

116TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 389

AN ACT

To authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to pay rewards under an asset recovery rewards program to help identify and recover stolen assets linked to foreign government corruption and the proceeds of such corruption hidden behind complex financial structures in the United States and abroad.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 The Act may be cited as the “Kleptocracy Asset Re-5 covery Rewards Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS; SENSE OF CONGRESS.

7 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

8 (1) The Stolen Asset Recovery Initiative
9 (StAR), a World Bank and United Nations anti-10 money-laundering effort, estimates that between $20 11 billion to $40 billion has been lost to developing 12 countries annually through corruption.

13 (2) In 2014, more than $480 million in corrup-14 tion proceeds hidden in bank accounts around the 15 world by former Nigerian dictator Sani Abacha and 16 his co-conspirators was forfeited through efforts by 17 the Department of Justice.

18 (3) In 2010, the Department of Justice estab-19 lished the Kleptocracy Asset Recovery Initiative, to 20 work in partnership with Federal law enforcement 21 agencies to forfeit the proceeds of foreign official 22 corruption and, where appropriate, return those pro-23 ceeds to benefit the people harmed by these acts of 24 corruption and abuse of office.

1 (4) Of the $20 billion to $40 billion lost by de-2 veloping countries annually through corruption, only 3 about $5 billion has been repatriated in the last 15 4 years.

5 (5) Governments weakened by corruption and 6 loss of assets due to corruption have fewer resources
7 to devote to the fight against terrorism and fewer re-8 sources to devote to building strong financial, law 9 enforcement, and judicial institutions to aid in the 10 fight against the financing of terrorism.

11 (6) The United States has a number of effective 12 programs to reward individuals who provide valuable 13 information that assist in the identification, arrest, 14 and conviction of criminal actors and their associ-15 ates, as well as seizure and forfeiture of illicitly de-16 rived assets and the proceeds of criminal activity.

17 (7) The Internal Revenue Service has the Whis-
18 tleblower Program, which pays awards to individuals 19 who provide specific and credible information to the 20 IRS if the information results in the collection of 21 taxes, penalties, interest or other amounts from non-22 compliant taxpayers.

23 (8) The Department of State administers re-
24 wards programs on international terrorism, illegal

1 narcotics, and transnational organized crime with 2 the goal of bringing perpetrators to justice.

3 (9) None of these existing rewards programs
4 specifically provide monetary incentives for identi-5 fying and recovering stolen assets linked solely to 6 foreign government corruption, as opposed to crimi-
7 nal prosecutions or civil or criminal forfeitures.

8 (10) The recovery of stolen assets linked to for-9 eign government corruption and the proceeds of such 10 corruption may not always involve a BSA violation 11 or lead to a forfeiture action. In such cases there 12 would be no ability to pay rewards under existing 13 Treasury Department authorities.

14 (11) Foreign government corruption can take 15 many forms but typically entails government officials 16 stealing, misappropriating, or illegally diverting as-17 sets and funds from their own government treasuries 18 to enrich their personal wealth directly through em-
19 bezzlement or bribes to allow government resources 20 to be expended in ways that are not transparent and 21 may not either be necessary or be the result of open 22 competition. Corruption also includes situations
23 where public officials take bribes to allow govern-24 ment resources to be expended in ways which are 25 not transparent and may not be necessary or the re-

1 sult of open competition. These corrupt officials
2 often use the United States and international finan-
3 cial system to hide their stolen assets and the pro-4 ceeds of corruption.

5 (12) The individuals who come forward to ex-6 pose foreign governmental corruption and 7 kleptocracy often do so at great risk to their own 8 safety and that of their immediate family members 9 and face retaliation from persons who exercise for-10 eign political or governmental power. Monetary re-11 wards can provide a necessary incentive to expose 12 such corruption and provide a financial means to 13 provide for their well-being and avoid retribution.

14 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
15 gress that a Department of the Treasury stolen asset re-
16 covery rewards program to help identify and recover stolen 17 assets linked to foreign government corruption and the 18 proceeds of such corruption hidden behind complex finan-19 cial structures is needed in order to—

20 (1) intensify the global fight against corruption;

21 and

22 (2) serve United States efforts to identify and 23 recover such stolen assets, forfeit proceeds of such 24 corruption, and, where appropriate and feasible, re-

1 turn the stolen assets or proceeds thereof to the 2 country harmed by the acts of corruption.

3 SEC. 3. IN GENERAL.

4 (a) DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY KLEPTOCRACY
5 ASSET RECOVERY REWARDS PROGRAM.—Chapter 97 of 6 title 31, United States Code, is amended by adding at the 7 end the following:

8 “§ 9706. Department of the Treasury Kleptocracy
9 Asset Recovery Rewards Program

10 “(a) ESTABLISHMENT.—

11 “(1) IN GENERAL.—There is established in the 16 “(2) PURPOSE.—The rewards program shall be 17 designed to support U.S. Government programs and 23 shall be administered by, and at the sole discretion 24 of, the Secretary of the Treasury, in consultation, as

5 of the Secretary and in consultation, as appropriate, with 6 the heads of other relevant Federal departments or agen-

12 in an account at a U.S. financial institution (includ-13 ing a U.S. branch of a foreign financial institution), 14 that come within the United States, or that come 15 within the possession or control of any United States 16 person;

17 “(2) the forfeiture of stolen assets in an ac-

1 institution), that come within the United States, or 2 that come within the possession or control of any 3 United States person.

4 “(c) COORDINATION.—

5 “(1) PROCEDURES.—To ensure that the pay-6 ment of rewards pursuant to this section does not 7 duplicate or interfere with any other payment au-
8 thorized by the Department of Justice or other Fed-9 eral law enforcement agencies for the obtaining of 10 information or other evidence, the Secretary of the 11 Treasury, in consultation with the Secretary of 12 State, the Attorney General, and the heads of such 13 other agencies as the Secretary may find appro-14 priate, shall establish procedures for the offering, 15 administration, and payment of rewards under this 16 section, including procedures for—

12 this section.

13 “(2) LIMITATION ON ANNUAL PAYMENTS.—Ex-
14 cept as provided under paragraph (3), the total 15 amount of rewards paid pursuant to this section 16 may not exceed $25 million in any calendar year.

17 “(3) PRESIDENTIAL AUTHORITY.—The Presi-
18 dent may waive the limitation under paragraph (2)
19 with respect to a calendar year if the President pro-

22 before any payment in excess of such limitation is 23 made pursuant to this section.

24 “(4) PAYMENTS TO BE MADE FIRST FROM STO-25 LEN ASSET AMOUNTS.—In paying any reward under

1 this section, the Secretary shall, to the extent possible,
2 make such reward payment—

3 “(A) first, from appropriated funds authorized under paragraph (1)(B); and 4

5 “(B) second, from appropriated funds authorized under paragraph (1)(A).
6

9 may be made under this section based on information
10 submitted to the Secretary unless such information 11 is submitted under penalty of perjury.

12 “(2) MAXIMUM AMOUNT.—No reward paid 13 under this section may exceed $5 million, unless the 14 Secretary—

15 “(A) personally authorizes such greater 16 amount in writing;

3 state or governmental entity being stolen, misappropriated, 4 or illegally diverted or to the payment of 5 bribes or other foreign governmental corruption, the 6 Secretary shall appropriately reduce, and may deny,
