

114TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 311

Expressing the sense of the House of Representatives that Congress should confirm that money is not free speech and that corporations are not people for purposes of the First Amendment right to make campaign contributions by enacting a constitutional amendment overturning the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission, and should restore the right of Congress and the States to impose limits on the amount of expenditures that may be made by candidates and others in support of elections for public office by enacting a constitutional amendment overturning the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Buckley v. Valeo.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 12, 2015

Mr. NOLAN submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the House of Representatives that Congress should confirm that money is not free speech and that corporations are not people for purposes of the First Amendment right to make campaign contributions by enacting a constitutional amendment overturning the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission, and should restore the right of Congress and the States to impose limits on the amount of expenditures that may be made by candidates and others in support of elections for public office by enacting a constitutional amendment overturning the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Buckley v. Valeo.

1 Resolved,

2 SECTION 1. CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO OVERTURN
3 CITIZENS UNITED DECISION AND COR-
4 PORATE CITIZENSHIP FOR PURPOSES OF PO-
5 LITICAL ACTIVITY.

6 It is the sense of the House of Representatives that,
7 in order to overturn the decision of the Supreme Court
8 in the case of Citizens United v. Federal Election Commis-
9 sion (558 U.S. 310), Congress should enact and the States
10 should ratify a constitutional amendment providing that 11 any right of a corporation, other business organization,
12 or other artificial entity to engage in political activity, in-
13 cluding the making of contributions and expenditures for 14 the purpose of influencing an election for public office or 15 a ballot measure, is not derived from the first amendment
16 but from the laws of the United States and the States,
17 and may be exercised only to the extent provided by such 18 laws.

19 SEC. 2. CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO OVERTURN
20 BUCKLEY DECISION.

21 It is the sense of the House of Representatives that,
22 in order to overturn the decision of the Supreme Court
23 in the case of Buckley v. Valeo (424 U.S. 1), Congress
24 should enact and the States should ratify a constitutional

1 amendment providing that Congress and the States have
2 the authority to impose limits on the amount of expendi-
3 tures that may be made by candidates and others in sup-
4 port of elections for public office.
