companies shall file with the Department of Commerce, no later than 30
5.5	days after the commencement of a new policy year, a copy of the policy it has purchased
5.6	for DNC couriers. The Department of Commerce shall be treated by the insurer as a certificate
5.7	holder for purposes of receiving notice of cancellation of the policy.
5.8	(c) The occupational accident insurance policy required under paragraph (a) shall cover
5.9	medical expenses and lost income resulting from injuries suffered while the app-based driver
5.10	engaged on a network company's online-enabled application or platform. The policy shall
5.11	at a minimum provide the following:
5.12	(1) coverage for medical expenses incurred, up to at least $250,000;
5.13	(2) continuous total disability payments, temporary total disability payments, and partial
5.14	disability equal to 66 percent of the app-based driver's average weekly earnings from all
5.15	network companies as of the date of injury but not more than the maximum weekly
5.16	compensation rate, unless the average weekly earnings of the app-based driver is less than
5.17	the minimum weekly compensation rate, in which case the weekly compensation shall be
5.18	equal to the app-based driver's average weekly wage. Payments under this paragraph shall
5.19	be made for up to the first 130 weeks following the injury; and
5.20	(3) for the benefit of spouses, children, or other dependents of app-based drivers,
5.21	accidental death insurance in the amount equal to 66 percent of the app-based driver's
5.22	average weekly earnings from all network companies as of the date of injury but not more
5.23	than the maximum weekly compensation rate, unless the average weekly wage of the
5.24	app-based driver is less than the minimum weekly compensation rate, in which case the
5.25	weekly compensation shall be equal to the app-based driver's average weekly wage, times
5.26	130 weeks for injuries suffered by an app-based driver while the app-based driver is engaged
5.27	on the network company's online-enabled application or platform that resulted in death.
5.28	(d) If an accident is covered by occupational accident insurance maintained by more
5.29	than one network company, the insurer of the network company against whom a claim is
5.30	filed is entitled to contribution for the pro rata share of coverage attributable to one or more
5.31	other network companies up to the coverages and limits in paragraph (c).
5.32	(e) For purposes of this section, an app-based driver is engaged on a network company's
5.33	platform from when the app-based driver commences work related to a specific delivery
5.34	request to when the app-based driver completes that delivery request.

Sec. 3. 5

(f) Any benefits provided to an app-based driver under this section are considered amounts payable under a workers' compensation law or disability benefit for the purpose of determining amounts payable under any insurance provided under chapter 176 or under any personal injury protection coverage policy.

- For the purposes of this chapter, an app-based driver is an independent contractor and not an employee or agent with respect to the driver's relationship with a network company so long as:
- (1) the network company does not unilaterally prescribe specific dates, times of day, or a minimum number of hours during which the app-based driver must be logged into the network company's online-enabled application or platform;
- (2) the network company may not terminate the contract of the app-based driver for not accepting a specific delivery service request, except where refusal constitutes a violation of governing federal, state, or local regulations;
- (3) the network company does not restrict the app-based driver from performing services through other network company's platforms except while performing services through the network company's online-enabled application or platform; and
- 6.18 (4) the network company does not contractually restrict the app-based driver from working in any other lawful occupation.

Sec. 5. [181C.05] DISCRIMINATION PROHIBITED.

It is an unlawful practice, unless based upon a bona fide occupational qualification or public or app-based driver safety need, for a network company to refuse to contract with, terminate the contract of, or deactivate from the network company's online-enabled application or platform any app-based driver or prospective app-based driver based upon race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, status with regard to public assistance, familial status, membership or activity in a local commission, disability, sexual orientation, or age.

Sec. 6. [181C.06] RULEMAKING AUTHORITY.

The commissioner of labor and industry may promulgate rules and regulations to implement this chapter.

Sec. 6. 6

Jurisdiction in all matters concerning network companies and app-based drivers is vested exclusively in the state. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no municipality or other local government entity shall establish or enforce any provision of law concerning network companies or app-based drivers. Any provision of local law or ordinance that on its face or as applied regulates network companies or app-based drivers shall be preempted

- Sec. 8. Minnesota Statutes 2022, section 290.0132, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:
