

113TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 3239

Making automatic continuing appropriations for the continuation of FBI emergency and critical training programs in the event of a Government shutdown.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 3, 2013

Mr. CASSIDY (for himself, Mr. TIBERI, Mr. FARENTHOLD, Mr. COLLINS of Georgia, Mr. BUCHANAN, Mr. NUGENT, Mr. REICHERT, and Mr. SCALISE) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Appropriations

A BILL

Making automatic continuing appropriations for the continuation of FBI emergency and critical training programs in the event of a Government shutdown.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. AUTOMATIC CONTINUING APPROPRIATIONS
4 FOR THE CONTINUATION OF FBI EMERGENCY
5 AND CRITICAL TRAINING PROGRAMS.

6 (a) IN GENERAL.—There are hereby appropriated for 7 fiscal year 2014, for any period during which a joint reso-
8 lution or other Act making appropriations for commerce,

1 justice, science, and related agencies is not in effect, such
2 sums as may be necessary to continue emergency training
3 and critical training by the Federal Bureau of Investiga-
4 tion, at a rate for operations as provided for such purpose
5 by Public Law 113–6 (as reduced by the Presidential se-
6 questration order dated March 1, 2013).

7 (b) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

8 (1) EMERGENCY TRAINING.—The term “emer-
9 gency training” means training of new employees in 10 positions that have been designated as “emergency”.

11 (2) CRITICAL TRAINING.—The term “critical
12 training” means training of State and local officers,
13 training for international law enforcement officers
14 occurring in the United States, and training of 15 international law enforcement officers abroad (such
16 as the training of officers who will be working in a 17 combat zone) that is deemed necessary in order to 18 protect human life or property.

19 SEC. 2. TREATMENT OF EXPENDITURES AT END OF AUTO-
20 MATIC CONTINUING RESOLUTION PERIOD.

21 Expenditures made available pursuant to this Act
22 shall be charged to the applicable appropriation whenever 23 a regular or continuing appropriations Act described in 24 section 1 is enacted into law.

○