11          (3) by inserting after paragraph (1) the fol-
12          lowing:

13           “(2) FINE.—

14           “(A) IN GENERAL.—Whoever violates this 15          section shall be fined under title 18.

16           “(B) ENHANCED FINE FOR AGGRAVATED
17          CASES.—Whoever violates this section while vi-
18          lating another law of the United States, other 19          than section 5316 or 5324(e) of this title, or as 20          a part of a pattern of any unlawful activity, in-21          cluding a violation of section 5316 or 5324(e)
22          of this title, shall be fined double the amount 23          provided in subsection (b)(3) or (e)(3) of sec-24          tion 3571 of title 18.”; and

1                   (4) in paragraph (5), as redesignated, by strik-
2                   ing “paragraph (2)” and inserting “paragraph (3)”.
3   SEC. 4. SECTION 1957 VIOLATIONS INVOLVING COMMINGLED FUNDS AND AGGREGATED TRANSACTIONS.

6                   Section 1957 of title 18, United States Code, is 7                   amended by adding at the end the following:

8                   “(g) In a prosecution for an offense under this sec-9                   tion, the Government may satisfy the $10,000 monetary 10                  transaction value requirement under subsection (a) by 11                  showing that—

12                  “(1) the monetary transaction involved the 13                  transfer, withdrawal, encumbrance, or other disposi-14                  tion of more than $10,000 from an account in which 15                  more than $10,000 in proceeds of specified unlawful 16                  activity was commingled with other funds; or

17                  “(2) the defendant conducted a series of mone-18                  tary transactions in amounts of not more than 19                  $10,000 that—

20                  “(A) exceeded $10,000 in the aggregate; 21                  and

22                  “(B) were closely related to each other as 23                  demonstrated by factors such as—

24                  “(i) the time period between the 25                  transactions;

1                 “(ii) the identity of the parties in-
2                 volved;
3                 “(iii) the nature or purpose of the 4                 transactions; and 5                 “(iv) the manner in which the trans-6                 actions were conducted.”.

7     SEC. 5. CHARGING MONEY LAUNDERING AS A COURSE OF 8                 CONDUCT.

9                 Section 1956 of title 18, United States Code, is 10      amended—

11                 (1) in subsection (h), by striking “or section 12                 1957” and inserting “, section 1957, or section 13                 1960”; and

14                 (2) by adding at the end the following:

15                 “(j) MULTIPLE VIOLATIONS.—Multiple violations of 16                 this section that are part of the same scheme or con-17                 tinuing course of conduct may be charged, at the election 18                 of the Government, in a single count in an indictment or 19                 information.”.

20     SEC. 6. ILLEGAL MONEY SERVICES BUSINESSES.

21                 (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 1960 of title 18, United 22      States Code, is amended by striking subsections (a) and 23      (b) and inserting the following:

1       “(a) OFFENSE.—Whoever knowingly conducts, con-2 trols, manages, supervises, directs, or owns all or part of 3 a covered money services business that—

4           “(1) is operated without an appropriate license
5 in a State where such operation is punishable as a 6 misdemeanor or a felony under State law, whether 7 or not the person knows that the operation is re-8 quired to be licensed or that the operation is so pun-9 ishable;

10          “(2) fails to comply with the money services
11 business registration requirements under section 12 5330 of title 31, or regulations prescribed under 13 that section, whether or not the person knows that 14 the operation is required to comply with those reg-15 istration requirements; or

16          “(3) otherwise engages in a transaction involv-
17 ing funds that the person knows have been derived 18 from a criminal offense or are intended to be used 19 to promote or support unlawful activity;

20 shall be punished as provided in subsection (b).

21       “(b) CRIMINAL PENALTY.—Any person who vio-
22 lates—

23           “(1) subsection (a) shall be fined in accordance 24 with this title, imprisoned for not more than 5 years, 25 or both; and

1           “(2) subsection (a) by conducting, controlling, 2 managing, supervising, directing, or owning all or 3 part of a covered money services business that en-
4 gaged in activity as a covered money services busi-
5 ness involving more than $1,000,000 during a 12-6 month period, or by engaging in a transaction or 7 transactions involving more than $1,000,000 during 8 a 12-month period, shall be fined double the amount 9 provided in subsection (b)(3) or (e)(3) (as applica-10 ble) of section 3571, imprisoned for not more than 11 10 years, or both.

12         “(e) DEFINITIONS.—In this section—

13           “(1) the term ‘covered money services business’ 14 means a money services business that—

15           “(A) operates on behalf of the public; and 16           “(B) affects interstate or foreign commerce 17           in any manner or degree;

18           “(2) the term ‘money services business’—

19           “(A) has the meaning given the term in 20 section 5330 of title 31 and any regulations 21 prescribed under that section; and 22           “(B) includes a person that engages in the 23 transfer, transportation, or exchange of cur-

24 rency, funds, or value that substitutes for cur-

1           rency by any and all means; even when not per-2           formed for profit; and

3           “(3) the term ‘State’ means any State of the 4           United States, the District of Columbia, the North-
 5           ern Mariana Islands, and any commonwealth, terri-
 6           tory, or possession of the United States.”.

16 SEC. 8. FREEZING BANK ACCOUNTS OF PERSONS AR-
17 RESTED FOR OFFENSES INVOLVING THE 18 MOVEMENT OF MONEY ACROSS INTER-
19 NATIONAL BORDERS.

20             Section 981(b) of title 18, United States Code, is 21             amended by adding at the end the following:

22                 “(5)(A) If a person is arrested or charged in connec-
23                 tion with an offense described in subparagraph (C) involv-24                 ing the movement of funds into or out of the United 25                 States, the Attorney General may apply to any Federal

1 judge or magistrate judge in the district in which the ar-
2 rest is made or the charges are filed for an ex parte order 3 restraining any account held by the person arrested or 4 charged for not more than 30 days, except that such 30-5 day time period may be extended for good cause shown 6 at a hearing conducted in the manner provided in Rule
7 43(e) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The court
8 may receive and consider evidence and information sub-9 mitted by the Government that would be inadmissible
10 under the Federal Rules of Evidence.

11       “(B) The application for the restraining order re-12 ferred to in subparagraph (A) shall—

13           “(i) identify the offense for which the person 14 has been arrested or charged;

15           “(ii) identify the location and description of the 16 accounts to be restrained; and 17           “(iii) state that the restraining order is needed 18 to prevent the removal of the funds in the account 19 by the person arrested or charged, or by other per-20 sons associated with that person, during the time

21 needed by the Government to conduct such inves-22 tigation as may be necessary to establish whether 23 there is probable cause to believe that the funds in 24 the accounts are subject to forfeiture in connection 25 with the commission of any criminal offense.

1       “(C) A restraining order may be issued under sub-2 paragraph (A) if a person is arrested or charged with any 3 offense for which forfeiture is authorized under—

4           “(i) this title;

5           “(ii) title 31; or

6           “(iii) the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C.
7 801 et seq.).

8       “(D) For purposes of this paragraph—

9           “(i) the term ‘account’ includes any safe deposit 10 box and any account (as defined in paragraphs (1) 11 and (2) of section 5318A(e) of title 31) at any fi-12 nancial institution; and 13           “(ii) the term ‘account held by the person ar-14 rested or charged’ includes an account held in the 15 name of that person, and any account over which 16 that person has effective control as a signatory or 17 otherwise.

18       “(E) Restraint under this paragraph shall not be 19 deemed a seizure for purposes of section 983(a).

20       “(F) A restraining order issued under this paragraph 21 may be executed in any district in which the subject ac-22 count is found, or transmitted to the central authority of 23 any foreign State for service in accordance with any treaty 24 or other international agreement.”.

21   SEC. 14. OBTAINING FOREIGN BANK RECORDS FROM 22        BANKS WITH UNITED STATES CORRESPON-23        DENT ACCOUNTS.

24           (a) GRAND JURY AND TRIAL SUBPOENAS.—Section
 25        5318(k) of title 31, United States Code, is amended—

1                     (1) in paragraph (1)—

2                         (A) by redesignating subparagraph (B) as 3                         subparagraph (C); and

4                         (B) by inserting after subparagraph (A)
5                         the following:

6                         “(B) COVERED FINANCIAL INSTITUTION.—

7                         The term ‘covered financial institution’ means 8                         an institution referred to in subsection (j)(1).”; 9                         and

10                         (2) by striking paragraph (3) and inserting the 11                         following:

12                         “(3) FOREIGN BANK RECORDS.—

13                         “(A) SUBPOENA OF RECORDS.—

14                         “(i) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding 15                         subsection (b), the Secretary of the Treas-
16                         ury or the Attorney General may issue a 17                         subpoena to any foreign bank that main-18                         tains a correspondent account in the 19                         United States and request any records re-20                         lating to the correspondent account or any 21                         account at the foreign bank, including 22                         records maintained outside of the United 23                         States, that are the subject of any—

1               “(I) investigation of a violation of 2               a criminal law of the United States;

3               or

4               “(II) civil forfeiture action.

5               “(ii) PRODUCTION OF RECORDS.—The 6               foreign bank on which a subpoena de-

7               scribed in clause (i) is served shall produce

8               all requested records and authenticate all

9               requested records with testimony in the 10              manner described in—

11              “(I) rule 902(12) of the Federal

12              Rules of Evidence; or

13              “(II) section 3505 of title 18.

14              “(iii) ISSUANCE AND SERVICE OF SUB-

15              POENA.—A subpoena described in clause

16              (i)—

17              “(I) shall designate—

18              “(aa) a return date; and 19              “(bb) the judicial district in 20              which the related investigation is 21              proceeding; and 22              “(II) may be served—

23              “(aa) in person;

24              “(bb) by mail or fax in the 25              United States if the foreign bank

1                   has a representative in the 2                   United States; or 3                   “(ee) in a foreign country
4                   under any mutual legal assist-5                   ance treaty, multilateral agree-6                   ment, or other request for inter-
7                   national legal or law enforcement 8                   assistance.

9                   “(iv) RELIEF FROM SUBPOENA.—

10                  “(I) IN GENERAL.—At any time
11                  before the return date of the subpoena 12                  described in clause (i), the foreign 13                  bank on which the subpoena is served 14                  may petition the district court of the 15                  United States for the judicial district 16                  in which the related investigation is 17                  proceeding, as designated in the sub-
18                  poena, to modify or quash—

19                  “(aa) the subpoena; or 20                  “(bb) the prohibition against 21                  disclosure described in subparagraph

22                  (C).

23                  “(II) CONFLICT WITH FOREIGN 24                  SECRETY OR CONFIDENTIALITY.—An 25                  assertion that compliance with the

1                   subpoena would conflict with a provi-
2                   sion of foreign secrecy or confiden-
3                   tiality law shall not be a basis for 4                   quashing or modifying the subpoena.

5                   “(B) ACCEPTANCE OF SERVICE.—

6                   “(i) MAINTAINING RECORDS IN THE 7                   UNITED STATES.— Any covered financial 8                   institution that maintains a correspondent
9                   account in the United States for a foreign 10                  bank shall maintain records in the United 11                  States identifying—

12                  “(I) the owners of such foreign 13                  bank; and

14                  “(II) the name and address of a 15                  person who—

16                  “(aa) resides in the United 17                  States; and

18                  “(bb) is authorized to accept 19                  service of legal process for 20                  records covered under this sub-
21                  section.

22                  “(ii) LAW ENFORCEMENT REQUEST.—
23                  Upon receipt of a written request from a 24                  Federal law enforcement officer for infor-25                  mation required to be maintained under

1                   this paragraph, a covered financial institu-2                   tion shall provide the information to the 3                   requesting officer not later than 7 days
4                   after receipt of the request.

5                   “(C) NONDISCLOSURE OF SUBPOENA.—

6                   “(i) IN GENERAL.—No officer, direc-7                   tor, partner, employee, or shareholder of, 8                   or agent or attorney for, a foreign bank on 9                   which a subpoena is served under this 10                  paragraph shall, directly or indirectly, no-11                  tify any account holder involved or any 12                  person named in the subpoena issued 13                  under subparagraph (A)(i) and served on 14                  such an institution about the existence or 15                  contents of such subpoena.

16                  “(ii) DAMAGES.—Upon application by 17                  the Attorney General for a violation of this 18                  subparagraph, a foreign bank on which a 19                  subpoena is served under this paragraph 20                  shall be liable to the United States Govern-21                  ment for a civil penalty in an amount 22                  equal to—

23                  “(I) double the amount of the 24                  suspected criminal proceeds sent 25                  through the correspondent account of

1                   the foreign bank in the related inves-
2                   tigation; or

3                   “(H) if no such proceeds can be 4                   identified, $250,000.

5                   “(D) ENFORCEMENT.—

6                   “(i) IN GENERAL.—If a foreign bank
7                   fails to obey a subpoena issued under sub-
8                   paragraph (A)(i), the Attorney General 9                   may invoke the aid of the district court of 10                   the United States for the judicial district
11                   in which the investigation or related pro-
12                   ceeding is occurring to compel compliance 13                   with the subpoena.

14                   “(ii) COURT ORDERS AND CONTEMPT
15                   OF COURT.—The court may—

16                   “(I) issue an order requiring the 17                   foreign bank to appear before the See-
18                   retary of the Treasury or the Attorney
19                   General to produce—

20                   “(aa) certified records, in 21                   accordance with—

22                   “(AA) rule 902(12) of 23                   the Federal Rules of Evi-24                   dence; or

1                         “(BB) section 3505 of 2                         title 18; or

3                         “(bb) testimony regarding 4                         the production of such records;

5                         and

6                         “(II) punish any failure to obey 7                         an order issued under subclause (I) as 8                         contempt of court.

9                         “(iii) SERVICE OF PROCESS.—All 10                         process in a case under this subparagraph 11                         shall be served on the foreign bank in the 12                         same manner as described in subparagraph
13                         (A)(iii).

14                         “(E) TERMINATION OF CORRESPONDENT
15                         RELATIONSHIP.—

16                         “(i) TERMINATION UPON RECEIPT OF 17                         NOTICE.—A covered financial institution 18                         shall terminate any correspondent relation-19                         ship with a foreign bank not later than 10 20                         business days after the date on which the 21                         covered financial institution receives writ-
22                         ten notice from the Secretary of the Treas-
23                         ury or the Attorney General if, after con-24                         sultation with the other, the Secretary of 25                         the Treasury or Attorney General, as ap-

1 plicable; determines that the foreign bank
2 has failed—

3 “(I) to comply with a subpoena
4 issued under subparagraph (A)(i); or 5 “(II) to prevail in proceedings be-6 fore—

7 “(aa) the appropriate dis-
8 trict court of the United States
9 after challenging such a sub-
10 poena under subparagraph
11 (A)(iv)(I); or

12 “(bb) a court of appeals of 13 the United States after appealing 14 a decision of a district court of 15 the United States under item
16 (aa).

17 “(ii) LIMITATION ON LIABILITY.—A 18 covered financial institution shall not be 19 liable to any person in any court or arbi-
20 tration proceeding for terminating a cor-
21 respondent relationship under this sub-
22 paragraph or complying with a nondisclo-
23 sure order under subparagraph (C).

24 “(iii) FAILURE TO TERMINATE RELA-
25 TIONSHIP.—A covered financial institution

1           that fails to terminate a correspondent re-
2           lationship under clause (i) shall be liable 3           for a civil penalty in an amount that is not 4           more than $10,000 for each day that the 5           covered financial institution fails to termi-
6           nate the relationship.

7           “(F) ENFORCEMENT OF CIVIL PEN-
8           ALTIES.—Upon application by the United 9           States, any funds held in the correspondent ac-10          count of a foreign bank that is maintained in 11          the United States with a covered financial insti-12          tution may be seized by the United States to 13          satisfy any civil penalties that are imposed—

14           “(i) under subparagraph (C)(ii); or 15           “(ii) by the court for contempt under 16           subparagraph (D).”.

17           (b) FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT AMENDMENT.—

 7 title 31, United States Code, as amended by section 17
 8 of this Act, is amended by adding at the end the following:

9 “§ 5334. Prohibition on concealment of the source of 10                             assets in monetary transactions

11       “(a) IN GENERAL.—No person shall knowingly con-12 ceal, falsify, or misrepresent, or attempt to conceal, falsify, 13 or misrepresent, from or to a financial institution, a mate-14 rial fact concerning the ownership or control of assets in-15 volved in a monetary transaction if—

16               “(1) the person or entity who owns or controls 17 such assets is a senior foreign political figure, or any 18 immediate family member or close associate of a 19 senior foreign political figure, as set forth in this 20 title or the regulations promulgated under this title; 21 and

22               “(2) the aggregate value of the assets involved 23 in one or more such transactions is not less than 24 $1,000,000.

1       “(b) SOURCE OF FUNDS.—No person shall knowingly 2 conceal, falsify, or misrepresent, or attempt to conceal, fal-
3 sify, or misrepresent, from or to a financial institution, 4 a material fact concerning the source of funds in a mone-5 tary transaction that—

6           “(1) involves an entity found to be a primary 7 money laundering concern under section 5318A or 8 the regulations promulgated under this title; and

17           “(1) CRIMINAL FORFEITURE.—

18           “(A) IN GENERAL.—The court, in impos-
19 ing sentence under subsection (e), shall order
20 that the defendant forfeit to the United States 21 any property involved in the offense and any 22 property traceable thereto.

23           “(B) PROCEDURE.—The seizure, restraint, 24 and forfeiture of property under this paragraph

1 shall be governed by section 413 of the Con-
2 trolled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 853).

3 “(2) CIVIL FORFEITURE.—

4       “(A) IN GENERAL.—Any property involved
5 in a violation of subsection (a) or (b), or a con-
6 spiracy to commit such violation, and any prop-7 erty traceable thereto may be seized and for-8 feited to the United States.

9       “(B) PROCEDURE.—Seizures and forfeit-10 ures under this paragraph shall be governed by 11 the provisions of chapter 46 of title 18, relating 12 to civil forfeitures, except that such duties, 13 under the customs laws described in section 14 981(d) of title 18, given to the Secretary of the 15 Treasury shall be performed by such officers, 16 agents, and other persons as may be designated 17 for that purpose by the Secretary of Homeland
18 Security or the Attorney General.

19       “(e) DEFINITIONS.—In this section—

20       “(1) the term ‘financial institution’ has the 21 meaning given the term in section 5312(a)(2) of this
