INTRODUCED AS NONCONTROVERSIAL RESOLUTION UNDER RULE 35,
JANUARY 15, 2014

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing the month of January 2014 as "Stalking Awareness
2 Month" in Pennsylvania.

3 WHEREAS, January 2014 will be observed nationally as the 4 sixth annual "Stalking Awareness Month"; and

5 WHEREAS, More than 1,000,000 women and almost 400,000 men are 6 victims of stalkers annually; and

7 WHEREAS, Most frequently, stalkers are former intimate 8 partners and abusers of the person being stalked, and 76% of 9 persons who have been murdered by their stalker have at one time 10 been an intimate partner of that stalker; and

11 WHEREAS, Stalking victims experience lost time from work, 12 anxiety, insomnia, social dysfunction and severe depression in 13 significantly higher numbers than the general public; and

14 WHEREAS, Stalking pervasively occurs in neighborhoods, on

1 college campuses and in workplace environments and is a crime
2 under the laws of all 50 states, the District of Columbia and 3 Federal statute; and

4 WHEREAS, Notwithstanding these facts, awareness of the 5 pervasiveness and detrimental social impact of stalking is 6 minimal; and

7 WHEREAS, To raise social awareness, January 2014 has been set
8 aside nationwide as "Stalking Awareness Month"; therefore be it

9 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives recognize the 10 month of January 2014 as "Stalking Awareness Month" in 11 Pennsylvania.
