STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2010

A N A C T

RELATING TO COURTS AND CIVIL PROCEDURE -- COURTS -- FAMILY COURT

Introduced By: Representatives Williamson, Ferri, Petrarca, Costantino, and D Caprio

Date Introduced: April 07, 2010

Referred To: House Judiciary

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 8-10-3 of the General Laws in Chapter 8-10 entitled "Family Court"
2 is hereby amended to read as follows:
3 8-10-3. Establishment of court -- Jurisdiction -- Seal -- Oaths. -- (a) There is hereby 4 established a family court, consisting of a chief judge and eleven (11) associate justices, to hear
5 and determine all petitions for divorce from the bond of marriage and from bed and board; all 6 motions for allowance, alimony, support and custody of children, allowance of counsel and 7 witness fees, and other matters arising out of petitions and motions relative to real and personal 8 property in aid thereof, including, but not limited to, partitions, accountings, receiverships, 9 sequestration of assets, resulting and constructive trust, impressions of trust, and such other 10 equitable matters arising out of the family relationship, wherein jurisdiction is acquired by the 11 court by the filing of petitions for divorce, bed and board and separate maintenance; all motions 12 for allowance for support and educational costs of children attending high school at the time of 13 their eighteenth (18th) birthday and up to ninety (90) days after high school graduation, but in no 14 case beyond their nineteenth (19th) birthday; enforcement of any order or decree granting 15 alimony and/or child support, and/or custody and/or visitation of any court of competent 16 jurisdiction of another state; modification of any order or decree granting alimony and/or custody
17 and/or visitation of any court of competent jurisdiction of another state on the ground that there 18 has been a change of circumstances; modification of any order or decree granting child support of 19 any court of competent jurisdiction of another state provided: (1) the order has been registered in

1 Rhode Island for the purposes of modification pursuant to section 15-23.1-611, or (2) Rhode 2 Island issued the order and has continuing exclusive jurisdiction over the parties; antenuptial 3 agreements, property settlement agreements and all other contracts between persons, who at the 4 time of execution of the contracts, were husband and wife or planned to enter into that 5 relationship; complaints for support of parents and children; those matters relating to delinquent,
6 wayward, dependent, neglected, or children with disabilities who by reason of any disability
7 requires special education or treatment and other related services; to hear and determine all 8 petitions for guardianship of any child who has been placed in the care, custody, and control of 9 the department for children, youth, and families pursuant to the provisions of chapter 1 of title 14
10 and chapter 11 of title 40; adoption of children under eighteen (18) years of age; change of names 11 of children under the age of eighteen (18) years; paternity of children born out of wedlock and 12 provision for the support and disposition of such children or their mothers; child marriages; those 13 matters referred to the court in accordance with the provisions of section 14-1-28; those matters
14 relating to adults who shall be involved with paternity of children born out of wedlock; 15 responsibility for or contributing to the delinquency, waywardness, or neglect of children under 16 sixteen (16) years of age; desertion, abandonment, or failure to provide subsistence for any 17 children dependent upon such adults for support; neglect to send any child to school as required 18 by law; bastardy proceedings and custody to children in proceedings, whether or not supported by 19 petitions for divorce or separate maintenance or for relief without commencement of divorce 20 proceedings; and appeals of administrative decisions concerning setoff of income tax refunds for 21 past due child support in accordance with sections 44-30.1-5 and 40-6-21. The holding of real 22 estate as tenants by the entirety shall not in and of itself preclude the family court from 23 partitioning real estate so held for a period of six (6) months after the entry of final decree of 24 divorce. Regardless of whether the parties would have been eligible to marry in Rhode Island, the 25 parties to any marriage, or other domestic relationship granting substantially similar rights and 26 obligations of marriage, recognized in any state of the United States, possession of the United 27 States, or in any foreign country, may petition for a divorce proceeding in this state so long as the 28 parties meet the jurisdictional requirements of section 15-5-12.

29 (b) The family court shall be a court of record and shall have a seal which shall contain 30 such words and devices as the court shall adopt.

31 (c) The judges and clerk of the family court shall have power to administer oaths and 32 affirmations.

33 (d) The family court shall have exclusive initial jurisdiction of all appeals from any 34 administrative agency or board affecting or concerning children under the age of eighteen (18)

1 years and appeals of administrative decisions concerning setoff of income tax refunds, lottery set 2 offs, insurance intercept, and lien enforcement provisions for past due child support, in 3 accordance with sections 44-30.1-5 and 40-6-21, and appeals of administrative agency orders of 4 the department of human services to withhold income under chapter 16 of title 15.

5 (e) The family court shall have jurisdiction over those civil matters relating to the 6 enforcement of laws regulating child care providers and child placing agencies.

7 (f) The family court shall have exclusive jurisdiction of matters relating to the revocation 8 or nonrenewal of a license of an obligor due to noncompliance with a court order of support, in 9 accordance with chapter 11.1 of title 15.

10 [See section 12-1-15 of the General Laws.]

11 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage, and shall apply to any marriage or 12 other domestic relationship granting substantially similar rights and obligations of marriage 13 whether entered into before or after the effective date of this act.

EXPLANATION
BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL
RELATING TO COURTS AND CIVIL PROCEDURE -- COURTS -- FAMILY COURT

1 This act would allow for a divorce in this state whether or not the parties would have 2 been eligible to marry in Rhode Island so long as the marriage or domestic relationship is 3 recognized elsewhere and as long as the parties meet the jurisdictional requirements for a divorce
4 in Rhode Island.

5 This act would take effect upon passage, and would apply to any marriage or other 6 domestic relationship granting substantially similar rights and obligations of marriage whether 7 entered into before or after the effective date of this act.
