AN ACT

To repeal sections 43.504, 43.507, and 610.140, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof three new sections relating to expungement of records.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Sections 43.504, 43.507, and 610.140, RSMo, are repealed and 2 three new sections enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 43.504, 43.507,

3 and 610.140, to read as follows:

43.504. Notwithstanding section 610.120, the sheriff of any county, the sheriff of the City of St. Louis, and the judges of the circuit courts of this state 2 3 may make available, for review, information obtained from the central repository to private entities responsible for probation supervision pursuant to sections 4 559.600 to 559.615, as well as to expungement clinics or legal aid  $\mathbf{5}$ organizations for the purposes of pursuing relief under section 6 7 610.140. When the term of probation is completed or when the material is no longer needed for purposes related to the probation or expungement, it shall 8 9 be returned to the court or destroyed. Criminal history information obtained from 10 the central repository may be made available to private entities responsible for providing services associated with drug treatment courts under sections 478.001 11 12 to 478.008 and to expungement clinics or legal aid organizations for the purposes of pursuing relief under section 610.140. The private entities 13 shall not use or make this information available to any other person for any other 14 15purpose.

43.507. 1. All criminal history information, in the possession or control 2 of the central repository, except criminal intelligence and investigative 3 information, may be made available to qualified persons and organizations for 4 research, evaluative and statistical purposes under written agreements
5 reasonably designed to ensure the security and confidentiality of the information
6 and the protection of the privacy interests of the individuals who are subjects of 7 the criminal history.

8 2. Pro-bono clinics and legal aid organizations which seek to 9 expunge the records of petitioners at no-charge, pursuant to the 10 provisions of section 610.140, shall have access to all criminal history information in the possession or control of the central repository, 11 except criminal intelligence and investigation, for each petitioner who 12has executed a written agreement with said clinic or organization. In 13 14 these cases, pro-bono clinics and legal aid organizations shall not be subject to the provisions of subsection 3 of this section. 15

16 3. Prior to such information being made available, information 17 that uniquely identifies the individual shall be deleted. Organizations 18 receiving such criminal history information shall not reestablish the 19 identity of the individual and associate it with the criminal history 20 information being provided.

610.140. 1. For the purposes of this section, the following terms 2 mean:

3 (1) "Court", any Missouri municipal, associate circuit, or circuit
4 court;

5 (2) "Offense", any offense, violation, or infraction of Missouri
6 state, county, municipal, or administrative law;

7 (3) "Prosecutor" or "prosecuting attorney", the prosecuting
8 attorney, circuit attorney, or municipal prosecuting attorney;

9 (4) "Same course of criminal conduct", offenses, violations, or 10 infractions which:

11 (a) Arose under the same criminal statute;

(b) Involve conduct that is the substantial equivalent of any offense, violation, or infraction sought to be expunged; or

14 (c) Occur within a time period suggesting a common connection
15 between the offenses, not to exceed one year.

16 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law and subject to the 17 provisions of this section, any person may apply to any court in which such 18 person was charged or found guilty of any offenses [, violations, or infractions] for 19 an order to expunge records of such arrest, plea, trial, or conviction.

20 (1) Subject to the limitations of subsection [12] 13 of this section, a

21 person may apply to have one or more offenses[, violations, or infractions] 22 expunged if such offense[, violation, or infraction] occurred within the state of 23 Missouri and was prosecuted under the jurisdiction of a Missouri [municipal, 24 associate circuit, or circuit] court, so long as such person lists all the offenses[, 25 violations, and infractions] he or she is seeking to have expunged in the petition 26 and so long as all such offenses[, violations, and infractions] are not excluded 27 under subsection [2] 3 of this section.

(2) If the offenses [, violations, or infractions] were charged as counts in the same indictment or information or were committed as part of the same course of criminal conduct, the person may include all the related offenses [, violations, and infractions] in the petition, regardless of the limits of subsection [12] 13 of this section, and the petition shall only count as a petition for expungement of the highest level violation or offense contained in the petition for the purpose of determining future eligibility for expungement.

35 [2.] 3. The following offenses [, violations, and infractions] shall not be 36 eligible for expungement under this section:

37

(1) Any class A felony offense;

38 (2) Any dangerous felony as that term is defined in section 556.061;

39

(3) Any offense that requires registration as a sex offender;

40

54 (7) Any offense eligible for expungement under section 577.054 or 610.130;
55 (8) Any intoxication-related traffic or boating offense as defined in section
56 577.001, or any offense of operating an aircraft with an excessive blood alcohol

57 content or while in an intoxicated condition;

58 (9) Any ordinance violation that is the substantial equivalent of any 59 offense that is not eligible for expungement under this section;

60 (10) Any violation of any state law or county or municipal ordinance 61 regulating the operation of motor vehicles when committed by an individual who 62 has been issued a commercial driver's license or is required to possess a 63 commercial driver's license issued by this state or any other state; and

64 (11) Any felony offense of section 571.030, except any offense under 65 subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of section 571.030 where the person was convicted
66 or found guilty prior to January 1, 2017.

[3.] 4. The petition shall name as defendants all law enforcement agencies, courts, prosecuting or circuit attorneys, municipal prosecuting attorneys, central state repositories of criminal records, or others who the petitioner has reason to believe may possess the records subject to expungement for each of the offenses, violations, and infractions listed in the petition. The court's order of expungement shall not affect any person or entity not named as a defendant in the action.

74 [4.] 5. The petition shall include the following information:

- 75 (1) The petitioner's:
- 76 (a) Full name;
- 77 (b) Sex;
- 78 (c) Race;

79 (d) Driver's license number, if applicable; and

80 (e) Current address;

81 (2) Each offense, violation, or infraction for which the petitioner is 82 requesting expungement;

83 (3) The approximate date the petitioner was charged for each offense,84 violation, or infraction; and

(4) The name of the county where the petitioner was charged for each offense, violation, or infraction and if any of the offenses, violations, or infractions occurred in a municipality, the name of the municipality for each offense, violation, or infraction; and

(5) The case number and name of the court for each offense.

90 [5.] 6. The clerk of the court shall give notice of the filing of the petition 91 to the office of the prosecuting attorney, circuit attorney, or municipal prosecuting 92 attorney that prosecuted the offenses[, violations, or infractions] listed in the

93 petition. If the prosecuting attorney, circuit attorney, or municipal prosecuting 94 attorney objects to the petition for expungement, he or she shall do so in writing within thirty days after receipt of service. Unless otherwise agreed upon by the 95 parties, the court shall hold a hearing within sixty days after any written 96 97 objection is filed, giving reasonable notice of the hearing to the petitioner. If no objection has been filed within thirty days after receipt of service, the court may 98 99 set a hearing on the matter and shall give reasonable notice of the hearing to each entity named in the petition. At any hearing, the court may accept evidence 100 101 and hear testimony on, and may consider, the following criteria for each of the 102offenses, violations, or infractions] listed in the petition for expungement:

(1) At the time the petition is filed, it has been at least seven years if the offense is a felony, or at least three years if the offense is a misdemeanor, municipal offense, or infraction, from the date the petitioner completed any authorized disposition imposed under section 557.011 for each offense, violation, or infraction listed in the petition;

(2) At the time the petition is filed, the person has not been found guilty of any other misdemeanor or felony, not including violations of the traffic regulations provided under chapters 301, 302, 303, 304, and 307, during the time period specified for the underlying offense, violation, or infraction in subdivision
(1) of this subsection;

(3) The person has satisfied all obligations relating to any suchdisposition, including the payment of any fines or restitution;

115

(4) The person does not have charges pending;

(5) The petitioner's habits and conduct demonstrate that the petitioner isnot a threat to the public safety of the state; and

(6) The expungement is consistent with the public welfare and theinterests of justice warrant the expungement.

A pleading by the petitioner that such petitioner meets the requirements of 120121 subdivisions (5) and (6) of this subsection shall create a rebuttable presumption 122that the expungement is warranted so long as the criteria contained in subdivisions (1) to (4) of this subsection are otherwise satisfied. The burden shall 123124shift to the prosecuting attorney, circuit attorney, or municipal prosecuting 125attorney to rebut the presumption. A victim of an offense, violation, or 126 infraction] listed in the petition shall have an opportunity to be heard at any 127hearing held under this section, and the court may make a determination based 128solely on such victim's testimony].

[6.] 7. A petition to expunge records related to an arrest for an eligible offense[, violation, or infraction] may be made in accordance with the provisions of this section to a court of competent jurisdiction in the county where the petitioner was arrested no earlier than three years from the date of arrest; provided that, during such time, the petitioner has not been charged and the petitioner has not been found guilty of any misdemeanor or felony offense.

(1) Commencing on January 1, 2021, before the central repository for criminal history information releases a record to an individual or noncriminal justice agency, it shall extract from the record all notations of arrests, indictments, or other information relating to the initiation of criminal proceedings where:

140 (a) Three years have elapsed from the date of arrest;

141 (b) No disposition is indicated in the record; and

142 (c) Nothing in the record indicates that proceedings seeking143 conviction remain pending.

144[7.] 8. If the court determines that such person meets all the criteria set forth in subsection [5] 6 of this section for each of the offenses, violations, or 145infractions] listed in the petition for expungement, the court shall enter an order 146 147of expungement. In all cases under this section, the court shall issue an order of 148expungement or dismissal within six months of the filing of the petition. A copy 149 of the order of expungement shall be provided to the petitioner and each entity 150possessing records subject to the order, and, upon receipt of the order, each entity 151shall close any record in its possession relating to any offense, violation, or 152infraction listed in the petition, in the manner established by section 610.120. The records and files maintained in any administrative or court 153154proceeding in a [municipal, associate, or circuit] court for any offense[, infraction, 155or violation] ordered expunged under this section shall be confidential and only 156available to the parties or by order of the court for good cause shown. The central repository shall request the Federal Bureau of Investigation to expunge the 157records from its files. 158

[8.] 9. The order shall not limit any of the petitioner's rights that were restricted as a collateral consequence of such person's criminal record, and such rights shall be restored upon issuance of the order of expungement. Except as otherwise provided under this section, the effect of such order shall be to restore such person to the status he or she occupied prior to such arrests, pleas, trials, or convictions as if such events had never taken place. No person as to whom 165such order has been entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of law 166 to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his or her failure to recite or acknowledge such arrests, pleas, trials, convictions, or 167 168 expungement in response to an inquiry made of him or her and no such inquiry 169shall be made for information relating to an expungement, except the petitioner 170shall disclose the expunged offense, violation, or infraction to any court when asked or upon being charged with any subsequent offense, violation, or 171infraction. The expunged offense [, violation, or infraction] may be considered a 172173prior offense in determining a sentence to be imposed for any subsequent offense 174that the person is found guilty of committing.

[9.] 10. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection [8] 9 of this section to the contrary, a person granted an expungement shall disclose any expunged offense[, violation, or infraction] when the disclosure of such information is necessary to complete any application for:

(1) A license, certificate, or permit issued by this state to practice suchindividual's profession;

181 (2) Any license issued under chapter 313 or permit issued under chapter182 571;

(3) Paid or unpaid employment with an entity licensed under chapter 313, any state-operated lottery, or any emergency services provider, including any law enforcement agency;

(4) Employment with any federally insured bank or savings institution or credit union or an affiliate of such institution or credit union for the purposes of compliance with 12 U.S.C. Section 1829 and 12 U.S.C. Section 1785;

(5) Employment with any entity engaged in the business of insurance or any insurer for the purpose of complying with 18 U.S.C. Section 1033, 18 U.S.C.
Section 1034, or other similar law which requires an employer engaged in the business of insurance to exclude applicants with certain criminal convictions from employment; or

(6) Employment with any employer that is required to exclude applicants with certain criminal convictions from employment due to federal or state law, including corresponding rules and regulations.

An employer shall notify an applicant of the requirements under subdivisions (4) to (6) of this subsection. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, an expunged offense, violation, or infraction shall not be grounds for automatic disqualification of an applicant, but may be a factor for denying employment, or a professional license, certificate, or permit; except that, an offense, violation, or 202 infraction expunged under the provisions of this section may be grounds for 203 automatic disqualification if the application is for employment under subdivisions 204 (4) to (6) of this subsection.

205[10.] 11. A person who has been granted an expungement of records 206pertaining to a misdemeanor or felony offense, an ordinance violation, or an infraction may answer "no" to an employer's inquiry into whether the person has 207208ever been arrested, charged, or convicted of a crime if, after the granting of the 209 expungement, the person has no public record of a misdemeanor or felony offense, 210 an ordinance violation, or an infraction. The person, however, shall answer such 211an inquiry affirmatively and disclose his or her criminal convictions, including 212any offense or violation expunged under this section or similar law, if the 213employer is required to exclude applicants with certain criminal convictions from employment due to federal or state law, including corresponding rules and 214215regulations.

216 [11.] 12. If the court determines that the petitioner has not met the 217criteria for any of the offenses, violations, or infractions] listed in the petition for expungement or the petitioner has knowingly provided false information in 218219 the petition, the court shall enter an order dismissing the petition. Any person 220whose petition for expungement has been dismissed by the court for failure to 221meet the criteria set forth in subsection [5] 6 of this section may not refile 222another petition until a year has passed since the date of filing for the previous 223petition.

[12.] 13. A person may be granted more than one expungement under this section provided that during his or her lifetime, the total number of offenses, violations, or infractions for which orders of expungement are granted to the person shall not exceed the following limits:

(1) Not more than two misdemeanor offenses or ordinance violations thathave an authorized term of imprisonment; and 230 (2) Not more than one felony offense.

A person may be granted expungement under this section for any number of infractions. Nothing in this section shall prevent the court from maintaining records to ensure that an individual has not exceeded the limitations of this subsection. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or impair in any way the subsequent use of any record expunged under this section of any arrests or findings of guilt by a law enforcement agency, criminal justice agency, 237 prosecuting attorney, circuit attorney, or municipal prosecuting attorney,238 including its use as a prior offense, violation, or infraction.

[13.] 14. The court shall make available a form for pro se petitioners seeking expungement, which shall include the following statement: "I declare under penalty of perjury that the statements made herein are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.".

[14.] 15. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or restrict theavailability of expungement to any person under any other law.

Unofficial
