A BILL

To amend the Higher Education Act of 1965 to promote the matriculation, and increase in the graduation rates, of individuals with disabilities within higher education.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Expanding Disability
5 Access to Higher Education Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

7 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

1           (1) Students who are low income attend institu-
2           tions of higher education at a rate significantly
3           lower than middle- and high-income students.

4           (2) Similarly, students who are first-generation
5           college students or are from minority backgrounds
6           attend institutions of higher education at lower rates
7           than the general public.

8           (3) Many students who are low income, first
9           generation, or minorities also have a disability.

10          (4) In the last decade, both high school and 11          postsecondary graduation rates for students with
12          disabilities were significantly lower than for students
13          without disabilities.

14          (5) In 2015, approximately 65 percent of the 15          total population of adults 25 to 34 years old had 16          completed some postsecondary education compared 17          with approximately 44 percent of adults with disabili-
18          ties in the same age range.

19          (6) For students with disabilities who do attend
20          an institution of higher education, only half will re-
21          ceive a diploma compared to 72 percent of students
22          without disabilities.

23          (7) Many researchers cite lack of support, such 24          as in-class accommodations, accessible housing, and 25          accessible technology, as a significant challenge as

1 students with disabilities transition from high school
2 to postsecondary education.

3 (8) As with their peers without disabilities who
4 are first-generation students or come from low-in-
5 come backgrounds, students who are first-generation
6 or low-income students with disabilities who receive
7 mentoring and support services can successfully pre-
8 pare for, enroll in, and graduate from postsecondary
9 education programs and gain greater economic con-
10 trol of their lives.

11 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
12 gress that individuals with disabilities, particularly those 13 who are low income or first generation, should be able to 14 attend institutions of higher education at the same rate
15 as their peers in the general population.

16 (c) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are the fol-
17 lowing:

18 (1) To provide first-generation or low-income
19 students with disabilities with information, support,
20 and resources to matriculate and complete a course
21 of study at an institution of higher education.

22 (2) To encourage and support first-generation
23 or low-income students with disabilities to achieve
24 postsecondary credentials that benefit them and
25 their communities both socially and economically.

1           (3) To increase the number of faculty with dis-
2           abilities in institutions of higher education.

3           (4) To provide programs authorized under
4           chapter 1 of subpart 2 of part A of title IV of the 5           Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1070a–
6           11) with the resources necessary to support first-
7           generation or low-income students with disabilities
8           to prepare for, enroll in, and graduate from institu-
9           tions of higher education.

10 SEC. 3. PREPARING AND SUPPORTING STUDENTS WITH
11                           DISABILITIES FOR POSTSECONDARY EDU-
12                           CATION.

13           Section 402A of the Higher Education Act of 1965
14 (20 U.S.C. 1070a–11) is amended—

15           (1) in subsection (c)(4)(A), by striking “, and
