3       SECTION 1. FINDINGS.

4       Congress finds the following:

6       under the given name Araminta Ross in Maryland in 7       about 1820.

1           (2) Beaten severely as a child, she suffered a
2           traumatic head injury at the hand of a slave owner
3           early in her life, which caused a lifetime of head-
4           aches, seizures, and vision difficulties.

5           (3) In 1849, she fled north to freedom and then 6           immediately returned to Maryland, risking her life to 7           free her family.

8           (4) She joined the Underground Railroad,
9           which was a secret network of free African Ameri-
10          cans and White sympathizers who helped runaway
11          slaves escape the South.

12          (5) She became known as “the Moses to her 13          people” as a conductor on the Underground Rail-
14          road, risking her life time and time again to return
15          to Maryland and lead slaves to freedom.

16          (6) When the Civil War began, she became a 17          Union spy, organizing an espionage network of 18          slaves and freedmen who operated behind Confed-
19          erate lines.

20          (7) On several occasions, she led military raid-
21          ing parties and also tended to the Union wounded
22          as an army nurse.

23          (8) After the Civil War, she devoted herself to 24          women’s suffrage, the care of orphans and invalids,
25          and the establishment of freedmen’s schools.

1           (9) The Harriet Tubman Statue Commission of 2 Maryland has authorized a gift of a statue of Har-
3 riet Tubman to the United States Government to 4 commemorate her work on behalf of civil rights and
