

116TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 778

To expand school choice in the District of Columbia.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JANUARY 24, 2019

Mr. MEADOWS introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Oversight and Reform

A BILL

To expand school choice in the District of Columbia.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Educational Freedom 5       Accounts Act”.

6       SEC. 2. DEFINITIONS.

7       In this Act:

8               (1) ADMINISTERING ENTITY.—The term “ad-9       ministering entity” means the entity that receives 10       the contract under section 3(a) for a fiscal year.

1           (2) CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER.—The term
2 “chief financial officer” means the Chief Financial 3 Officer of the District of Columbia.

4           (3) ELIGIBLE CHILD.—The term “eligible 5 child” means a child—

6           (A) who is a resident of the District of Co-7 lumbia;

8           (B) who is eligible to receive a free public
9 education in the District of Columbia;

10          (C) who—

11           (i) was enrolled in a public school or 12 preschool program of the District of Co-13 lumbia, including a charter school, during 14 the previous school year;

15           (ii) received an education savings ac-
16 count under this Act for the preceding 17 school year;

18           (iii) received an opportunity scholar-
19 ship under section 3007(a) of the Scholar-20 ships for Opportunity and Results Act for 21 the preceding school year; or

22           (iv) is entering prekindergarten or 23 kindergarten;

24          (D) whose parent chooses to not enroll the 25 child in a public elementary school, secondary

1 school, or prekindergarten program for the 2 school year for which the child will receive a 3 scholarship under section 4; and

4 (E) whose parent does not submit a notifi-
5 cation of home schooling described in section 6 5202 of title 5, Code of the District of Colum-
7 bia Regulations (or any successor notification)
8 to the Office of the State Superintendent of 9 Education of the District of Columbia for any 10 year for which the parent enters into an agree-11 ment under section 4(a)(2)(B).

12 (4) INSTITUTION OF HIGHER EDUCATION.—The 13 term “institution of higher education” has the 14 meaning given the term in section 102 of the Higher 15 Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1002).

16 (5) PARENT.—The term “parent” means the 17 guardian, custodian, or other person with the au-
18 thority to act on behalf of a child.

19 (6) PARTICIPATING PROVIDER.—The term
20 “participating provider” means an entity that—

21 (A) is—

22 (i) a nonpublic school located in the 23 District of Columbia that provides edu-
24 cation to prekindergarten, elementary
25 school, or secondary school students;

- 1           (ii) a public school, including a char-
2           ter school, located in the District of Co-
3           lumbia, except only with respect to pro-
4           viding individual courses or extracurricular 5           activities described in section 4(c)(1)(E) or 6           transportation described in section 7           4(c)(1)(I) to such services;
- 8           (iii) a tutor or tutoring facility;
- 9           (iv) a nonpublic provider of distance 10          or online learning;
- 11          (v) a therapy center or other provider 12          of special education or disability services;
- 13          (vi) an institution of higher education 14          located in the District of Columbia; or
- 15          (vii) an entity that provides edu-16          cational services or products;
- 17          (B) notifies the administering entity of the 18          entity's intent to become a participating pro-19          vider; and
- 20          (C) agrees, as a condition of receiving 21          funds from an education savings account estab-
22          lished under section 4, to comply with the re-
23          quirements of this Act.

1 SEC. 3. CONTRACT AUTHORIZED.

2 (a) IN GENERAL.—Beginning with the 2019–2020
3 school year, the Chief Financial Officer shall carry out this 4 Act for each school year by awarding a contract to 1 entity
5 described in subsection (b) to enable the administering en-
6 tity to carry out the program under section 4 for all eligi-
7 ble children in the District of Columbia.

8 (b) ELIGIBILITY.—In order to be eligible for a con-9 tract under this section, an entity shall be—

10 (1) exempt from Federal income tax pursuant 11 to 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986;

12 (2) based within the District of Columbia; and 13 (3) able to demonstrate an ability to meet all 14 requirements of this Act.

15 (c) APPLICATION.—An eligible entity desiring a con-16 tract under this section shall submit an application to the 17 Chief Financial Officer at such time, in such manner, and 18 containing such information as the Chief Financial Officer 19 may require.

20 (d) ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES.—From the 21 amounts made available under the contract described in 22 subsection (a), the administering entity may reserve an 23 amount that is not greater than the sum of 5 percent of 24 the funds allocated under section 4(a)(4) for each eligible 25 child with an education savings account, to be used by the

1 administering entity for the administrative expenses asso-
2 ciated with the program under this Act.

3 SEC. 4. UNIVERSAL EDUCATIONAL CHOICE FOR DISTRICT
4 OF COLUMBIA STUDENTS.

5 (a) BASIC ELEMENTS OF PARENTAL CHOICE IN
6 EDUCATION.—

7 (1) EDUCATIONAL CHOICE.—Except as pro-
8 vided in paragraph (6), the parent of any eligible 9 child may enter into an agreement under paragraph 10 (2)(B) with the administering entity for any year 11 during which the eligible child will be in a grade for 12 which the District of Columbia provides free public 13 education.

14 (2) PROVISION OF EDUCATION SAVINGS AC-
15 COUNTS.—

16 (A) IN GENERAL.—Beginning with the 17 2019–2020 school year, the administering enti-18 ty shall provide, to each eligible child whose 19 parent enters into or renews an agreement de-
20 scribed in subparagraph (B) with the admin-
21 istering entity for the school year, an education
22 savings account described in paragraph (3), 23 into which scholarship amounts for the year
24 shall be deposited in accordance with paragraph 25 (4).

1 (B) AGREEMENT.—The agreement re-
2 quired under this subparagraph shall be in a
3 manner and on a form determined by the ad-4 ministering entity and shall provide that—

5 (i) the eligible child will receive an 6 education savings account described in 7 paragraph (3) and the administering entity
8 will deposit a scholarship into the account
9 for each year that the agreement is in ef-
10 fect, in accordance with paragraph (4);

11 (ii) the eligible child may be educated 12 pursuant to any of the methods described 13 in subparagraphs (A) through (G) of sub-14 section (c)(1);

15 (iii) the parent shall direct the use of 16 the funds provided in the education savings
17 account for educational expenses described 18 in subsection (c), and the administering
19 entity shall distribute such funds in ac-
20 cordance with paragraph (3)(B);

21 (iv) the parent agrees to the terms
22 and conditions of the education savings ac-
23 count, including any participation nec-
24 essary for the accountability activities re-25 quired under subsection (d)(3); and

1           (v) with respect to an eligible child
2           who is a child with a disability (as defined
3           in section 602 of the Individuals with Dis-
4           abilities Education Act (20 U.S.C. 1401)), 5           the parent agrees that participation in the 6           program under this section shall have the 7           same effect as parental placement of child
8           under section 612(a)(10)(A) of such Act
9           (20 U.S.C. 1412(a)(10)(A)).

10           (3) EDUCATION SAVINGS ACCOUNT.—An edu-
11           cation savings account described in this paragraph 12           means a parent-controlled account, established exclu-13           sively for the purpose of paying for the educational 14           expenses described in subsection (c) for an eligible 15           child who is the designated beneficiary of the ac-
16           count, that meets the following requirements:

17                   (A) No funds shall be deposited into the 18                   account unless the funds are—

19                           (i) a disbursement of an annual schol-20                           arship from the administering entity as 21                           provided under paragraph (2)(A); or

22                           (ii) a deposit of opportunity scholar-
23                           ship funds, in accordance with section 24                           3007(a)(2) of the Scholarships for Oppor-

1                   tunity and Results Act (sec. 38– 2                   1853.07(a)(2), D.C. Official Code).

3                   (B) The funds in the account shall be dis-
4                   tributed by the administering entity on behalf 5                   of the eligible child to 1 or more participating 6                   providers, upon direction by the parent, at the 7                   appropriate time.

8                   (C) Except as provided in subparagraph
9                   (D), any amount in the account that is attrib-10                  utable to a deposit provided under paragraph 11                  (2)(A) or a deposit of any opportunity scholar-12                  ship funds awarded under section 3007 of the 13                  Scholarships for Opportunity and Results Act 14                  (sec. 38–1853.07, D.C. Official Code) may be 15                  paid or distributed out of the account only for 16                  the purpose of paying education expenses de-17                  scribed in subsection (c) for the eligible child.

18                  (D) Any balance remaining in the account
19                  shall be returned to the Chief Financial Officer 20                  on the last day of the period covered by an 21                  agreement described in paragraph (2)(B) if—

22                         (i) such agreement is broken or ended 23                         by the parent during the agreement period;

24                         (ii) the parent of the eligible child
25                         does not renew the agreement for the eligi-

1 ble child for the immediately succeeding 2 academic year;

3 (iii) during the most recent year of 4 the agreement, the parents do not use any 5 funds in the account for eligible expenses 6 described in subsection (c); or

7 (iv) the child no longer qualifies as an 8 eligible child.

9 (4) AMOUNT OF SCHOLARSHIP AND TRANSFER
10 OF FUNDS.—

11 (A) TRANSFER OF FUNDS.—By not later
12 than August 1 of each school year—

13 (i) the administering entity shall no-
14 tify the Chief Financial Officer of the total
15 amount calculated under subparagraph (B)
16 to be provided under this Act for scholar-
17 ships to eligible children for such school 18 year; and

19 (ii) the Chief Financial Officer shall 20 transfer such amount, from any funds or 21 revenues available to the District of Co-
22 lumbia, to the administering entity to en-23 able the administering entity to pay for the 24 scholarships and the administration ex-25 penses for the full fiscal year, in accord-

1           ance with subparagraphs (B) and (D) and 2           section 3(d).

3           (B) AMOUNT.—The total amount provided 4           under this section for a full-year scholarship on 5           behalf of an eligible child shall equal—

6                   (i) in the case of an eligible child from 7                   a family with an income of not more than 8                   185 percent of the poverty level described 9                   in subparagraph (C) or an eligible child
10                  who is a child with a disability, as defined
11                  in section 602 of the Individuals with Dis-
12                  abilities Education Act (20 U.S.C. 1401),
13                  90 percent of the funds that would other-
14                  wise be allocated by the District of Colum-
15                  bia Public Schools for such child, as deter-
16                  mined by the uniform per student funding
17                  formula defined in the District of Colum-
18                  bia School Reform Act of 1995 (sec. 38– 19                  804.01, D.C. Official Code);

20                   (ii) in the case of an eligible child 21                   from a family with an income of more than 22                   185 percent, and not more than 300 per-23                   cent, of such poverty level, 85 percent of 24                   the funds that would otherwise be allocated
25                   by the District of Columbia Public Schools

1 for such child as determined by such uni-
2 form per student funding formula; and

3 (iii) in the case of an eligible child
4 from a family with an income that equals
5 or exceeds 300 percent of such poverty 6 level, 80 percent of the funds that would 7 otherwise be allocated by the District of 8 Columbia Public Schools for such child as 9 determined by such uniform per student 10 funding formula.

11 (C) CALCULATION OF POVERTY LEVEL.—

12 In determining the poverty level for purposes of 13 this paragraph, the administering entity shall 14 use the criteria of poverty used by the Bureau
15 of the Census in compiling the most recent de-16 cennial census, as the criteria have been up-
17 dated by increases in the Consumer Price Index
18 for All Urban Consumers, published by the Bu-19 reau of Labor Statistics.

20 (D) QUARTERLY DISBURSEMENT.—The 21 administering entity shall distribute the amount 22 of a scholarship provided under this section to 23 an eligible child whose parent has entered into 24 an agreement under paragraph (2)(B) into the 25 eligible child's education savings account, which

1           may be through 4 equal quarterly deposits or 2           any other distribution schedule determined ap-3           propriate by the administering entity.

4           (5) OWNERSHIP OF THE EDUCATION SAVINGS
5           ACCOUNT.—An education savings account estab-
6           lished for an eligible child under this Act, and any 7           funds deposited within the education savings ac-
8           count, shall belong to the eligible child. Funds avail-9           able in the education savings account shall be used 10          as directed by a parent of the eligible child, on be-11          half of the child, for education expenses described in 12          subsection (c).

13          (6) INTERACTION WITH OPPORTUNITY SCHOL-14          ARSHIPS.—Notwithstanding paragraph (2)(A) or 15          any other provision of this Act, a child who receives 16          an opportunity scholarship under section 3007 of the 17          Scholarships for Opportunity and Results Act (sec.
18          38–1853.07, D.C. Official Code) for a school year
19          shall not be eligible for a scholarship under this Act 20          for the same school year. Upon the request of any 21          parent of an eligible child who receives an oppor-
22          tunity scholarship and the completion of an agree-
23          ment described in paragraph (2)(B), the Secretary 24          shall establish an education savings account de-25          scribed in paragraph (3) for the child, in order for

1 the parent to deposit any amount of an opportunity
2 scholarship under section 3007 of the Scholarships
3 for Opportunity and Results Act (sec. 38–1853.07, 4 D.C. Official Code) into the education savings ac-5 count.

6 (b) CONTINUED AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS.—Any bal-7 ance in an educational savings account established for an 8 eligible child under this section that is not used during 9 an academic year shall remain available in the education
10 savings account of the eligible child for future education 11 expenses described in subsection (c), as long as an agree-
12 ment described in subsection (a)(2)(B) remains in effect 13 for the eligible child.

14 (c) ELIGIBLE EDUCATION EXPENSES.—

15 (1) IN GENERAL.—Funds available in an edu-
16 cation savings account established under this section 17 for an eligible child shall only be used on behalf of 18 such child for 1 or more of the following educational 19 purposes:

20 (A) The costs of tuition and fees at a non-21 public school, or distance education, provided 22 through a participating provider.

23 (B) Tutoring services offered by a partici-
24 pating provider.

1           (C) The costs of curricula or online 2 courses, or virtual learning environments, in-3 cluding any supplemental materials, textbooks,
4 or supplies necessary to administer the cur-
5 riculum or to complete the course, offered by a 6 participating provider or purchased for self-7 study.

8           (D) Fees for any special education or re-9 lated services provided through a participating 10 provider.

11           (E) The costs of tuition and fees required
12 to complete individual courses or extra-13 curricular activities at a public school, including 14 a charter school, within the District of Colum-15 bia.

16           (F) The costs of tuition and fees required 17 to complete any dual credit courses, which are 18 courses that qualify for both secondary and 19 postsecondary education credit, from a partici-
20 pating provider in the District of Columbia.

21           (G) The costs of a career and technical 22 education course offered by a participating pro-23 vider.

24           (H) Fees for any—

1 (i) national norm-referenced achieve-
2 ment examination;

3 (ii) advanced placement or similar ex-
4 amination; or

5 (iii) standardized examination re-6 quired for admission to an institution of 7 higher education.

8 (I) Transportation required for the eligible
9 child to travel to and from a participating pro-10 vider, except that not more than $2,000 per 11 year from the education savings account may be 12 used for this purpose.

13 (J) A contribution to a qualified tuition 14 program (as defined in section 529(b) of the In-15 ternal Revenue Code of 1986) with respect to 16 which the eligible child is a designated bene-
17 ficiary or a contribution to a Coverdell edu-18 cation savings account (as defined in section 19 530(b) of such Code) with respect to which the 20 eligible child is a designated beneficiary, except 21 that not more than a total of $2,000 per year
22 may be used for contributions under this sub-23 paragraph.

24 (K) Any other education expenses ap-
25 proved and determined by the administering en-

1           tity to be similar to the expenses described in 2           subparagraphs (A) through (J).

3           (2) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this 4           subsection shall be construed to require an eligible 5           child to attend a nonpublic school or a program of 6           distance education described in paragraph (1)(A) in 7           order to receive an academic scholarship under this 8           section to be used for other eligible education ex-9           penses described in paragraph (1).

10          (d) GOVERNMENTAL AND ADMINISTERING ENTITY
11          RESPONSIBILITIES.—

12           (1) NO EXTENSION OF REGULATORY AUTHOR-
13           ITY.—The creation of the program under this Act 14           does not expand the regulatory authority of the 15           Mayor of the District of Columbia, the officers of 16           the District of Columbia, the District of Columbia
17           Public Schools, or the Federal Government to im-
18           pose any additional regulations on nonpublic schools
19           beyond the regulations necessary to enforce the re-
20           quirements of this Act.

21           (2) ANNUAL LIST OF PARTICIPATING PRO-
22           VIDERS.—

23           (A) CREATION OF LIST.—Beginning in 24           academic year 2018–2019, and each year there-25           after, the administering entity shall ensure that

1 all eligible children, and their parents, are in-
2 formed of the schools participating in the pro-
3 gram under this Act for the next academic year 4 by providing to the Chief Financial Officer, and 5 making publicly available, a list of participating 6 providers each school year.

7 (B) INCLUSION ON CFO'S WEBSITE.—The 8 Chief Financial Officer shall ensure that the 9 annual list of participating providers prepared 10 by the administering entity under subparagraph 11 (A) is made publicly available on the website of 12 the Chief Financial Officer.

13 (3) UPDATED INFORMATION REGARDING EDU-
14 CATIONAL EXPENSES.—The administering entity
15 shall timely notify parents of eligible children of any 16 categories that the entity has determined are edu-
17 cational expenses under subsection (c)(1)(K) by pro-18 viding notification through the parent handbook, 19 program website, or other primary method used by 20 the administering entity to educate parents about 21 the program.

22 (4) ACCOUNTABILITY.—The administering enti-
23 ty and the Chief Financial Officer shall take such 24 steps as are necessary to ensure the proper imple-
25 mentation of this Act, including—

1 (A) conducting periodic audits of education
2 savings accounts established under this section;

3 (B) ensuring that the funds disbursed
4 from education savings accounts are used ap-
5 propriately and in accordance with this Act;

6 (C) freezing or revoking the education sav-
7 ings account of an eligible child if fraud is de-8 tected;

9 (D) providing a process through which—

10 (i) parents whose expenses have been 11 denied may ask the administering entity 12 review and reverse the denial; and

13 (ii) the administering entity shall con-
14 duct a review and respond to the parental 15 request to reverse the denial within 30 16 days; and

17 (E) if appropriate, referring parents or 18 participating providers found to be using edu-
19 cation savings account funds for unlawful pur-
20 poses for criminal prosecution.

21 (5) EXCHANGE OF RECORDS.—Upon request by 22 the administering entity, the District of Columbia
23 Public Schools shall provide, to any participating 24 provider that is a school and that has admitted an 25 eligible child who previously attended a public

1 school, a complete copy of the child's school records, 2 following the standard procedures established by the 3 administering entity for purposes of the program
4 under this Act.

5 (e) PARTICIPATING PROVIDER REQUIREMENTS AND 6 RIGHTS.—

7 (1) REFUND AND REBATE LIMITATIONS.—

8 (A) GENERAL PROHIBITION.—A partici-
9 pating provider that receives scholarship funds
10 provided under this Act for an eligible child 11 shall not—

12 (i) refund or provide a rebate, of all 13 or any portion of such funds, to the eligible 14 child or a parent of the eligible child; and 15 (ii) share such funds with such eligi-

16 ble child or parent in any manner.

17 (B) REFUND PROCEDURES.—Any refund
18 that is needed for an item that is being re-19 turned or an item or service that has not been 20 provided shall be provided to the administering 21 entity and deposited into the education savings 22 account from which the money refunded was 23 originally paid.

24 (2) ADMISSIONS.—A participating provider may 25 enforce the admission requirements of the school or

1 program offered by the provider and may accept the 2 students best qualified to attend the school, except 3 that a participating school may not discriminate on 4 the basis of race, color, national origin, or sex, in ac-
5 cordance with subsection (f).

6 (3) TRANSFER OF DOCUMENTS.—Each partici-
7 pating provider that is a school shall agree, as a con-8 dition of participation in the program under this 9 Act, to provide the complete academic records of an 10 eligible child attending the school who receives an 11 education savings account under this Act to any 12 other nonpublic school or public school to which the 13 child transfers.

14 (f) NONDISCRIMINATION AND OTHER PROVISIONS.—

15 (1) IN GENERAL.—A participating provider
16 shall not discriminate against program participants
17 or applicants on the basis of race, color, national ori-18 gin, or sex.

19 (2) APPLICABILITY AND SINGLE SEX SCHOOLS,
20 CLASSES, OR ACTIVITIES.—

21 (A) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding any 22 other provision of law, the prohibition of sex
23 discrimination in paragraph (1) shall not apply 24 to a participating provider that is operated by, 25 supervised by, controlled by, or connected to a

1 religious organization to the extent that the ap-2 plication of such paragraph is inconsistent with 3 the religious tenets or beliefs of the partici-
4 pating provider.

5 (B) SINGLE SEX SCHOOLS, CLASSES, OR 6 ACTIVITIES.—Notwithstanding paragraph (1) or 7 any other provision of law, a parent may choose 8 and a participating provider may offer a single 9 sex school, class, or activity.

10 (3) RELIGIOUSLY AFFILIATED PARTICIPATING
11 PROVIDERS.—

12 (A) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding any
13 other provision of law, a participating provider
14 that is operated by, supervised by, controlled 15 by, or connected to a religious organization may 16 exercise its right in matters of employment con-17 sistent with title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 18 1964 (42 U.S.C. 2000e et seq.), including the 19 exemptions in such title.

20 (B) MAINTENANCE OF PURPOSE.—Not-
21 withstanding any other provision of law, funds
22 made available through education savings ac-
23 counts established under this section to eligible 24 children, which are used for a participating pro-25 vider as a result of the choice of the parents of 1 such children, shall not, consistent with the 2 first amendment of the Constitution of the 3 United States—

4 (i) necessitate any change in the par-
5 ticipating provider’s teaching mission;

6 (ii) require any participating provider
7 to remove religious art, icons, scriptures, 8 or other symbols; or

9 (iii) preclude any participating pro-10 vider from retaining religious terms in its 11 name, selecting its board members on a re-
12 ligious basis, or including religious ref-
13 erences in its mission statements and other 14 chartering or governing documents.

15 (4) RULES OF CONSTRUCTION.—

16 (A) TREATMENT OF ASSISTANCE.—For 17 purposes of any Federal law, assistance pro-18 vided under this section shall be considered as-19 sistance to the child and shall not be considered 20 assistance to the participating provider that en-21 rolls the child in a school or program. The 22 amount of any scholarship under this section 23 shall not be treated as income of the child or 24 the parents of the child for purposes of Federal

1 tax laws or for determining eligibility for any 2 other Federal program.

3 (B) NO ABILITY TO CONTROL THE CUR-
4 RICULUM.—Nothing in this section shall be con-5 strued to authorize any officer or employee of 6 the Federal Government, through grants, con-
7 tracts, or other cooperative agreements, to man-
8 date, direct, or control the curriculum, program 9 of instruction, instructional content, specific 10 academic standards, assessments, or allocation 11 of resources, of the District of Columbia or of 12 any school in the District of Columbia.

13 (g) TRANSITION.—The Chief Financial Officer and 14 the administering entity shall take steps to ensure a 15 smooth transition to the program under this Act, in order
16 to ensure that academic scholarships and education sav-
17 ings accounts under this section are available to eligible 18 children attending nonpublic schools through participating 19 providers beginning for the 2019–2020 school year. The 20 Chief Financial Officer shall allow nonpublic schools to be-21 come participating providers beginning on September 1, 22 2018.

23 (h) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—Section 3007(a)(2)
24 of the Scholarships for Opportunity and Results Act (sec.
25 38–1853.07(a)(2), D.C. Official Code) is amended by add-

1 ing before the period at the end the following: “, or depos-2 ited in an education savings account established under sec-
3 tion 4 of the Educational Freedom Accounts Act to be 4 used for education expenses described in subsection (c) of 5 such section”.
