To require a comprehensive, multilateral assessment of the military requirements of Baltic countries to deter and resist aggression by the Russian Federation, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 3, 2019

Mr. CONAWAY introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and in addition to the Committee on Armed Services, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To require a comprehensive, multilateral assessment of the military requirements of Baltic countries to deter and resist aggression by the Russian Federation, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Baltic Reassurance
5 Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

1 (1) The Russian Federation seeks to diminish
2 the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO)
3 and recreate its sphere of influence in Europe using 4 coercion, intimidation, and outright aggression.

5 (2) Deterring the Russian Federation from 6 such aggression is vital for transatlantic security.

7 (3) The illegal occupation of Crimea by the 8 Russian Federation and its continued engagement of 9 destabilizing and subversive activities against inde-
10 pendent and free states is of increasing concern.

11 (4) The Russian Federation also continues to 12 disregard treaties, international laws and rights to 13 freedom of navigation, territorial integrity, and sov-
14 ereign international borders.

15 (5) The Russian Federation's continued occupa-
16 tion of Georgian and Ukrainian territories and the 17 sustained military buildup in the Russian Federa-
18 tion's Western Military District and Kaliningrad has 19 threatened continental peace and stability.

20 (6) The Baltic countries of Estonia, Latvia, and 21 Lithuania are particularly vulnerable to an increas-
22 ingly aggressive and subversive Russian Federation.

23 (7) In a declaration to celebrate 100 years of 24 independence of Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania
25 issued on April 3, 2018, the Trump Administration

1 reaffirmed United States commitments to these Bal-
2 tic countries to “improve military readiness and ca-3 pabilities through sustained security assistance” and 4 “explore new ideas and opportunities, including air
5 defense, bilaterally and in NATO, to enhance deter-
6 rence across the region”.

7 (8) These highly valued NATO allies of the 8 United States have repeatedly demonstrated their 9 commitment to advancing mutual interests as well
10 as those of the NATO alliance.

11 (9) The Baltic countries also continue to par-
12 ticipate in United States-led exercises to further pro-
13 mote coordination, cooperation, and interoperability
14 among allies and partner countries, and continue to 15 demonstrate their reliability and commitment to pro-
16 vide for their own defense.

17 (10) Lithuania, Latvia, and Estonia each hosts
18 a respected NATO Center of Excellence that pro-
19 vides expertise to educate and promote NATO allies
20 and partners in areas of vital interest to the alliance.

21 (11) United States support and commitment to 22 allies across Europe has been a lynchpin for peace
23 and security on the continent for over 70 years.

24 SEC. 3. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

25 It is the sense of Congress as follows:

1 (1) The United States is committed to the secu-
2 rity of the Baltic countries and should strengthen
3 cooperation and support capacity-building initiatives
4 aimed at improving the defense and security of such 5 countries.

6 (2) The United States should lead a multilat-
7 eral effort to develop a strategy to deepen joint ca-
8 pabilities with Lithuania, Latvia, Estonia, NATO al-
9 lies, and other regional partners, to deter against ag-
10 gression from the Russian Federation in the Baltic
11 region, specifically in areas that would strengthen
12 interoperability, joint capabilities, and military readi-
13 ness necessary for Baltic countries to strengthen 14 their national resilience.

15 (3) The United States should explore the feasi-
16 bility of providing long range, mobile air defense sys-
17 tems in the Baltic region, including through 18 leveraging cost-sharing mechanisms and multilateral 19 deployment with NATO allies to reduce financial 20 burdens on host countries.
