A BILL

To provide grants for the conduct of demonstration projects designed to provide education and training for eligible individuals with an arrest or conviction record to enter and follow a career pathway in the health professions through occupations that are expected to experience a labor shortage or be in high demand, under the health profession opportunity grant program under section 2008 of the Social Security Act.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Demonstrating that 3 Empowerment Makes Opportunities Act” or the “DEMO
4 Act”.

5 SEC. 2. GRANTS FOR DEMONSTRATION PROJECTS TO PRO-
6 VIDE CAREER PATHWAYS IN THE HEALTH
7 PROFESSIONS FOR CERTAIN INDIVIDUALS
8 WITH AN ARREST OR CONVICTION RECORD.

9 Section 2008 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C.
10 1397g) is amended by redesignating subsection (d) as sub-11 section (e) and inserting after subsection (c) the following:

12 “(d) DEMONSTRATION PROJECTS TO PROVIDE CA-13 REER PATHWAYS IN THE HEALTH PROFESSIONS FOR 14 CERTAIN INDIVIDUALS WITH AN ARREST OR CONVICTION
15 RECORD.—

16 “(1) GRANT AUTHORITY.—The Secretary, in 17 consultation with the Secretary of Labor, the Sec-18 retary of Education, and the Attorney General, shall 19 award grants in accordance with this subsection to 20 eligible entities to conduct demonstration projects
21 for the purpose of providing education and training 22 for eligible individuals with arrest or conviction 23 records to enter and follow a career pathway in the 24 health professions through occupations that pay well 25 and are expected to experience a labor shortage or 26 be in high demand.

1           “(2) DURATION.—A demonstration project shall 2           be conducted under this subsection for not less than 3           3 years.

4           “(3) APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS.—An appli-
5           cant seeking a grant under this subsection for a 6           demonstration project shall submit to the Secretary 7           an application for the grant, that includes the fol-
8           lowing:

9                   “(A) A demonstration that the State in 10                  which the project is to be conducted has in ef-11                  fect policies or laws that permit certain allied 12                  health and behavioral health care credentials to 13                  be awarded to people with certain arrest or con-14                  viction records (which policies or laws shall in-15                  clude appeals processes and other opportunities 16                  to demonstrate rehabilitation to obtain creden-17                  tials, licensure, and approval to work in the 18                  proposed health careers), and a plan described 19                  in the application which will use a career path-20                  way to assist participants with such a record in 21                  acquiring credentials, licensing, and employ-22                  ment in the specified careers.

23                   “(B) A discussion of how the project or fu-24                  ture strategic hiring decisions will demonstrate 25                  the experience and expertise of the project in

1 working with job seekers who have arrest or 2 conviction records or employers with experience
3 working with people with arrest or conviction 4 records.

5 “(C) A demonstration that the applicant
6 has experience working with low-income popu-
7 lations, or a description of the plan of the appli-8 cant to work with a partner organization that 9 has the experience.

10 “(D) An identification of promising inno-11 vations or best practices that can be used to 12 provide the training.

13 “(E) A proof of concept or demonstration
14 that the applicant has done sufficient research 15 on workforce shortage or in-demand jobs for 16 which people with certain types of arrest or 17 conviction records can be hired.

18 “(F) A plan for recruiting students who 19 are eligible individuals into the project.

20 “(G) A plan for providing post-employment
21 support and ongoing training as part of a ca-
22 reer pathway under the project.

23 “(4) PREFERENCES IN CONSIDERING APPLICA-
24 TIONS.—In considering applications for a grant

1 under this subsection, the Secretary shall give pref-2 erence to—

3 “(A) applications submitted by applicants
4 who have completed a demonstration project 5 funded under this section, if an evaluation of 6 the project, which was funded by the Secretary, 7 found the project to have positive outcomes in 8 the categories of—

9 “(i) graduation and credential attain-
10 ment;

11 “(ii) job placement and retention; and 12 “(iii) evidence of addressing the work-13 er shortage or in-demand jobs described in 14 the original application for funding for the 15 completed demonstration project; and 16 “(B) applications which have an emergency

17 cash fund to assist project participants finan-
18 cially in emergency situations.

19 “(5) SUPPORT TO BE PROVIDED.—

20 “(A) REQUIRED SUPPORT.—A project for 21 which a grant is made under this subsection 22 shall include access to legal assistance for 23 project participants for the purpose of address-24 ing arrest or conviction records and associated 25 workforce barriers.

1           “(B) ALLOWED SUPPORT.—The goods and 2 services provided under a project for which a 3 grant is made under this subsection may in-4 clude the following:

5           “(i) A reserve fund for financial as-6 sistance to project participants in emer-
7 gency situations.

8           “(ii) Assistance with programs and 9 activities, including legal assistance,
10 deemed necessary to address arrest or con-
11 viction records as an employment barrier.

12           “(6) TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.—The Secretary
13 shall provide technical assistance—

14           “(A) to assist eligible entities in applying 15 for grants under this subsection;

16           “(B) that is tailored to meet the needs of 17 grantees at each stage of the administration of 18 projects for which grants are made under this 19 subsection; and

20           “(C) that is tailored to meet the specific 21 needs of eligible entities in carrying out the 22 projects.

23           “(7) EVALUATIONS.—

24           “(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall, 25 by grant, contract, or interagency agreement,

1           conduct rigorous and well-designed evaluations
2           of the demonstration projects for which a grant 3           is made under this subsection, which shall in-4           clude identification of successful activities for 5           creating opportunities for developing and sus-
6           taining, particularly with respect to low-income 7           individuals with arrest or conviction records, a 8           health professions workforce that has accessible 9           entry points, that meets high standards for edu-10          cation, training, certification, and professional 11          development, and that provides increased wages
12          and affordable benefits, including health care 13          coverage, that are responsive to the needs of the 14          workforce.

15                 “(B) RULE OF INTERPRETATION.—Eval-16          uations conducted pursuant to this paragraph 17          may include a randomized controlled trial, but 18          this paragraph shall not be interpreted to re-19          quire an evaluation to include such a trial.

20                 “(8) DEFINITIONS.—In this subsection:

21                         “(A) ELIGIBLE ENTITY.—The term ‘eligi-
22          ble entity’ means any of the following entities
23          that demonstrates in an application submitted 24          under this subsection that the entity has the ca-

1           capacity to fully develop and administer the dem-
2           onstration project described in the application:

3                   “(i) A local workforce development 4                   board established under section 107 of the 5                   Workforce Innovation and Opportunity
6                   Act.

7                   “(ii) A State or territory, a political 8                   subdivision of a State or territory, or an 9                   agency of a State, territory, or such a po-10                  litical subdivision.

11                  “(iii) An Indian tribe, a tribal organi-12                  zation, or a tribal college or university.

15                  Act of 1965).

16                  “(v) A hospital (as defined in section 17                  1861(e)).

18                  “(vi) A skilled nursing facility (as de-19                  fined in section 1819(h)(1)(A)).

20                  “(vii) A Federally qualified health 21                  center (as defined in section 1861(aa)(4)).

22                  “(viii) A nonprofit organization de-23                  scribed in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal 24                  Revenue Code of 1986, a labor organiza-
25                  tion, or an entity with shared labor-man-

1           agement oversight, that has a dem-
2           onstrated history of providing health pro-
3           fession training to eligible individuals.

4                   “(ix) An opioid treatment program (as 5           defined in section 1861(iii)(2)).

6                   “(B) ELIGIBLE INDIVIDUAL.—The term 7           ‘eligible individual’ means an individual whose 8           income does not exceed 138 percent of the Fed-9           eral poverty level.

10                   “(9) APPROPRIATION.—Out of any funds in the 11           Treasury of the United States not otherwise appro-12           priated, there are appropriated to the Secretary to 13           carry out this subsection $10,000,000 for fiscal year 14           2024.”.

15 SEC. 3. EFFECTIVE DATE.

16           The amendment made by this Act shall take effect
17           on October 1, 2023.
