Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law authorizes the juvenile court to order a parent or guardian of a child to pay the costs of supporting the child if the child is committed to the custody of a person other than the parent or guardian or to the custody of a public or private institution or agency. (NRS 62B.120) Section 1 of this bill eliminates the authority of the juvenile court to order a parent or guardian of a child to pay for such costs.

Existing law provides that if a child is committed to the custody of a regional facility for the treatment and rehabilitation of children, the juvenile court may order the county where the child has a legal residence to pay the expenses incurred for the support of the child in an amount equal to any money paid for that purpose by the Division of Child and Family Services of the Department of Health and Human Services. The juvenile court may order the parent or guardian of the child to reimburse the county for such costs. (NRS 62B.140) Section 2 of this bill eliminates the authority of the juvenile court to order a parent or guardian of a child to reimburse the county for such costs.

Existing law provides that if the juvenile court enters a civil judgment for any payment owed by a child or a parent or guardian of the child, the person or persons against whom the judgment is issued is liable for a collection fee. (NRS 62B.420) Section 3 of this bill eliminates the authority to impose such a collection fee.

Existing law provides that if a child is placed under informal supervision, the child may be required to participate in a program of restitution through work or a program of cognitive training and human development. The child or the parent or guardian of the child may be ordered to pay the costs associated with the participation of the child in such programs. (NRS 62C.210) Section 4 of this bill

25 provides that, under such circumstances, the child and the parent or guardian of the 26 child must not be ordered to pay such costs.

27 Existing law provides that if the juvenile court appoints an attorney to represent 28 a child and the parent or guardian of the child is not indigent, the parent or guardian
29 must pay the reasonable fees and expenses of the attorney. If the parent or guardian 30 is indigent, the juvenile court may order the parent or guardian to reimburse the 31 county for such fees and expenses in accordance with the ability of the parent or 32 guardian to pay. (NRS 62D.030) Section 5 of this bill provides that the parent or 33 guardian of a child must not be required to pay the reasonable fees and expenses of 34 an attorney appointed by the juvenile court.

35 Existing law provides that if the juvenile court orders a child or the parent or 36 guardian of the child, or both, to perform community service, the juvenile court 37 may order the child or the parent or guardian of the child, or both, to pay for the 38 cost of certain insurance during those periods in which the work is performed.

46 this bill eliminates the authority of the juvenile court to order the child or the parent 47 or guardian of the child, or both, to pay such costs or perform such work or 48 community service.

49 Existing law provides that if the juvenile court orders that a child be provided 50 with medical, psychiatric, psychological or other care or treatment after the parent 51 or guardian of the child fails to provide such care or treatment, the expense of such 52 care or treatment is a charge upon the county, but the juvenile court may order the 53 person having the duty under law to support the child to pay part or all of the 54 expenses of such care or treatment. (NRS 62E.280) Section 9 of this bill eliminates

67 the juvenile court must not order the child or the parent or guardian of the child to 68 pay such costs and eliminates the authority of the juvenile court to order the child to 69 perform such work or community service.

70 Existing law provides that when the juvenile court orders a child to undergo an 71 evaluation to determine whether the child is an abuser or alcohol or other drugs, the 72 juvenile court is required to order the child or the parent or guardian of the child, or 73 both, to pay any charges relating to the evaluation and treatment of the child. (NRS 74 62E.620) Section 13 of this bill provides that the juvenile court shall not order the 75 child or the parent or guardian of the child to pay such charges.

90 program of visitation to the office of the county coroner, the juvenile court may 91 order the child, or the parent or guardian of the child, or both, to pay a fee of not 92 more than $45 based on the ability of the child or the parent or guardian of the 93 child, or both, to pay for the costs associated with the participation of the child in 94 the program of visitation. (NRS 62E.720) Section 17 of this bill provides that the 95 court shall not order the child or the parent or guardian of the child to pay such 96 costs.

97 Existing law: (1) requires a child or the parent or guardian of a child to pay an 98 administrative assessment if the juvenile court imposes a fine against the child; (2)
99 requires a parent or guardian of a child to reimburse the county for ancillary

5 is not the parent or guardian of the child or to the custody of a public 6 or private institution or agency, and no provision is otherwise made 7 by law for the support of the child, the expenses incurred for the 8 support of the child while in such custody, if approved by an order

5 child to pay for the support of the child pursuant to this section, the 6 money must be paid to the superintendent of the county school

15 incurred for the support of the child in an amount equal to any 16 money paid for that purpose by the Division of Child and Family

33 judgment against the child or the parent or guardian of the child for 34 the amount due in favor of the victim, the state or local entity to 10 the juvenile court all driver's licenses then held by the child. The 11 juvenile court shall, within 5 days after issuing the order, forward to
