1 SEC. 2. PROTECTION AGAINST POTENTIAL SYNTHETIC
2 OPIOID EXPOSURE WITHIN U.S. CUSTOMS
3 AND BORDER PROTECTION.

4       (a) IN GENERAL.—Subtitle B of title IV of the 5 Homeland Security Act of 2002 (6 U.S.C. 211 et seq.)
6 is amended by inserting after section 415 the following
7 new section:

10        (a) IN GENERAL.—The Commissioner of U.S. Cus-
11 toms and Border Protection shall issue a policy that speci-
12 fies effective protocols and procedures for the safe han-
13 dling of potential synthetic opioids, including fentanyl, by 14 U.S. Customs and Border Protection officers, agents, 15 other personnel, and canines, and to reduce the risk of 16 injury or death resulting from accidental exposure and en-
17 hance post-exposure management.

18        "(b) TRAINING.

19       “(1) IN GENERAL.—Together with the issuance
20       of the policy described in subsection (a), the Com-
21       missioner of U.S. Customs and Border Protection 22       shall require mandatory and recurrent training on 23       the following:

24                   “(A) The potential risk of opioid exposure
25                   and safe handling procedures for potential syn-
26                   thetic opioids, including precautionary measures

1           such as the use of personal protective equipment
2           during such handling.

3           “(B) How to access and administer opioid 4           receptor antagonists, including naloxone, post-
5           exposure to potential synthetic opioids.

6           “(2) INTEGRATION.—The training described in 7           paragraph (1) may be integrated into existing training
8           under section 411(l) for U.S. Customs and Border
9           Protection officers, agents, and other personnel.

10          “(e) PERSONAL PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT AND 11         OPIOID RECEPTOR ANTAGONISTS.—Together with the 12         issuance of the policy described in subsection (a), the 13         Commissioner of U.S. Customs and Border Protection
14         shall ensure the availability of personal protective equipment
15         and opioid receptor antagonists, including naloxone,
16         to all U.S. Customs and Border Protection officers,
17         agents, other personnel, and canines at risk of accidental
18         exposure to synthetic opioids.

19          “(d) OVERSIGHT.—To ensure effectiveness of the pol-
20         icy described in subsection (a)—

21           “(1) the Commissioner of U.S. Customs and 22           Border Protection shall regularly monitor the effi-
23           cacy of the implementation of such policy and adjust 24           protocols and procedures, as necessary; and

1               “(2) the Inspector General of the Department
2 shall audit compliance with the requirements of this
3 section not less than once each year for the 5 years
4 after the date of the enactment of this section.”
