116th CONGRESS 1st Session

S. 178

AN ACT

To condemn gross human rights violations of ethnic Turkic Muslims in Xinjiang, and calling for an end to arbitrary detention, torture, and harassment of these communities inside and outside China.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-

2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the "Uyghur Human Rights3 Policy Act of 2019".

4 SEC. 2. STATEMENT OF PURPOSE.

5 The purpose of this Act is to direct United States 6 resources to address gross violations of universally recog-7 nized human rights, including the mass internment of over 8 1,000,000 Uyghurs and other predominately Muslim eth-9 nic minorities in China and the intimidation and threats 10 faced by United States citizens and legal permanent resi-11 dents.

12 SEC. 3. APPROPRIATE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES.

13 In this section, the term "appropriate congressional14 committees" means—

(1) the Committee on Foreign Relations, the Committee on Armed Services, the Select Committee on Intelligence, the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs, the Committee on the Judiciary, and the Committee on Appropriations of the Senate; and

(2) the Committee on Foreign Affairs, the Committee on Armed Services, the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, the Committee on Financial Services, the Committee on the Judiciary, and the Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representatives.

1 SEC. 4. FINDINGS.

2 Congress makes the following findings:

3 (1) The Government of the People's Republic of 4 China has a long history of repressing approximately 5 13,000,000 Turkic, moderate Sunni Muslims, par-6 ticularly Uyghurs, in the nominally autonomous 7 Xinjiang region. These actions are in contravention 8 of international human rights standards, including 9 the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the 10 International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights.

(2) In recent decades, central and regional Chinese government policies have systematically discriminated against Uyghurs, ethnic Kazakhs, and other Muslims in Xinjiang by denying them a range of civil and political rights, including the freedoms of expression, religion, movement, and a fair trial, among others.

(3) Increased unrest in the Xinjiang region as a result of the central government's severe repression is used in Orwellian fashion by the Government of the People's Republic of China as evidence of "terrorism" and "separatism" and as an excuse for further disproportionate response.

24 (4) In 2014, Chinese authorities launched their 25 latest "Strike Hard against Violent Extremism"
26 campaign, in which the pretext of wide-scale, inter-

1	nationally linked threats of terrorism were used to
2	justify pervasive restrictions on, and gross human
3	rights violations against, the ethnic minority commu-
4	nities of Xinjiang.
5	(5) Those policies included—
6	(A) pervasive, high-tech surveillance across
7	the region, including the arbitrary collection of
8	biodata, such as DNA samples from children,
9	without their knowledge or consent;
10	(B) the use of QR codes outside homes to
11	gather information on how frequently individ-
12	uals pray;
13	(C) facial and voice recognition software
14	and "predictive policing" databases; and
15	(D) severe restrictions on the freedom of
16	movement across the region.
17	(6) Chinese security forces have never been held
18	accountable for credible reports of mass shootings in
19	Alaqagha (2014), Hanerik (2013), and Siriqbuya
20	(2013), as well as the extrajudicial killings of
21	Abdulbasit Ablimit (2013) and Rozi Osman (2014).
22	(7)(A) The August 2016 transfer of former
23	Tibet Autonomous Region Party Secretary Chen
24	Quanguo to become the Xinjiang Party Secretary

4

prompted an acceleration in the crackdown across the region.

3 (B) Local officials in Xinjiang have used 4 chilling political rhetoric to describe the purpose of 5 government policy, including "eradicating tumors"
6 and "spray[ing] chemicals" on crops to kill the 7 "weeds".

8 (C) Uyghurs are forced to celebrate Chinese 9 cultural traditions, such as Chinese New Year, and 10 unique Uyghur culture is facing eradication due to 11 state control over Uyghur cultural heritage, such as 12 muqam (a musical tradition) and meshrep (tradi-13 tional cultural gatherings), and due to elimination of 14 the Uvghur language as a medium of instruction in 15 Xinjiang schools and universities.

16 (8) In 2017, credible reports found that family 17 members of Uyghurs living outside of China had 18 gone missing inside China, that Chinese authorities
19 were pressuring those outside the country to return, 20 and that individuals were being arbitrarily detained 21 in large numbers.

(9) There is ample credible evidence provided by scholars, human rights organizations, journalists, and think tanks substantiating the establishment by Chinese authorities of "political reeducation" camps.

1 (10)Independent organizations conducted 2 including testimonies from interviews, Kavrat 3 Samarkan, Omir Bekali, and Mihrigul Tursun, along 4 with others who had been detained in such facilities, 5 who described forced political indoctrination, torture, 6 beatings, food deprivation, and solitary confinement, 7 as well as uncertainty as to the length of detention, 8 humiliation, and denial of religious, cultural, and lin-9 guistic freedoms, and confirmed that they were told 10 by guards that the only way to secure release was 11 to demonstrate sufficient political loyalty. Poor con-12 ditions and lack of medical treatment at such facili-13 ties appear to have contributed to the deaths of 14 some detainees, including the elderly and infirm. 15 Uyghurs Muhammed Salih Hajim (2018), Yaqupjan 16 Naman (2018), Abdughappar Abdujappar (2018), 17 Ayhan Memet (2018), Abdulreshit Seley Hajim 18 (2018), Nurimangul Memet (2018), Adalet Teyip 19 (2018), Abdulehed Mehsum (2017), Hesen Imin 20 (2017), and Sawut Raxman (2017) reportedly died 21 while in the custody of the Chinese authorities in 22 "political reeducation" camps, without proper inves-23 tigation of the circumstances.

24 (11) Uyghurs and Kazakhs, who have now ob-25 tained permanent residence or citizenship in other countries, attest to receiving threats and harassment from Chinese officials.

3 (12) Under pressure from the Government of 4 the People's Republic of China, countries have forc-5 ibly returned Uyghurs to China in violation of the 6 non-refoulement principle and their well-founded 7 fear of persecution. States returning Uyghurs in-8 clude Egypt, Malaysia, Thailand, Laos, Burma, 9 Cambodia, Vietnam, Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan, 10 Tajikistan, Pakistan, Nepal, and India.

(13) Six journalists for Radio Free Asia's Uyghur service have publicly detailed abuses their family members in Xinjiang have endured in response to their work exposing abusive policies across the region.

16 (14) Several United States-based companies are 17 conducting business with Xinjiang authorities with18 out sufficient due diligence or safeguards to ensure 19 their business operations do not create or contribute 20 to human rights violations.

(15) The Government of the People's Republic of China is increasingly investing in the "Belt and Road Initiative" across Xinjiang and throughout Central Asia, extending its influence through organizations such as the Shanghai Cooperation Organization without regard to the political, religious, cul tural, or linguistic rights of ethnic minorities.

3 (16) The Secretary of State, Congressional-Ex4 ecutive Commission on China, Tom Lantos Human 5 Rights Commission, and individual members of the 6 executive branch and Congress have all expressed 7 growing concern regarding the pervasive human 8 rights abuses across Xinjiang and the "political re9 education" camps.

10 (17) In August 2018, the United Nations Com11 mittee to Eliminate Racial Discrimination challenged
12 the Government of the People's Republic of China
13 over abuses in Xinjiang, including the establishment 14 of mass arbitrary detention camps.

(18) Between August and September 2018, Chinese authorities responded to these allegations by either flatly denying them or insisting that the facilities are "vocational training centers".

(19) In September 2018, newly appointed
United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights Michele Bachelet noted in her first speech as High Commissioner the "deeply disturbing allegations of large-scale arbitrary detentions of Uighurs and other Muslim communities, in so-called re-education camps across Xinjiang".

(20) On September 18, 2018, the Washington Post editorial board wrote, "At stake is not just the welfare of the Uighurs, but also whether the tech nologies of the 21st century will be employed to smother human freedom."

6 (21) In December 2018 testimony before the 7 Subcommittee on East Asia, the Pacific, and Inter-8 national Cybersecurity Policy of the Committee on 9 Foreign Relations of the Senate, Deputy Assistant 10 Secretary for Democracy, Human Rights and Labor 11 Scott Busby testified that the number of those de-12 tained in camps since April 2017 was "at least 13 800,000 and possibly more than 2 million".

(22) In December 2018, independent media reports pointed to growing evidence of forced labor in the camps, as well as reports of individuals who have been released from camps being forced to labor in nearby factories for low wages under threat of being sent back to "political reeducation" camps.

(23) In December 2018 and January 2019, Chinese officials organized visits to "political reeducation" camps in Xinjiang for a small group of foreign journalists and diplomats from 12 non-Western countries. In the months preceding the visits, international media reported that officials worked to remove security features from some "political reeducation" facilities, and coached detainees and area residents not to make negative comments about the camps. Reports also indicated that officials had transferred large numbers of detainees to detention facilities in other parts of China.

7 (24) Experts have described the Xinjiang region
8 as "a police state to rival North Korea, with a for9 malized racism on the order of South African apart10 heid" and the repression in the Xinjiang region as 11 a "slow motion Tiananmen".

12 (25) On December 31, 2018, President Donald 13 J. Trump signed into law the Asia Reassurance Ini-14 tiative Act of 2018 (Public Law 105–409), which 15 condemned China's "forced disappearances, extra-16 legal detentions, invasive and omnipresent surveil-17 lance, and lack of due process in judicial pro-18 ceedings," authorized funding to promote democ-19 racy, human rights, and the rule of law in China, 20 and supported sanctions designations against any 21 entity or individual that—

- 22 (A) violates human rights or religious free-23 doms; or
- 24 (B) engages in censorship activities.

1 SEC. 5. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

2 It is the sense of Congress that—

3 the President should condemn (1)abuses 4 against Turkic Muslims by Chinese authorities in 5 Xinjiang and call on Chinese President Xi Jinping 6 to recognize the profound abuse and likely lasting 7 damage of China's current policies, and immediately 8 close the "political reeducation" camps, lift all re-9 strictions on and ensure respect for internationally guaranteed human rights across the region, and 10 11 allow for reestablishment of contact between those 12 inside and outside China;

13 (2) the United States Government should de-14 velop a strategy to support the United Nations High 15 Commissioner for Human Rights and numerous 16 United Nations Special Rapporteurs' urgent calls for 17 immediate and unfettered access to Xinjiang, includ-18 ing the "political reeducation" camps, and instruct 19 representatives of the United States at the United 20Nations to use the voice and vote of the United 21 States to condemn the mass arbitrary detainment, 22 torture, and forced labor of Turkic Muslims in the 23 People's Republic of China;

24 (3) the Secretary of State should consider the 25 applicability of existing authorities, including the 26 Global Magnitsky Act (subtitle F of Public Law
⁺S 178 ES

11

1114–328), to impose targeted sanctions on members of the Government of the People's Republic of China, the Chinese Communist Party, and state se curity apparatus, including Xinjiang Party Secretary Chen Quanguo and other officials credibly alleged to be responsible for human rights abuses in Xinjiang
 and elsewhere;

8 (4) the Secretary of State should fully imple-9 ment the provisions of the Frank Wolf International 10 Religious Freedom Act (Public Law 114–281) and 11 consider strategically employing sanctions and other 12 tools under the International Religious Freedom Act 13 (22 U.S.C. 6401 et seq.) and to employ measures re-14 quired as part of the "Country of Particular Con-15 cern" (CPC) designation for the Government of the 16 People's Republic of China that directly address par-17 ticularly severe violations of religious freedom;

18 (5) the Secretary of Commerce should review 19 and consider prohibiting the sale or provision of any 20 United States-made goods or services to any state 21 agent in Xinjiang, and adding the Xinjiang branch 22 of the Chinese Communist Party, the Xinjiang Pub-23 lic Security Bureau, and the Xinjiang Office of the 24 United Front Work Department, or any entity act-25 ing on their behalf to facilitate the mass internment

1 or forced labor of Turkic Muslims, to the "Entity 2 List" administered by the Department of Commerce; 3 (6) United States companies and individuals 4 selling goods or services or otherwise operating in 5 Xinjiang should take steps, including in any public 6 or financial filings, to publicly assert that their commercial activities are not contributing to human 7 8 rights violations in Xinjiang or elsewhere in China 9 and that their supply chains are not compromised by 10 forced labor;

11 (7) the Federal Bureau of Investigation and ap-12 propriate United States law enforcement entities 13 should track and take steps to hold accountable offi-14 cials from China who harass, threaten, or intimidate 15 not only United States citizens and legal permanent 16 residents, including Turkic Muslims, Uyghur-Ameri-17 cans, and Chinese-Americans, but also Chinese na-18 tionals legally studying or working in the United 19 States;

20 (8) the Secretary of State should work with tra21 ditional United States allies and partners to take 22 similar steps and coordinate closely on targeted 23 sanctions and visa restrictions;

24 (9) the Secretary of State should appoint a25 United States Special Coordinator for Xinjiang,

1	from officers and employees of the Department of
2	State, who will coordinate diplomatic, political, pub-
3	lic diplomacy, financial assistance, sanctions,
4	counterterrorism, security resources, and congres-
5	sional reporting requirements within the United
6	States Government to respond to the gross violations
7	of universally recognized human rights occurring in
8	the Xinjiang region, including by addressing—
9	(A) the mass detentions of Uyghurs and
10	other predominantly Muslim ethnic minorities;
11	(B) the deployment of technologically ad-
12	vanced surveillance and police detection meth-
13	ods; and
14	(C) the counterterrorism and counter-radi-
15	calism claims used to justify the policies of the
16	Government of the People's Republic of China
17	in Xinjiang;
18	(10) the United States Special Coordinator for
19	Xinjiang position should continue until the mass
20	surveillance and internment of Uyghurs and other
21	predominantly Muslim ethnic minorities has ended
22	and all detainees released; and
23	(11) the full and timely implementation of sec-
24	tions 408, 409, and 410 of the Asia Reassurance
25	Initiative Act of 2018 (Public Law 115–409) is crit-in China, including Muslim minorities in Xinjiang.

116TH CONGRESS S. 178

AN ACT

To condemn gross human rights violations of ethnic Turkic Muslims in Xinjiang, and calling for an end to arbitrary detention, torture, and harassment of these communities inside and outside China.
