

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to children; requiring a court to enter an order setting forth certain findings that enable a child to apply for status as a special immigrant juvenile with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services of the Department of Homeland Security upon a determination that evidence exists to support such findings; authorizing a court to appoint or extend the appointment of a guardian of the person for a ward or proposed ward seeking such status in certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing federal law authorizes the issuance of an immigrant visa to a special immigrant upon satisfactory proof that the applicant is entitled to status as a special immigrant. (8 U.S.C. § 1204) Existing federal law defines the term “special immigrant” to include a juvenile immigrant who is present in the United States and: (1) has been declared dependent on a juvenile court or has been legally committed to, or placed under the custody of, an agency or department of a state or an individual or entity appointed by a state or juvenile court; (2) whose reunification with one or both of his or her parents is not viable due to abuse, neglect, abandonment or a similar basis found under state law; (3) for whom it has been determined in administrative or judicial proceedings that it would not be in his or her best interest to be returned to the previous country of nationality or last habitual residence of the child or his or her parents; and (4) who is granted status as a special immigrant juvenile by the Secretary of Homeland Security through the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services. (8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(27)(J)) Existing federal regulations: (1) provide that a person is eligible for classification as a special immigrant if, in addition to satisfying other requirements, the person is less than 21 years of age and is unmarried; and (2) define the term “juvenile court” as a court located in the United States having jurisdiction under state law to make judicial determinations about the custody and care of juveniles. (8 C.F.R. § 204.11)

Section 1 of this bill authorizes the district court to make the factual findings necessary to enable a child to apply for status as a special immigrant juvenile with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services of the Department of Homeland Security at any time during certain proceedings. Section 1 sets forth the factual findings necessary to enable a child to apply for such status and: (1) requires the court to issue an order setting forth such findings upon a determination by the court that evidence exists to support such findings; and (2) prohibits the court from making any additional findings regarding the asserted, purported or perceived motivation of the child seeking status as a special immigrant juvenile or of the person requesting that the court make such findings. Section 1 also provides that any records containing information concerning the immigration status of such a child that are not otherwise confidential must be sealed and made available for inspection only by certain persons. Section 1 further requires the Supreme Court to adopt any rules and procedures necessary to implement the provisions of the section.

Section 2 of this bill provides that if a person includes in a petition filed or motion made in a guardianship proceeding a request that the court make the findings necessary to enable a child to apply for status as a special immigrant juvenile, the court may, in certain circumstances, appoint or extend the appointment of a guardian of the person for a ward or proposed ward seeking such status. Section 3 of this bill provides that such a guardianship is terminated on the date on which the ward reaches 21 years of age unless the ward petitions the court to terminate the guardianship before he or she reaches 21 years of age and the court grants the petition.
