No unlawful detainer action or any other action 2223seeking possession may be commenced against the occupant within [ten business] ninety days following the date of notice by the new owner that the foreclosure 2425sale has occurred. Nothing in this section creates a tenancy between the new owner and the occupant. This section does not preclude the new owner from 26 27entering into an agreement with the occupant that allows the occupant to remain 28 in the foreclosed property.

3. The notice required in subsection 2 of this section shall be sent by certified or registered mail if the name of the occupant is known to the new owner. If the name of the occupant is not known to the new owner then the notice shall be sent by regular mail and addressed to "occupant". The envelope containing such notice shall have the following words printed on the envelope face: "Notice to Occupant Following Foreclosure". A notice shall also be posted on the door of the premises where the occupant resides. The notices required in this subsection shall contain in substance the following text: Attention Occupant: (name of the new owner of the foreclosed property) is now the owner of the property which you had been renting or leasing at (address of foreclosed property, including apartment number, if applicable) after purchasing it at a trustee's foreclosure sale on (date of foreclosure sale). Unless you agree with (new owner) to a rental or lease agreement for the premises, (new owner), on or after (number not less than [ten] ninety) [business] days following the date of this notice, may seek a court order or judgment to have you removed from the premises. Remaining on the premises after the date of this notice does not make you a tenant of the new owner. (Name of new owner) (Address of new owner) (Telephone number of new owner) (Fax number of new owner, optional) (Email address of new owner, optional).
