23 over whom the juvenile court has retained continuing jurisdiction shall 24 automatically terminate and that offense shall be dealt with in the court of 25 general jurisdiction as provided in section 211.041.

26 3. Knowing and willful age misrepresentation by a juvenile subject shall 27 not affect any action or proceeding which occurs based upon the

91 terminated, except as provided in subsection 10 of this section, for an act that 92 would be a violation of a state law or municipal ordinance.

93 10. If a petition has been dismissed thereby permitting a child to be 94 prosecuted under the general law and the child is found not guilty by a court of 95 general jurisdiction, the juvenile court shall have jurisdiction over any later 96 offense committed by that child which would be considered a misdemeanor or 97 felony if committed by an adult, subject to the certification provisions of this 98 section.

99 11. If the court does not dismiss the petition to permit the child to be 100 prosecuted under the general law, it shall set a date for the hearing upon the 101 petition as provided in section 211.171.

102 12. The provisions of this section shall become effective on

4 juvenile officer, the child or the child's custodian, order a hearing and may, in its 5 discretion, dismiss the petition and such child may be transferred to the court of 6 general jurisdiction and prosecuted under the general law; except that if a 7 petition alleges that any child has committed an offense which would be 8 considered first degree murder under section 565.020, second degree murder

20 age over whom the juvenile court has retained continuing jurisdiction shall 21 automatically terminate and that offense shall be dealt with in the court of 22 general jurisdiction as provided in section 211.041.

23 3. Knowing and willful age misrepresentation by a juvenile subject shall

28 4. Written notification of a transfer hearing shall be given to the juvenile 29 and his or her custodian in the same manner as provided in sections 211.101 and

31 contain a statement that the purpose of the hearing is to determine whether the 32 child is a proper subject to be dealt with under the provisions of this chapter, and

51 reasonable prospects of rehabilitation within the juvenile justice system. These 52 criteria shall include but not be limited to:
