- 3. The amendments to subsection 2 of this section, as provided for in this act, shall not take effect until such time as the provisions of section 211.021 shall take effect in accordance with subsection 2 of section 211.021.
- 211.071. 1. If a petition alleges that a child between the ages of twelve and seventeen has committed an offense which would be considered a felony if committed by an adult, the court 3 may, upon its own motion or upon motion by the juvenile officer, the child or the child's custodian, order a hearing and may, in its discretion, dismiss the petition and such child may be transferred to the court of general jurisdiction and prosecuted under the general law; except that 6 if a petition alleges that any child has committed an offense which would be considered first degree murder under section 565.020, second degree murder under section 565.021, first degree assault under section 565.050, forcible rape under section 566.030 as it existed prior to August 28, 2013, rape in the first degree under section 566.030, forcible sodomy under section 566.060 as it existed prior to August 28, 2013, sodomy in the first degree under section 566.060, first degree robbery under section 569.020, or distribution of drugs under section 195.211, or has 11 committed two or more prior unrelated offenses which would be felonies if committed by an 13 adult, the court shall order a hearing, and may in its discretion, dismiss the petition and transfer 14 the child to a court of general jurisdiction for prosecution under the general law.
 - 2. Upon apprehension and arrest, jurisdiction over the criminal offense allegedly committed by any person between seventeen and twenty-one years of age over whom the juvenile court has retained continuing jurisdiction shall automatically terminate and that offense shall be dealt with in the court of general jurisdiction as provided in section 211.041.
 - 3. Knowing and willful age misrepresentation by a juvenile subject shall not affect any action or proceeding which occurs based upon the misrepresentation. Any evidence obtained during the period of time in which a child misrepresents his or her age may be used against the child and will be subject only to rules of evidence applicable in adult proceedings.
 - 4. Written notification of a transfer hearing shall be given to the juvenile and his or her custodian in the same manner as provided in sections 211.101 and 211.111. Notice of the hearing may be waived by the custodian. Notice shall contain a statement that the purpose of the hearing is to determine whether the child is a proper subject to be dealt with under the provisions of this chapter, and that if the court finds that the child is not a proper subject to be dealt with under the provisions of this chapter, the petition will be dismissed to allow for prosecution of the child under the general law.
 - 5. The juvenile officer may consult with the office of prosecuting attorney concerning any offense for which the child could be certified as an adult under this section. The prosecuting or circuit attorney shall have access to police reports, reports of the juvenile or deputy juvenile officer, statements of witnesses and all other records or reports relating to the offense alleged to have been committed by the child. The prosecuting or circuit attorney shall have access to the disposition records of the child when the child has been adjudicated pursuant to subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of section 211.031. The prosecuting attorney shall not divulge any information regarding the child and the offense until the juvenile court at a judicial hearing has determined that the child is not a proper subject to be dealt with under the provisions of this chapter.

- 6. A written report shall be prepared in accordance with this chapter developing fully all available information relevant to the criteria which shall be considered by the court in determining whether the child is a proper subject to be dealt with under the provisions of this chapter and whether there are reasonable prospects of rehabilitation within the juvenile justice system. These criteria shall include but not be limited to:
- (1) The seriousness of the offense alleged and whether the protection of the community requires transfer to the court of general jurisdiction;
 - (2) Whether the offense alleged involved viciousness, force and violence;
- (3) Whether the offense alleged was against persons or property with greater weight being given to the offense against persons, especially if personal injury resulted;
- (4) Whether the offense alleged is a part of a repetitive pattern of offenses which indicates that the child may be beyond rehabilitation under the juvenile code;
- (5) The record and history of the child, including experience with the juvenile justice system, other courts, supervision, commitments to juvenile institutions and other placements;
- (6) The sophistication and maturity of the child as determined by consideration of his home and environmental situation, emotional condition and pattern of living;
 - (7) The age of the child;
 - (8) The program and facilities available to the juvenile court in considering disposition;
- (9) Whether or not the child can benefit from the treatment or rehabilitative programs available to the juvenile court; and
 - (10) Racial disparity in certification.
- 7. If the court dismisses the petition to permit the child to be prosecuted under the general law, the court shall enter a dismissal order containing:

 - (2) Findings showing that the child was represented by counsel;
- 64 (3) Findings showing that the hearing was held in the presence of the child and his counsel; and
 - (4) Findings showing the reasons underlying the court's decision to transfer jurisdiction.
- 8. A copy of the petition and order of the dismissal shall be sent to the prosecuting attorney.

- 9. When a petition has been dismissed thereby permitting a child to be prosecuted under the general law and the prosecution of the child results in a conviction, the jurisdiction of the juvenile court over that child is forever terminated, except as provided in subsection 10 of this section, for an act that would be a violation of a state law or municipal ordinance.
 - 10. If a petition has been dismissed thereby permitting a child to be prosecuted under the general law and the child is found not guilty by a court of general jurisdiction, the juvenile court shall have jurisdiction over any later offense committed by that child which would be considered a misdemeanor or felony if committed by an adult, subject to the certification provisions of this section.
 - 11. If the court does not dismiss the petition to permit the child to be prosecuted under the general law, it shall set a date for the hearing upon the petition as provided in section 211.171.
 - 12. Any child certified under this section on or after January 1, 2018, and held in secure custody prior to the disposition of his or her case shall be detained in an alternative detention facility, which adheres to standards set forth by the workgroup established under subsection 5 of section 211.151, except as provided in subsection 13 of this section. Upon turning seventeen years of age, any certified child held in an alternative detention facility shall be transferred to a jail or other adult detention facility, as the term "jail or other adult detention facility" is defined under section 211.151.
 - 13. The court in which the criminal matter is pending may order a certified child transferred from an alternative detention facility as defined in subdivision (3) of subsection 4 of section 211.151 to a jail or other adult detention facility pending disposition of the criminal case upon a petition by the director of the alternative detention facility and a showing of good cause.
 - 211.151. 1. Pending disposition of a case, the juvenile court may order in writing the detention of a child in one of the following places:
 - (1) A juvenile detention facility provided by the county;
 - (2) A shelter care facility, subject to the supervision of the court;
- 5 (3) A suitable place of detention maintained by an association having for one of its 6 objects the care and protection of children;
 - (4) Such other suitable custody as the court may direct.
- 2. A child, including a child transferred to the court of general jurisdiction on or after January 1, 2018, under the provisions of section 211.071, shall not be detained in a jail or other adult detention facility pending disposition of a case, except as provided in subsection 11 13 of section 211.071.

- 3. Law enforcement officers shall take fingerprints and photographs of a child taken into custody for offenses that would be considered felonies if committed by adults, without the approval of the juvenile judge. A child taken into custody as a victim of abuse or neglect or as a status offender pursuant to subdivision (1) or (2) of subsection 1 of section 211.031 or for an offense that would be considered a misdemeanor if committed by an adult may be fingerprinted or photographed with the consent of the juvenile judge. Records of a child who has been fingerprinted and photographed after being taken into custody shall be closed records as provided under section 610.100 if a petition has not been filed within thirty days of the date that the child was taken into custody; and if a petition for the child has not been filed within one year of the date the child was taken into custody, any records relating to the child concerning the alleged offense may be expunged under the procedures in sections 610.122 to 610.126.
- 4. (1) As used in this section, the term "jail or other adult detention facility" means any locked facility administered by state, county or local law enforcement and correctional agencies, a primary purpose of which is to detain adults charged with violating a criminal law pending trial, including facilities of a temporary nature which do not hold persons after they have been formally charged, or to confine adults convicted of an offense. The term "jail or other adult detention facility" does not include a juvenile detention facility.
- (2) As used in this section, the term "juvenile detention facility" means a place, institution, building or part thereof, set of buildings or area, whether or not enclosing a building or set of buildings, which has been designated by the juvenile court as a place of detention for juveniles and which is operated, administered and staffed separately and independently of a jail or other detention facility for adults and used exclusively for the lawful custody and treatment of juveniles. The facility may be owned or operated by public or private agencies. A juvenile detention facility may be located in the same building or grounds as a jail or other adult detention facility if there is spatial separation between the facilities which prevents haphazard or accidental contact between juvenile and adult detainees; there is separation between juvenile and adult program activities; and there are separate juvenile and adult staff other than specialized support staff who have infrequent contact with detainees.
- (3) As used in this section, the term "alternative detention facility" means any secure facility administered by state, county, or local law enforcement and correctional agencies, whose purpose is to detain a child certified as an adult under section 211.071 who has been charged with violating a criminal law pending trial and which adheres to standards of operation as defined by the workgroup established in subsection 5 of this section.
- 5. The division of youth services in collaboration with the office of state courts administrator shall establish the "Certified Youth Jail Removal Workgroup":

The recommendations submitted to the general assembly shall address the following:

The juvenile's attorney may present evidence that the juvenile is not a flight risk, poses no safety risk to himself or herself or others, or has no history of disruptive courtroom behavior.
 - 2. If the court orders that restraints shall be used on the juvenile, the court shall make findings of fact in support of such use.
 - 217.151. 1. This section shall be known and may be cited as the Pregnant Offender Transportation, Evaluation, and Correctional Treatment Act, or the ProTECT Act.
 - 2. For purposes of this section, "extraordinary circumstances" exist when a chief administrative officer or their designee makes a determination that restraints are necessary to prevent a pregnant or postpartum offender from escaping or seriously injuring herself, her unborn or newborn child, medical or correctional personnel, or others. For purposes of this section, "postpartum" is the period of recovery immediately following childbirth, which is six weeks for a vaginal birth or eight weeks for a cesarean birth, or longer if so determined by a physician or nurse.
 - 3. The department shall establish by rule under section 217.040, policies and procedures for the transportation, evaluation, and treatment of pregnant and postpartum offenders consistent with the statutes of this state. reasons he or she determined such extraordinary circumstances existed, the kind of restraints used, and the reasons those restraints were considered the least restrictive available and the most reasonable under the circumstances.

- 5. The sentencing and corrections oversight commission established under section 217.147, and the advisory committee established under section 217.015, shall conduct biannual reviews of every report written on the use of restraints on a pregnant or postpartum offender in accordance with subsection 4 of this section to determine compliance with this section. The written reports shall be kept on file by the department for five years.

A traffic court judge may request the juvenile court to order the commitment of a person under the age of seventeen to a juvenile detention facility.
- 221.240. When any person shall be committed to jail or alternative detention facility as defined in subdivision (3) of subsection 4 of section 211.151, in conformity to section 221.230, it shall be the duty of the sheriff of the county in which said jail or alternative
