Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires a person to obtain a state business license and pay a fee before conducting business in this State. Under existing law, a person is deemed not to conduct a business in this State and, thus, is exempt from the requirement to obtain a state business license if the business for which the person is responsible: (1) is not a business entity organized under the law of this State; (2) does not have an office or base of operations in this State; (3) does not have a registered agent in this State; (4) is conducting activity in this State solely to provide vehicles or equipment on a short-term basis in response to a wildland fire, a flood, an earthquake or other emergency; and (5) only pays wages or other remuneration to natural persons in this State in connection with that activity. State determines that the person is not conducting a business in this State. Section 9 of this bill makes a conforming change to the existing law which authorizes the State to contract with a person who qualifies for this exemption even if the person does not hold a state business license.

Existing law requires certain types of business entities, including, without limitation, corporations, nonprofit corporations and limited-liability companies, to maintain certain documents at the principal place of business in this State or with a custodian of records whose name and street address are available at the office of the registered agent of the business entity in this State. (NRS 78.105, 78.152, 80.113, 82.181, 86.241, 86.54615) Under existing law, certain limited-liability partnerships, limited partnerships, foreign business trusts, and professional entities and associations are required to maintain certain documents at the office of the registered agent of the business entity or at the principal place of the business entity in this State. (NRS 87.515, 87.5413, 87A.200, 87A.640, 88A.7345, 89.045, 89.251) Sections 2-8 of this bill remove the authority of these limited-liability partnerships, limited partnerships, foreign business trusts, and professional entities and associations to maintain the required documents at the office of the registered agent of the business entity and, instead, require these limited-liability partnerships, limited partnerships, foreign business trusts, and professional entities and associations to maintain the required documents at the principal place of business of the entity or with the custodian of records of the business entity.

Section 10 of this bill provides that this bill becomes effective upon passage and approval.
