54 agency, or political subdivision reimburses the reasonable document production
55 costs of the bank or financial institution.

56 9. The auditor may, as often as the auditor deems necessary, conduct a 57 detailed review of the bookkeeping and accounting systems in use in the various 58 state agencies that are supported partially or entirely by state funds. Such 59 examinations shall be for the purpose of evaluating the adequacy of systems in 60 use by such agencies. In instances where the auditor determines that existing 61 systems are outmoded, inefficient, or otherwise inadequate, the auditor shall 62 recommend changes to the state agency and notify the general assembly of the 63 recommended changes.

64 10. The auditor shall, through appropriate tests, determine the propriety

71 misfeasance, or nonfeasance by an officer or employee.

72 12. At the conclusion of an audit, the auditor or the auditor's designated 73 representative shall supply a copy of a draft report of the audit to, and discuss 74 such draft with, the official, or that official's designated representative, whose

80 director of each agency audited, and other persons as the auditor deems 81 appropriate that an audit report has been published, its subject and title, and the 82 locations, including state libraries, at which the report is available. The auditor 83 then shall distribute copies of the report only to those who request a report. The 84 copies shall be available in written form or available on the official website of the 85 auditor. The auditor may charge a reasonable fee for providing a written copy of 88 subsection shall be construed to authorize or permit the publication of 89 information that is otherwise prohibited by law from being disclosed.

90 14. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to infringe upon or deprive 91 the legislative, executive, or judicial branches of state government of any rights,

92 powers, or duties vested in or imposed upon them by statute or the constitution

101 shall maintain a complete file of all audit reports and reports of other 102 examinations, investigations, surveys, and reviews issued under the auditor's
103 authority. Audit workpapers and other evidence and related supportive material 104 directly pertaining to the work of the auditor's office shall be retained according 105 to an agreement between the auditor and the state archives. To promote 106 intergovernmental cooperation and avoid unnecessary duplication of audit effort, 107 pertinent workpapers and other supportive material related to issued audit
108 reports may be, at the discretion of the auditor and unless otherwise prohibited 109 by law, made available for inspection by duly authorized representatives of the 110 state and federal government who desire access to, and inspection of, such records 111 in connection with a matter officially before them, including criminal 112 investigations. Except as provided in this section, audit workpapers and related 113 supportive material shall be kept confidential, including any interpretations, 114 advisory opinions, or other information or materials used and relied on in 115 performing the audit.
