IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JUNE 18, 2020

Mr. MENENDEZ introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

A BILL

To reiterate the support of Congress for the relationship between the United States and the Federal Republic of Germany, to prevent the weakening of the deterrence capacity of the United States in Europe, to prohibit use of funds to withdraw the United States Armed Forces from Europe, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Maintaining United 5 States National Security Interests in Europe Act”.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS; SENSE OF CONGRESS.

2 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-
3 ings:

4 (1) The 2017 National Security Strategy states,
5 “[t]he United States will deepen collaboration with 6 our European allies and partners to confront forces
7 threatening to undermine our common values, secu-
8 rity interests, and shared vision. The United States
9 and Europe will work together to counter Russian 10 subversion and aggression, and the threats posed by 11 North Korea and Iran. We will continue to advance
12 our shared principles and interests in international 13 forums.”.

14 (2) After the end of World War II, the presence
15 of foreign military forces in Germany was governed
16 by a law signed in April 1949 that allowed France,
17 the United Kingdom, and the United States to re-
18 tain forces in Germany.

19 (3) The initial law was succeeded by the Con-
20 vention on the Presence of Foreign Forces in the 21 Federal Republic of Germany, signed at Paris on 22 October 23, 1954, allowing eight North Atlantic
23 Treaty Organization (NATO) members, specifically
24 Belgium, Canada, Denmark, France, Luxembourg,
25 the Netherlands, the United Kingdom, and the

1 United States, to maintain a long-term presence of 2 military forces in the Federal Republic of Germany.

3 (4) The Federal Republic of Germany has made
4 significant contributions to the North Atlantic Trea-
5 ty Organization alliance, and by hosting the largest 6 United States Armed Forces presence in Europe, the 7 Federal Republic of Germany has borne a significant 8 burden in the interest of collective security.

9 (5) As of June 2020, the United States pres-
10 ence in various locations in the Federal Republic of 11 Germany, including in Stuttgart at the United 12 States European Command and the United States
13 Africa Command, consists of—

14 (A) approximately—

15 (i) 35,000 members of the Armed
16 Forces;

17 (ii) 10,000 Department of Defense ci-
18 vilian employees; and

19 (iii) 2,000 defense contractors;

20 (B) personnel of the Department of State
21 and other United States Government agencies;
22 and

23 (C) the dependents of individuals described
24 in subparagraphs (A) and (B).

1 (6) The United States presence in Europe, in-
2 cluding in the Federal Republic of Germany—

3 (A) protects and defends the United States
4 and United States allies and partners by deter-
5 ring conflict with the Russian Federation and 6 other adversaries;

7 (B) strengthens and supports the North
8 Atlantic Treaty Organization alliance and crit-
9 ical partnerships in Europe; and

10 (C) serves as an essential support platform
11 for carrying out vital national security engage-
12 ments in Afghanistan, the Middle East, Africa,
13 and Europe.

14 (7) The deep bilateral ties between the United 15 States and the Federal Republic of Germany have 16 led to decades of economic prosperity for both coun-
17 tries and their allies and have strengthened human 18 rights and democracy around the world.

19 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
20 gress that—

21 (1) the United States should continue to main-22 tain and strengthen the bilateral relationship with 23 the Federal Republic of Germany and the relation-
24 ships with other European allies;

1 (2) the United States should maintain a robust
2 military presence in the Federal Republic of Ger-
3 many so as to deter further aggression from the 4 Russian Federation or aggression from other adver-
5 saries against the United States and its allies and 6 partners; and

7 (3) the United States should remain committed
8 to strong collaboration with European allies as out-
9 lined in the 2017 National Security Strategy.

10 SEC. 3. PROHIBITION ON USE OF FUNDS TO WITHDRAW

11 THE UNITED STATES ARMED FORCES FROM
