18 Subtitle B—Cooperation With
19 Countries of Nationality of Un-
20 accompanied Alien Children

21 SEC. 1021. IN-COUNTRY REFUGEE PROCESSING.

22 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-
23 ings:

24 (1) Consistent with section 101(a)(42)(B) of 25 the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C.

1 1101(a)(42)(B)) and section 207(e) of such Act (8
2 U.S.C. 1157(e)), special circumstances currently 3 exist due to grave humanitarian concerns throughout 4 the travel, and attempts to travel, to the United 5 States by unaccompanied children sufficient to jus-
6 tify and require, for fiscal years 2014 and 2015, the 7 allowance of processing of in-country refugee appli-
8 cations in El Salvador, Guatemala, and Honduras in 9 order to prevent such children from undertaking the 10 long and dangerous journey across Central America
11 and Mexico.

12 (2) Grave humanitarian concerns exist due to—

13 (A) at least 60,000 unaccompanied chil-
14 dren having undertaken the long and dangerous
15 journey to the United States from Central 16 America in fiscal year 2014 alone;

17 (B) substantial reports of unaccompanied
18 children becoming, during the course of their 19 journey intended for the United States, victims 20 of—

21 (i) significant injury, including loss of 22 limbs;

23 (ii) severe forms of violence;

24 (iii) death due to accident and inten-
25 tional killing;

1 (iv) severe forms of human traf-
2 ficking;

3 (v) kidnap for ransom; and

4 (vi) sexual assault and rape; and

5 (C) the likelihood that the vast majority of 6 the unaccompanied children seeking admission
7 or immigration relief, including through appli-
8 cation as a refugee or claims of asylum, do not 9 qualify for such admission or relief, and there-
10 fore will be repatriated.

11 (3) While special circumstances currently exist
12 to justify in-country refugee application processing
13 for El Salvador, Guatemala, and Honduras, it is ap-
14 propriate to determine the admissibility of individ-
15 uals applying for refugee status from those countries
16 according to current law and granting administrative 17 relief in instances in which refugee or asylum appli-
18 cations are denied, or are expected to be denied,
19 would exacerbate the grave humanitarian concerns
20 described in paragraph (2) by further encouraging
21 attempts at migration.

22 (b) AUTHORITY FOR IN-COUNTRY REFUGEE PROC-
23 ESSING.—Notwithstanding section 101(a)(42)(B) of the 24 Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C.
25 1101(a)(42)(B)), for fiscal years 2014 and 2015, the Sec-

1 retary of State, in consultation with the Secretary of 2 Homeland Security and the Director of the Office of Ref-
3 ugee Resettlement of the Department of Health and 4 Human Services, shall process an application for refugee
5 status—

6 (1) for an alien who is a national of El Sal-
7 vador, Guatemala, or Honduras and is located in 8 such country; or

9 (2) in the case of an alien having no nation-
10 ality, for an alien who is habitually residing in such 11 country and is located in such country.

12 (c) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this sec-
13 tion may be construed as a grant of immigration benefit 14 or relief, nor as a change to existing law regarding the 15 eligibility for any individual for such benefit or relief, other 16 than to the extent refugee applications shall be permitted
17 in-country in accordance with this section.

18 SEC. 1022. REFUGEE ADMISSIONS FROM CERTAIN COUN-
19 TRIES.

20 Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the 21 President, in determining the number of refugees who may 22 be admitted under section 207(a) of the Immigration and 23 Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1157(a))—

24 (1) for fiscal year 2014, may —

1 (A) allocate the unallocated reserve refugee
2 number set out in the Presidential Memo-
3 randum on Refugee Admissions for Fiscal Year
4 2014 issued on October 2, 2013 to admit refu-
5 gees from Central America; and

6 (B) allocate any unused admissions allo-
7 cated to a particular region for Central Amer-
8 ican refugee admissions; and

9 (2) for fiscal year 2015, shall include Central 10 America among the regional allocations included in 11 the Presidential determination for refugee admis-
12 sions that fiscal year.

13 SEC. 1023. FOREIGN GOVERNMENT COOPERATION IN REPA-
14 TRIATION OF UNACCOMPANIED ALIEN CHIL-
15 DREN.

14 1001.

15 (2) INTERIM CERTIFICATION.—If prior to the 16 date an annual certification is required by paragraph 17 (1) the President determines the most recent such 18 certification for the Government of El Salvador,
19 Guatemala, or Honduras is no longer accurate, the 20 President may make an accurate certification for 21 that country prior to such date.

22 (b) LIMITATION ON ASSISTANCE.—The Federal Gov-
23 ernment may not provide any assistance (other than secu-24 rity assistance) to El Salvador, Guatemala, or Honduras
25 unless in the most recent certification for that country

1 under subsection (a) is that the Government of El Sal-
2 vador, Guatemala, or Honduras, respectively, meets the 3 requirements of subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C) of sub-
4 section (a)(1).
