A RESOLUTION

Congratulating the Medina High School boys soccer team on winning the 2018 Division I State Championship.

WHEREAS, The members of the House of Representatives of the 133rd General Assembly of Ohio are pleased to honor the Medina High School boys soccer team as the 2018 Division I State Champion; and WHEREAS, The talented Medina High School boys soccer team is to be heartily commended, for by defeating Archbishop Moeller High School, it decisively earned the 2018 Division I State title. The team's impressive season culminated in an 18-1-4 record, and it reflects an outstanding collective effort by a group of athletes 9 who devoted countless hours to training. Clearly, the demanding 10 regimen paid handsome dividends, and this accomplishment is a 11 positive reflection on the players, on the coach, on the school, 12 and on the community; and 1.3 WHEREAS, The members of the Medina High School boys soccer 14 team have epitomized the power, poise, and precision that befit 15 true champions. To his credit, Coach Simon Spelling has guided the 16 team with unwavering expertise and dedication, and he merits 17 praise for encouraging admirable performances out of the Battling 18 Bees in each competitive outing. Time and again, the players rose 19 to the occasion, amply demonstrating their unflagging 2.0 determination, and their impressive drive has earned them 21 widespread respect, even among their most formidable rivals; and 22 WHEREAS, During their growth as a squad, the members of the 2.3 Medina High School boys soccer team have learned much about self-24 discipline, leadership, and perseverance. Their first-place finish is indicative of their stalwart commitment to the sport, and their
