A BILL

To amend sections 2307.80, 2315.18, 2315.21, 1
2323.43, and 3345.40 of the Revised Code to 2 raise the limitations on damages for noneconomic 3 loss and punitive damages in certain tort 4 actions based on adjustments for inflation from 5 the year 2005 to 2019. 6

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

Section 1. That sections 2307.80, 2315.18, 2315.21, 7
2323.43, and 3345.40 of the Revised Code be amended to read as 8
follows: 9

Sec. 2307.80. (A) Subject to divisions (C) and (D) of this 10 section, punitive or exemplary damages shall not be awarded 11 against a manufacturer or supplier in question in connection 12 with a product liability claim unless the claimant establishes, 13 by clear and convincing evidence, that harm for which the 14 claimant is entitled to recover compensatory damages in 15 accordance with section 2307.73 or 2307.78 of the Revised Code 16 was the result of misconduct of the manufacturer or supplier in 17 question that manifested a flagrant disregard of the safety of 18 persons who might be harmed by the product in question. The fact 19 by itself that a product is defective does not establish a 20 flagrant disregard of the safety of persons who might be harmed 21 by that product. 22

(B) Whether the trier of fact is a jury or the court, if 23 the trier of fact determines that a manufacturer or supplier in 24 question is liable for punitive or exemplary damages in 25 connection with a product liability claim, the amount of those 26 damages shall be determined by the court. In determining the 27 amount of punitive or exemplary damages, the court shall 28 consider factors including, but not limited to, the following: 29

(1) The likelihood that serious harm would arise from the 30 misconduct of the manufacturer or supplier in question; 31

(2) The degree of the awareness of the manufacturer or 32 supplier in question of that likelihood; 33

(3) The profitability of the misconduct to the 34 manufacturer or supplier in question; 35

(4) The duration of the misconduct and any concealment of 36 it by the manufacturer or supplier in question; 37

(5) The attitude and conduct of the manufacturer or 38 supplier in question upon the discovery of the misconduct and 39 whether the misconduct has terminated; 40

(6) The financial condition of the manufacturer or 41 supplier in question; 42

(7) The total effect of other punishment imposed or likely 43 to be imposed upon the manufacturer or supplier in question as a 44 result of the misconduct, including awards of punitive or 45 exemplary damages to persons similarly situated to the claimant 46 and the severity of criminal penalties to which the manufacturer 47 or supplier in question has been or is likely to be subjected. 48

(C) (1) Except as provided in division (C) (2) of this 49 section, if a claimant alleges in a product liability claim that 50 a drug or device caused harm to the claimant, the manufacturer 51 of the drug or device shall not be liable for punitive or 52 exemplary damages in connection with that product liability 53 claim if the drug or device that allegedly caused the harm 54 satisfies either of the following: 55

(a) It was manufactured and labeled in relevant and 56 material respects in accordance with the terms of an approval or 57 license issued by the federal food and drug administration under 58 the "Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act," 52 Stat. 1040 59 (1938), 21 U.S.C. 301-392, as amended, or the "Public Health 60 Service Act," 58 Stat. 682 (1944), 42 U.S.C. 201-300cc-15, as 61 amended. 62

(b) It was an over-the-counter drug marketed pursuant to 63 federal regulations, was generally recognized as safe and 64 effective and as not being misbranded pursuant to the applicable 65 federal regulations, and satisfied in relevant and material 66 respects each of the conditions contained in the applicable 67 regulations and each of the conditions contained in an 68 applicable monograph. 69

(2) Division (C) (1) of this section does not apply if the 70 claimant establishes, by a preponderance of the evidence, that 71 the manufacturer fraudulently and in violation of applicable 72 regulations of the food and drug administration withheld from 73
the food and drug administration information known to be 74 material and relevant to the harm that the claimant allegedly 75 suffered or misrepresented to the food and drug administration 76 information of that type. 77

(3) For purposes of divisions (C) and (D) of this section:	78
(a) "Drug" has the same meaning as in the "Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act," 52 Stat. 1040, 1041 (1938), 21 U.S.C. 321(g) (1), as amended.	79 80 81
(b) "Device" has the same meaning as in the "Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act," 52 Stat. 1040, 1041 (1938), 21 U.S.C. 321(h), as amended.	82 83 84
(D) (1) If a claimant alleges in a product liability claim that a product other than a drug or device caused harm to the claimant, the manufacturer or supplier of the product shall not be liable for punitive or exemplary damages in connection with the claim if the manufacturer or supplier fully complied with all applicable government safety and performance standards, whether or not designated as such by the government, relative to the product's manufacture or construction, the product's design or formulation, adequate warnings or instructions, and representations when the product left the control of the manufacturer or supplier, and the claimant's injury results from an alleged defect of a product's manufacture or construction, the product's design or formulation, adequate warnings or instructions, and representations for which there is an applicable government safety or performance standard.	85 86 87 88 89 90 91 92 93 94 95 96 97 98 99
(2) Division (D) (1) of this section does not apply if the claimant establishes, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the manufacturer or supplier of the product other than a drug or device fraudulently and in violation of applicable government safety and performance standards, whether or not designated as such by the government, withheld from an applicable government agency information known to be material and relevant to the harm that the claimant allegedly suffered or misrepresented to an	100 101 102 103 104 105 106 107

applicable government agency information of that type.	108

section 2315.21 of the Revised Code, the ceiling on recoverable	110 punitive or exemplary damages specified in division (D) (1) (2)	111 of that section, and the provisions of division (D) (3) of that	112 section apply to awards of punitive or exemplary damages under	113
this section.	114

(c) Any other expenditures incurred as a result of an	128 injury or loss to person or property that is a subject of a tort	129 action, other than attorney's fees incurred in connection with	130
that action.	131
(3) "Medical claim," "dental claim," "optometric claim,"	132
and "chiropractic claim" have the same meanings as in section	133
2305.113 of the Revised Code.	134
(4) "Noneconomic loss" means nonpecuniary harm that	135 results from an injury or loss to person or property that is a 136 subject of a tort action, including, but not limited to, pain 137 and suffering, loss of society, consortium, companionship, care, 138 compensatory damages that represents the economic loss of the 158 person who is awarded the damages in the tort action. 159

(2) Except as otherwise provided in division (B) (3) of 160 this section, the amount of compensatory damages that represents 161 damages for noneconomic loss that is recoverable in a tort 162 action under this section to recover damages for injury or loss 163 to person or property shall not exceed the greater of ~~two~~ three 164 hundred ~~fifty-twenty-nine~~ thousand dollars or an amount that is 165 injury or loss to person or property if the noneconomic losses 175 of the plaintiff are for either of the following: 176

(a) Permanent and substantial physical deformity, loss of 177 use of a limb, or loss of a bodily organ system; 178

(b) Permanent physical functional injury that permanently 179 prevents the injured person from being able to independently 180 care for self and perform life-sustaining activities. 181

(C) In determining an award of compensatory damages for 182 noneconomic loss in a tort action, the trier of fact shall not 183 consider any of the following: 184

(1) Evidence of a defendant's alleged wrongdoing, 185 misconduct, or guilt; 186

(2) Evidence of the defendant's wealth or financial 187 resources; 188

(3) All other evidence that is offered for the purpose of 189 punishing the defendant, rather than offered for a compensatory 190 purpose. 191

(D) If a trial is conducted in a tort action to recover 192 damages for injury or loss to person or property and a plaintiff 193 prevails in that action, the court in a nonjury trial shall make 194 findings of fact, and the jury in a jury trial shall return a 195 general verdict accompanied by answers to interrogatories, that 196 shall specify all of the following: 197

(1) The total compensatory damages recoverable by the 198 plaintiff; 199

(2) The portion of the total compensatory damages that 200 represents damages for economic loss; 201

(3) The portion of the total compensatory damages that 202 represents damages for noneconomic loss. 203

(E) (1) After the trier of fact in a tort action to recover 204 damages for injury or loss to person or property complies with 205 division (D) of this section, the court shall enter a judgment 206 in favor of the plaintiff for compensatory damages for economic 207 loss in the amount determined pursuant to division (D) (2) of 208 this section, and, subject to division (F) (1) of this section, 209 the court shall enter a judgment in favor of the plaintiff for 210 compensatory damages for noneconomic loss. Except as provided in 211 division (B) (3) of this section, in no event shall a judgment 212 for compensatory damages for noneconomic loss exceed the maximum 213 recoverable amount that represents damages for noneconomic loss 214 as provided in division (B) (2) of this section. Division (B) of 215 this section shall be applied in a jury trial only after the 216 jury has made its factual findings and determination as to the 217 damages. 218

(2) Prior to the trial in the tort action described in 219 division (D) of this section, any party may seek summary 220 judgment with respect to the nature of the alleged injury or 221 loss to person or property, seeking a determination of the	222 damages as described in division (B) (2) of this section.	223

(F) (1) A court of common pleas has no jurisdiction to	224
enter judgment on an award of compensatory damages for	225
noneconomic loss in excess of the limits set forth in this	226
section.	227
(2) If the trier of fact is a jury, the court shall not	228 instruct the jury with respect to the limit on compensatory	229 damages for noneconomic loss described in division (B) (2) of	230
this section, and neither counsel for any party nor a witness	231 shall inform the jury or potential jurors of that limit.	232
(G) With respect to a tort action to which division (B) (2)	233
of this section applies, any excess amount of compensatory	234 damages for noneconomic loss that is greater than the applicable	235 amount specified in division (B) (2) of this section shall not be	236 reallocated to any other tortfeasor beyond the amount of	237 compensatory damages that the tortfeasor would otherwise be	238 responsible for under the laws of this state.	239
(H) This section does not apply to any of the following:	240
(1) Tort actions that are brought against the state in the	241 court of claims, including, but not limited to, those actions in	242 which a state university or college is a defendant and to which	243 division (B) (3) of section 3345.40 of the Revised Code applies;	244
(2) Tort actions that are brought against political	245 subdivisions of this state and that are commenced under or are	246 subject to Chapter 2744. of the Revised Code. Division (C) of	247 section 2744.05 of the Revised Code applies to recoverable	248
damages in those actions.	249
(3) Wrongful death actions brought pursuant to Chapter	250

2125. of the Revised Code.	251
(I) If the provisions regarding the limits on compensatory damages for noneconomic loss set forth in division (B) (2) of this section have been determined to be unconstitutional, then division (C) of this section and section 2315.19 of the Revised Code shall govern the determination of an award of compensatory damages for noneconomic loss in a tort action.	252 253 254 255 256 257
Sec. 2315.21. (A) As used in this section:	258
(1) "Tort action" means a civil action for damages for injury or loss to person or property. "Tort action" includes a product liability claim for damages for injury or loss to person or property that is subject to sections 2307.71 to 2307.80 of the Revised Code, but does not include a civil action for damages for a breach of contract or another agreement between persons.	259 260 261 262 263 264 265
(2) "Trier of fact" means the jury or, in a nonjury action, the court.	266 267
(3) "Home" has the same meaning as in section 3721.10 of the Revised Code.	268 269
(4) "Employer" includes, but is not limited to, a parent, subsidiary, affiliate, division, or department of the employer. If the employer is an individual, the individual shall be considered an employer under this section only if the subject of the tort action is related to the individual's capacity as an employer.	270 271 272 273 274 275
(5) "Small employer" means an employer who employs not more than one hundred persons on a full-time permanent basis, or, if the employer is classified as being in the manufacturing sector by the North American industrial classification system,	276 277 278 279

"small employer" means an employer who employs not more than 280 five hundred persons on a full-time permanent basis. 281

(B) (1) In a tort action that is tried to a jury and in 282 which a plaintiff makes a claim for compensatory damages and a 283 claim for punitive or exemplary damages, upon the motion of any 284 party, the trial of the tort action shall be bifurcated as 285
follows: 286

(a) The initial stage of the trial shall relate only to 287 the presentation of evidence, and a determination by the jury, 288 with respect to whether the plaintiff is entitled to recover 289 compensatory damages for the injury or loss to person or 290 property from the defendant. During this stage, no party to the 291 tort action shall present, and the court shall not permit a 292 party to present, evidence that relates solely to the issue of 293 whether the plaintiff is entitled to recover punitive or 294 exemplary damages for the injury or loss to person or property 295 from the defendant. 296

(b) If the jury determines in the initial stage of the 297 trial that the plaintiff is entitled to recover compensatory 298 damages for the injury or loss to person or property from the 299 defendant, evidence may be presented in the second stage of the 300 trial, and a determination by that jury shall be made, with 301 respect to whether the plaintiff additionally is entitled to 302 recover punitive or exemplary damages for the injury or loss to 303 person or property from the defendant. 304

(2) In a tort action that is tried to a jury and in which 305
a plaintiff makes a claim for both compensatory damages and 306 punitive or exemplary damages, the court shall instruct the jury 307 to return, and the jury shall return, a general verdict and, if 308 that verdict is in favor of the plaintiff, answers to an 309 interrogatory that specifies the total compensatory damages 310 recoverable by the plaintiff from each defendant. 311

(3) In a tort action that is tried to a court and in which 312
a plaintiff makes a claim for both compensatory damages and 313 punitive or exemplary damages, the court shall make its 314 determination with respect to whether the plaintiff is entitled 315 to recover compensatory damages for the injury or loss to person 316 or property from the defendant and, if that determination is in 317 favor of the plaintiff, shall make findings of fact that specify 318 the total compensatory damages recoverable by the plaintiff from 319
the defendant. 320

(C) Subject to division (E) of this section, punitive or 321 exemplary damages are not recoverable from a defendant in 322 question in a tort action unless both of the following apply: 323

(1) The actions or omissions of that defendant demonstrate 324 malice or aggravated or egregious fraud, or that defendant as 325 principal or master knowingly authorized, participated in, or 326 ratified actions or omissions of an agent or servant that so 327 demonstrate. 328

(2) The trier of fact has returned a verdict or has made a 329 determination pursuant to division (B) (2) or (3) of this section 330 of the total compensatory damages recoverable by the plaintiff 331 from that defendant. 332

(D) (1) In a tort action, the trier of fact shall determine 333 the liability of any defendant for punitive or exemplary damages 334 and the amount of those damages. 335

(2) Except as provided in division (D) (6) of this section, 336 all of the following apply regarding any award of punitive or 337 exemplary damages in a tort action: 338

(a) The court shall not enter judgment for punitive or 339 exemplary damages in excess of two times the amount of the 340 compensatory damages awarded to the plaintiff from that 341 defendant, as determined pursuant to division (B)(2) or (3) of 342
this section. 343

(b) If the defendant is a small employer or individual, 344 the court shall not enter judgment for punitive or exemplary 345 damages in excess of the lesser of two times the amount of the 346 compensatory damages awarded to the plaintiff from the defendant 347 or ~~ten percent~~ per cent of the employer's or individual's net 348 worth when the tort was committed up to a maximum of ~~three-four~~ 349 hundred ~~fifty-sixty-one~~ thousand dollars, as determined pursuant 350 to division (B)(2) or (3) of this section. 351

(c) Any ~~attorneys~~ attorney's fees awarded as a result of a 352 claim for punitive or exemplary damages shall not be considered 353 for purposes of determining the cap on punitive damages. 354

(3) No award of prejudgment interest under division (C)(1) 355 of section 1343.03 of the Revised Code shall include any 356 prejudgment interest on punitive or exemplary damages found by 357 the trier of fact. 358

(4) In a tort action, the burden of proof shall be upon a 359 plaintiff in question, by clear and convincing evidence, to 360 establish that the plaintiff is entitled to recover punitive or 361 exemplary damages. 362

(5) (a) In any tort action, except as provided in division 363
(D)(5)(b) or (6) of this section, punitive or exemplary damages 364 shall not be awarded against a defendant if that defendant files 365 with the court a certified judgment, judgment entries, or other 366 evidence showing that punitive or exemplary damages have already 367 been awarded and have been collected, in any state or federal 368 court, against that defendant based on the same act or course of 369 conduct that is alleged to have caused the injury or loss to 370 person or property for which the plaintiff seeks compensatory 371 damages and that the aggregate of those previous punitive or 372 exemplary damage awards exceeds the maximum amount of punitive 373 or exemplary damages that may be awarded under division (D) (2) 374 of this section against that defendant in the tort action. 375

(b) Notwithstanding division (D) (5) (a) of this section and 376 except as provided in division (D) (6) of this section, punitive 377 or exemplary damages may be awarded against a defendant in 378 either of the following types of tort actions: 379

(i) In subsequent tort actions involving the same act or 380 course of conduct for which punitive or exemplary damages have 381 already been awarded, if the court determines by clear and 382 convincing evidence that the plaintiff will offer new and 383 substantial evidence of previously undiscovered, additional 384 behavior of a type described in division (C) of this section on 385 the part of that defendant, other than the injury or loss for 386 which the plaintiff seeks compensatory damages. In that case, 387 the court shall make specific findings of fact in the record to 388 support its conclusion. The court shall reduce the amount of any 389 punitive or exemplary damages otherwise awardable pursuant to 390 this section by the sum of the punitive or exemplary damages 391 awards previously rendered against that defendant in any state 392 or federal court. The court shall not inform the jury about the 393 court's determination and action under division (D) (5) (b) (i) of 394
this section. 395

(ii) In subsequent tort actions involving the same act or 396
course of conduct for which punitive or exemplary damages have 397

already been awarded, if the court determines by clear and 398 convincing evidence that the total amount of prior punitive or 399 exemplary damages awards was totally insufficient to punish that 400 defendant's behavior of a type described in division (C) of this 401 section and to deter that defendant and others from similar 402 behavior in the future. In that case, the court shall make 403 specific findings of fact in the record to support its 404 conclusion. The court shall reduce the amount of any punitive or 405 exemplary damages otherwise awardable pursuant to this section 406 by the sum of the punitive or exemplary damages awards 407 previously rendered against that defendant in any state or 408 federal court. The court shall not inform the jury about the 409 court's determination and action under division (D) (5) (b) (ii) of 410
this section. 411

(6) Division (D) (2) of this section does not apply to a 412 tort action where the alleged injury, death, or loss to person 413 or property resulted from the defendant acting with one or more 414 of the culpable mental states of purposely and knowingly as 415 described in section 2901.22 of the Revised Code and when the 416 defendant has been convicted of or pleaded guilty to a criminal 417 offense that is a felony, that had as an element of the offense 418 one or more of the culpable mental states of purposely and 419 knowingly as described in that section, and that is the basis of 420
the tort action. 421

(E) This section does not apply to tort actions against 422 the state in the court of claims, including, but not limited to, 423 tort actions against a state university or college that are 424 subject to division (B) (1) of section 3345.40 of the Revised 425 Code, to tort actions against political subdivisions of this 426 state that are commenced under or are subject to Chapter 2744. 427 of the Revised Code, or to the extent that another section of 428

the Revised Code expressly provides any of the following: 429

(1) Punitive or exemplary damages are recoverable from a 430 defendant in question in a tort action on a basis other than 431 that the actions or omissions of that defendant demonstrate 432 malice or aggravated or egregious fraud or on a basis other than 433 that the defendant in question as principal or master knowingly 434 authorized, participated in, or ratified actions or omissions of 435 an agent or servant that so demonstrate. 436

(2) Punitive or exemplary damages are recoverable from a 437 defendant in question in a tort action irrespective of whether 438 the plaintiff in question has adduced proof of actual damages. 439

(3) The burden of proof upon a plaintiff in question to 440 recover punitive or exemplary damages from a defendant in 441 question in a tort action is one other than clear and convincing 442 evidence. 443

(4) Punitive or exemplary damages are not recoverable from 444 a defendant in question in a tort action. 445

(F) If the trier of fact is a jury, the court shall not 446 instruct the jury with respect to the limits on punitive or 447 exemplary damages pursuant to division (D) of this section, and 448 neither counsel for any party or a witness shall inform the jury 449 or potential jurors of those limits. 450

(G) When determining the amount of an award of punitive or 451 exemplary damages against either a home or a residential 452 facility licensed under section 5123.19 of the Revised Code, the 453 trier of fact shall consider all of the following: 454

(1) The ability of the home or residential facility to pay 455 the award of punitive or exemplary damages based on the home's 456 or residential facility's assets, income, and net worth; 457

(2) Whether the amount of punitive or exemplary damages is 458 sufficient to deter future tortious conduct; 459

(3) The financial ability of the home or residential 460 facility, both currently and in the future, to provide 461 accommodations, personal care services, and skilled nursing 462 care. 463

Sec. 2323.43. (A) In a civil action upon a medical, 464 dental, optometric, or chiropractic claim to recover damages for 465 injury, death, or loss to person or property, all of the 466 following apply: 467
