1 (b) DUTIES.—The Legal Aid Interagency Roundtable
2 shall—

3 (1) improve coordination among Federal pro-
4 grams that help the vulnerable and underserved, so
5 that such programs are more efficient and produce
6 better outcomes by including, where appropriate,
7 legal services among the range of supportive services
8 provided;

9 (2) develop a list of federally funded programs
10 and resources that incorporate or may incorporate 11 civil legal aid and indigent defense;

12 (3) develop policy recommendations that im-
13 prove access to justice in Federal, State, local, and 14 Tribal jurisdictions;

15 (4) facilitate non-governmental partnerships to 16 promote access to civil legal aid and indigent de-
17 fense, and further law enforcement and civil rights
18 objectives;

19 (5) advance evidence-based research, data col-
20 lection, and analysis on civil legal aid and indigent
21 defense, including the potential of technology innova-
22 tions and non-traditional legal professionals to im-
23 prove access to justice;

1 (6) promote the provision of civil legal aid to
2 servicemembers, servicemember families, and vet-
3 erans; and

4 (7) report on the activities of the Legal Aid
5 Interagency Roundtable to the President on an an-6 nual basis, including policy recommendations to im-
7 prove access to civil and criminal justice in the 8 United States.

9 (c) APPOINTMENT OF REPRESENTATIVES.—The 10 head of each executive branch department and each par-
11 ticipating executive agency and office shall designate a
12 senior Federal official who shall serve as their representa-
13 tive on the Legal Aid Interagency Roundtable.
