

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 890

By Johnson

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend the post-Vietnam War Era veterans of the Tennessee Military Collectors Association.

WHEREAS, our nation was conceived by individuals who were willing to sacrifice their personal safety and concerns to ensure our individual and collective freedom, and the Volunteer State is especially proud to be the home of so many valiant men and women who have performed above and beyond the call of duty; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of the United States have, throughout the years, been called upon to take up arms against the enemies of this great nation, risking their lives and leaving their loved ones behind to honorably safeguard the freedoms and liberties guaranteed to all Americans and vanquishing those who threaten our way of life; and

WHEREAS, the brave service of our men and women in uniform in the post-Vietnam War era continued this time-honored tradition of Tennessee volunteerism, as twenty-three members of the Tennessee Military Collectors Association answered the nation's call to service to defend democracy and our American way of life; and

WHEREAS, these individuals include John Burton, U.S. Navy; Colonel Mark Davenport (Ret.), U.S. Army; Gregg Galbreath, U.S. Army; Art Helms, U.S. Army; Captain David E. Army; Brigadier General Steven Turner, U.S. Army; Sergeant Bergin Tuttle (Ret.), U.S. Army; Dave Verissimo, U.S. Army; James Watson, U.S. Marine Corps; and Colonel Sam Whitson (Ret.), U.S. Army; and

WHEREAS, serving their country in times of peace and times of conflict, these selfless individuals demonstrated honor, hard and honest work, love of family and community, and the true courage it takes to lead such a life through their deeds and actions; and

WHEREAS, too many times, the courageous men and women who have served in the military have not been accorded the respect and gratitude they deserve for their courageous actions that ultimately helped shape the history of our great country; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that this General Assembly should pause in its deliberations to recognize these honorable veterans who served with such dignity, aplomb, and grace; now, therefore,
