A BILL

To amend the Insurrection Act to curtail violations against the civil liberties of the people of the United States, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Curtailing Insurrection 5       act Violations of Individuals’ Liberties Act” or “CIVIL 6       Act”.

1 SEC. 2. FEDERAL AID FOR STATE GOVERNMENTS.

2       Section 251 of title 10, United States Code, is
3 amended to read as follows:

4 “§ 251. Federal aid for State governments

5        "(a) AUTHORITY.—Whenever there is an insurrection
6 in any State against its government, the President may,
7 upon the request of the governor of the State concerned,
8 call into Federal service such of the militia of the other 9 States, in the number requested by the governor of the 10 State concerned, and use such of the armed forces, as the 11 President considers necessary to suppress the insurrec-
12 tion.

13        "(b) CERTIFICATION TO CONGRESS.—The President 14 may not invoke the authority under this section unless the 15 President, the Secretary of Defense, and the Attorney
16 General certify to Congress that the governor of the State
17 concerned has requested the aid described in subsection 18 (a) to suppress an insurrection.".

19 SEC. 3. USE OF MILITIA AND ARMED FORCES TO ENFORCE 20 FEDERAL AUTHORITY.

21       Section 252 of title 10, United States Code, is 22 amended to read as follows:

25        "(a) AUTHORITY.—Whenever unlawful obstructions, 26 combinations, or assemblages, or rebellion against the au-

1 thority of the United States, make it impracticable to en-2 force the laws of the United States in any State by the 3 ordinary course of judicial proceedings, the President may 4 call into Federal service such of the militia of any State,
5 and use such of the armed forces, as the President con-6 siders necessary to enforce those laws or to suppress the 7 rebellion.

8       “(b) CERTIFICATION TO CONGRESS.—

9           “(1) The President may not invoke the author-
10        ity under this section unless the President, the Sec-
11        retary of Defense, and the Attorney General certify
12        to Congress that the State concerned is unable or 13        unwilling to suppress an unlawful obstruction, com-
14        bination, or assemblage, or rebellion against the au-
15        thority of the United States described in subsection 16        (a).

17           “(2) A certification under paragraph (1) shall 18        include the following:

19              “(A) A description of the circumstances
20        necessitating the invocation of the authority
21        under this section.

22              “(B) Demonstrable evidence that the State
23        concerned is unable or unwilling to suppress 24        such unlawful obstruction, combination, or as-25        semblage, or rebellion against the authority of

1           the United States, and a legal justification for 2           resorting to the authority under this section to 3           so suppress.

4           “(C) A description of the mission, scope,
5           and duration of use of members of the armed 6           forces under this section.”.

7 SEC. 4. INTERFERENCE WITH STATE AND FEDERAL LAW.

8           Section 253 of title 10, United States Code, is 9           amended to read as follows:

10 “§ 253. Interference with State and Federal law

11          “(a) AUTHORITY.—(1) The President, by using the 12          militia or the armed forces, or both, or by any other 13          means, shall take such measures as he considers necessary
14          to suppress, in a State, any insurrection, domestic vio-
15          lence, unlawful combination, or conspiracy, if it—

16          “(A) so hinders the execution of the laws of 17          that State, and of the United States within the 18          State, that any part or class of its people is deprived 19          of a right, privilege, immunity, or protection named 20          in the Constitution and secured by law, and the con-21          stituted authorities of that State are unable, fail, or 22          refuse to protect that right, privilege, or immunity, 23          or to give that protection; or

24          “(B) opposes or obstructs the execution of the 25          Federal or State laws to protect the civil rights of

1       the people of the United States under the Constitu-2       tion and impedes the course of justice under those 3       laws.

4       “(2) In any situation covered by paragraph (1)(A),
5       the State shall be considered to have denied the equal pro-
6       tection of the laws secured by the Constitution.

7       “(b) CERTIFICATION TO CONGRESS.—

8           “(1) The President may not invoke the author-
9       ity under this section unless the President, the Sec-
10       retary of Defense, and the Attorney General certify
11       to Congress that the State concerned is unable or 12       unwilling to suppress an insurrection, domestic vio-
13       lence, an unlawful combination, or a conspiracy de-14       scribed in subsection (a).

15       “(2) A certification under paragraph (1) shall 16       include the following:

17           “(A) A description of the circumstances
18       necessitating the invocation of the authority
19       under this section.

20           “(B) Demonstrable evidence that the State
21       concerned is unable or unwilling to suppress 22       such insurrection, domestic violence, unlawful 23       combination, or conspiracy, and a legal jus-24       tification for resorting to the authority under 25       this section to so suppress.

1                   “(C) A description of the mission, scope,
2                   and duration of use of members of the armed
3                   forces under this section.”.

4 SEC. 5. CONSULTATION WITH CONGRESS.

5                   (1) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 13 of title 10, 6                   United States Code, is amended by adding at the 7                   end the following new section:

8 “§ 256. Consultation

9                   “The President, in every possible instance, shall con-10 sult with Congress before invoking the authority under 11 section 251, 252, or 253.”.

12                   (2) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING AMEND-13 MENT.—The table of sections at the beginning of 14 chapter 13 of title 10, United States Code, is 15 amended by adding at the end the following:

“256. Consultation.”.

16 SEC. 6. TERMINATION AND EXTENSION OF AUTHORITY 17 UNDER THE INSURRECTION ACT.

18                   (a) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 13 of title 10, United 19 States Code, as amended by section 5, is further amended
20 by adding at the end the following new section:

21 “§ 257. Termination of authority and expedited proce-22 dures for extension by joint resolution of 23 Congress

24                   “(a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

1                 “(1) 14-DAY PERIOD.—With respect to an invocation
2                 of authority under section 251, 252, or 253,
3                 the term ‘14-day period’ means, as applicable—

4                         “(A) in the case of an invocation of authority on a date on which Congress is in session, the period beginning on the date on which the President invokes such authority and ending on the date that is 14 calendar days after the date of such invocation; or 10                         “(B) in the case of an invocation of authority on a date on which Congress is adjourned, the period beginning on the date on which the next session of Congress commences and ending on the date that is 14 calendar days after the date of such commencement.

16                 “(2) JOINT RESOLUTION.—The term ‘joint resolution’ means a joint resolution—

18                         “(A) that is introduced with respect to the invocation of authority under section 251, 252, or 253 during the 14-day period;

21                         “(B) which does not have a preamble;

22                         “(C) the title of which is as follows: ‘Joint resolution relating to the extension of authority for purposes of _____ of title 10, United States Code’, the blank space being filled in

1           with whether the extension relates to the provi-
2       sion of Federal aid for State governments
3       under section 251, the use of militia and armed 4       forces to enforce Federal authority under sec-
5       tion 252, or the suppression of interference
6       with State and Federal law under section 253; 7       and

8           “(D) the matter after the resolving clause 9       of which is as follows: ‘That Congress extends 10      the authority to _____, invoked by the 11      President on _____.’, the first blank
12      space being filled in with whether the extension
13      relates to the provision of Federal aid for State 14      governments, the use of militia and armed 15      forces to enforce Federal authority, or the sup-16      pression of interference with State and Federal 17      law, and the second blank space being filled in 18      with the date on which the President invoked
19      such authority.

20           “(b) JOINT RESOLUTION ENACTED.—Notwith-
21      standing any other provision of this section, if, not later 22      than the last day of the 14-day period, there is enacted
23      into law a joint resolution, the period of such authority
24      shall be extended for a period to be determined by Con-25      gress and expressed in the joint resolution.

1       “(c) JOINT RESOLUTION NOT ENACTED.—Notwith-
2 standing any other provision of this section, if a joint reso-
3 lution is not enacted on or before the last day of the 14-4 day period—

5           “(1) such authority invoked by the President 6 shall terminate; and

7           “(2) the President may not, at any time after 8 the 14-day period, re-invoke authority under section 9 251, 252, or 253, unless there has been a material 10 and significant change in factual circumstances, and 11 such circumstances are provided in a new certifi-
12 cation to Congress.

13       “(d) EXPEDITED CONSIDERATION IN HOUSE OF 14 REPRESENTATIVES.—

15           “(1) RECONVENING.—Upon invocation by the 16 President of the authority under section 251, 252,
17 or 253, the Speaker of the House of Representa-
18 tives, if the House of Representatives would other-19 wise be adjourned, shall notify the Members of the 20 House of Representatives that, pursuant to this sec-
21 tion, the House of Representatives shall convene not 22 later than 3 calendar days after the date of such in-23 vocation.

24           “(2) REPORTING AND DISCHARGE.—Any com-
25 mittee of the House of Representatives to which a

1 joint resolution is referred shall report it to the 2 House of Representatives not later than 7 calendar
3 days after the last day of the 14-day period, there
4 is enacted into law a joint resolution. If a committee 5 fails to report the joint resolution within that period, 6 the committee shall be discharged from further con-
7 sideration of the joint resolution and the joint reso-
8 lution shall be referred to the appropriate calendar.

9       “(3) PROCEEDING TO CONSIDERATION.—

10           “(A) IN GENERAL.—After each committee
11       authorized to consider a joint resolution reports 12       it to the House of Representatives or has been 13       discharged from its consideration, it shall be in 14       order, not later than 7 calendar days after the 15       last day of the 14-day period, to move to pro-16       ceed to consider the joint resolution in the 17       House of Representatives.

18           “(B) PROCEDURE.—For a motion to pro-
19       ceed to consider a joint resolution—

20               “(i) all points of order against the 21       motion are waived;

22               “(ii) such a motion shall not be in 23       order after the House of Representatives 24       has disposed of a motion to proceed on the 25       joint resolution;

1                 “(iii) the previous question shall be 2                 considered as ordered on the motion to its 3                 adoption without intervening motion;

4                 “(iv) the motion shall not be debat-5                 able; and

6                 “(v) a motion to reconsider the vote 7                 by which the motion is disposed of shall 8                 not be in order.

9                 “(4) CONSIDERATION.—If the House of Rep-
10                 resentatives proceeds to consideration of a joint res-11                 olution—

12                 “(A) the joint resolution shall be consid-13                 ered as read;

14                 “(B) all points of order against the joint 15                 resolution and against its consideration are 16                 waived;

17                 “(C) the previous question shall be consid-18                 ered as ordered on the joint resolution to its 19                 passage without intervening motion except 10
20                 hours of debate equally divided and controlled 21                 by the proponent and an opponent;

22                 “(D) an amendment to the joint resolution 23                 shall not be in order; and

1               “(E) a motion to reconsider the vote on 2               passage of the joint resolution shall not be in 3               order.

4               “(e) EXPEDITED CONSIDERATION IN SENATE.—

5               “(1) RECONVENING.—Upon invocation by the
6               President of the authority under section 251, 252, 7               or 253, if the Senate has adjourned or recessed for 8               more than 2 calendar days, the majority leader of 9               the Senate, after consultation with the minority 10              leader of the Senate, shall notify the Members of the 11              Senate that, pursuant to this section, the Senate 12              shall convene not later than 3 calendar days after 13              the date of such invocation.

14              “(2) PLACEMENT ON CALENDAR.—Upon introduc-15              tion in the Senate, the joint resolution shall be 16              placed immediately on the calendar.

17              “(3) PROCEEDING TO CONSIDERATION.—

18              “(A) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding rule 19              XXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate, it is 20              in order, not later than 7 calendar days after 21              the last day of the 14-day period (even though 22              a previous motion to the same effect has been 23              disagreed to) to move to proceed to the consid-24              eration of a joint resolution.

1                 “(B) PROCEDURE.—For a motion to pro-
2                 ceed to the consideration of a joint resolution—

3                         “(i) all points of order against the 4                 motion are waived;

5                         “(ii) the motion is not debatable;

6                         “(iii) the motion is not subject to a 7                 motion to postpone;

8                         “(iv) a motion to reconsider the vote
9                 by which the motion is agreed to or dis-10                 agreed to shall not be in order; and 11                         “(v) if the motion is agreed to, the 12                 joint resolution shall remain the unfinished 13                 business until disposed of.

14                 “(4) FLOOR CONSIDERATION.—

15                 “(A) IN GENERAL.—If the Senate proceeds 16                 to consideration of a joint resolution—

17                         “(i) all points of order against the 18                 joint resolution (and against consideration 19                 of the joint resolution) are waived;

20                         “(ii) consideration of the joint resolu-
21                 tion, and all debatable motions and appeals 22                 in connection therewith, shall be limited to 23                 not more than 10 hours, which shall be di-
24                 vided equally between the majority and mi-
25                 nority leaders or their designees;

1                 “(iii) a motion further to limit debate
2                 is in order and not debatable;

3                 “(iv) an amendment to, a motion to 4                 postpone, or a motion to commit the joint 5                 resolution is not in order; and 6                 “(v) a motion to proceed to the con-7                 sideration of other business is not in order.

8                 “(B) VOTE ON PASSAGE.—The vote on 9                 passage shall occur immediately following the 10                 conclusion of the consideration of a joint resolu-
11                 tion, and a single quorum call at the conclusion 12                 of the debate if requested in accordance with 13                 the rules of the Senate.

14                 “(C) RULINGS OF THE CHAIR ON PROCE-
15                 DURE.—Appeals from the decisions of the Chair 16                 relating to the application of this subsection or 17                 the rules of the Senate, as the case may be, to 18                 the procedure relating to a joint resolution shall 19                 be decided without debate.

20                 “(f) RULES RELATING TO SENATE AND HOUSE OF 21                 REPRESENTATIVES.—

22                 “(1) COORDINATION WITH ACTION BY OTHER 23                 HOUSE.—If, before the passage by one House of a 24                 joint resolution of that House, that House receives 25                 from the other House a joint resolution—

1               “(A) the joint resolution of the other 2               House shall not be referred to a committee; and

3               “(B) with respect to a joint resolution of 4               the House receiving the resolution—

5               “(i) the procedure in that House shall 6               be the same as if no joint resolution had 7               been received from the other House; and 8               “(ii) the vote on passage shall be on 9               the joint resolution of the other House.

10              “(2) TREATMENT OF JOINT RESOLUTION OF 11              OTHER HOUSE.—If one House fails to introduce or 12              consider a joint resolution under this subsection, the 13              joint resolution of the other House shall be entitled 14              to expedited floor procedures under this section.

15              “(3) TREATMENT OF COMPANION MEASURES.—
16              If, following passage of a joint resolution in the Sen-
17              ate, the Senate receives the companion measure
18              from the House of Representatives, the companion 19              measure shall not be debatable.

20              “(4) CONSIDERATION AFTER PASSAGE.—

21              “(A) PERIOD PENDING WITH PRESI-
22              DENT.—If Congress passes a joint resolution—

23               “(i) the period beginning on the date 24               on which the President is presented with 25               the joint resolution and ending on the date

1           on which the President signs, allows to be-2           come law without signature, or vetoes and 3           returns the joint resolution (but excluding 4           days when either House is not in session) 5           shall be disregarded in determining whether 6           the joint resolution was enacted before 7           the last day of the 14-day period; and 8                 “(ii) the date that is the number of 9                 days in the period described in clause (i)

10                after the 14-day period shall be substituted 11                for the 14-day period for purposes of sub-12                sections (b) and (c).

13                 “(B) VETOES.—If the President vetoes the 14                 joint resolution, consideration of a veto message 15                 in the Senate under this section shall be not 16                 more than 2 hours equally divided between the 17                 majority and minority leaders or their des-18                 ignees.

19                 “(g) RULES OF HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND 20                 SENATE.—Subsections (d) and (e) and paragraphs (1), 21                 (2), (3), and (4)(B) of subsection (f) are enacted by Con-22                 gress—

23                 “(1) as an exercise of the rulemaking power of 24                 the Senate and House of Representatives, respec-
25                 tively, and as such are deemed a part of the rules

1       of each House, respectively, but applicable only with 2       respect to the procedure to be followed in that 3       House in the case of a joint resolution, and super-4       cede other rules only to the extent that they are in-5       consistent with such rules; and 6           “(2) with full recognition of the constitutional 7       right of either House to change the rules (so far as 8       relating to the procedure of that House) at any time, 9       in the same manner, and to the same extent as in 10      the case of any other rule of that House.”.

11       (b) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING AMENDMENT.— 12      The table of sections at the beginning of chapter 13 of 13      title 10, United States Code, as amended by section 5, 14      is further amended by adding at the end the following:

“257. Termination of authority and expedited procedures for extension by joint resolution of Congress.”.

15 SEC. 7. JUDICIAL REVIEW FOR INJURY RESULTING FROM 16           USE OF THE ARMED FORCES UNDER THE IN- 17           SURRECTION ACT.

18       (a) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 13 of title 10, United
19      States Code, as amended by section 6, is further amended
20      by adding at the end the following new section:

21 “§ 258. Judicial review

22       “(a) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding, and without 23      prejudice to, any other provision of law, any individual or 24      entity (including a State or local government) that is in-

1 jured by, or has a credible fear of injury from, the use
2 of members of the armed forces under this chapter may 3 bring a civil action for declaratory or injunctive relief. In 4 any action under this section, the district court shall have 5 jurisdiction to decide any question of law or fact arising 6 under this chapter, including challenges to the legal basis 7 for members of the armed forces to be acting under this 8 chapter.

9       “(b) EXPEDITED CONSIDERATION.—It shall be the 10 duty of the applicable district court of the United States
11 and the Supreme Court of the United States to advance
12 on the docket and to expedite to the greatest possible ex-
13 tent the disposition of any matter brought under this sec-
14 tion.

15       “(c) APPEALS.—

16           “(1) IN GENERAL.—The Supreme Court of the 17 United States shall have jurisdiction of an appeal 18 from a final decision of a district court of the United 19 States in a civil action brought under this section.

20           “(2) FILING DEADLINE.—A party shall file an 21 appeal under paragraph (1) not later than 30 days
22 after the court issues a final decision under sub-23 section (a).”.
