7        “(a) DEFINITION.—In this section, the term ‘joint 8 resolution’ means only a joint resolution—

9           “(1) that is introduced during the period—

10                 “(A) beginning on the date a certification
11                 described in paragraph (1) or (2) of subsection 12                 (b) is received by Congress; and 13                         “(B) ending on the date that is 3 legisla-14                         tive days (excluding any day on which it is not 15                         in order to introduce resolutions) after the date 16                         described in subparagraph (A);

17                   “(2) which does not have a preamble;

18                 “(3) the title of which is only as follows: ‘Joint

20 dent’s exercise of authority to increase the debt
21 limit, as submitted under section 3101B of title 31, 22 United States Code, on _____’ (with the 23 blank containing the date of such submission); and 24               “(4) the matter after the resolving clause of 3 cation submitted under section 3101B(b) of title 31,

4 United States Code, on _____.’ (with the 5 blank containing the date of such submission).

6 “(b) SUBMISSIONS TO CONGRESS.—

7 “(1) ANNUAL SUBMISSION.—Before the begin-
8 ning of each fiscal year, the President shall submit 9 to Congress a written certification specifying the 10 amount of obligations that are subject to limit under 11 section 3101(b), in addition to the amount of such 12 obligations authorized to be outstanding on the date
13 of the certification, that the President determines it 14 shall be necessary to issue during the next fiscal 15 year to meet existing commitments.

16 “(2) SUBMISSION DURING FISCAL YEAR.—If the 17 President determines during a fiscal year that the 18 debt subject to limit under section 3101(b) is within 19 $250,000,000,000 of such limit and that further 20 borrowing is necessary to meet existing commit-
21 ments, the President shall submit to Congress a 22 written certification—

23 “(A) specifying the amount of obligations
24 that are subject to limit under section 3101(b), 25 in addition to the amount of such obligations

1           authorized to be outstanding on the date of the 2           certification, that the President determines it
3           shall be necessary to issue during the fiscal year 4           to meet existing commitments; and

5           “(B) containing the reason for any discrep-6           ancy from the certification submitted under 7           paragraph (1) for the fiscal year.

8           “(3) EFFECT OF FAILURE TO ENACT DIS-9           APPROVAL.—If a joint resolution is not enacted with 10          respect to a certification under paragraph (1) or (2)
11          during the 15-legislative-day period beginning on the 12          date on which Congress receives the certification, the 13          limit under section 3101(b) is increased by the 14          amount specified in the certification.

15           “(4) EFFECT OF ENACTMENT OF DIS-
16           APPROVAL.—If a joint resolution is enacted with re-
17          spect to a certification under paragraph (1) or (2)
18          during the 15-legislative-day period beginning on the 19          date on which Congress receives the certification, the 20          limit under section 3101(b)—

21           “(A) shall not be increased by the amount 22          specified in the certification; and 23           “(B) shall be increased in accordance with 24          subsection (c)(2).

25           “(c) SUSPENSION FOR MID-YEAR CERTIFICATION.—

1           “(1) IN GENERAL.—Section 3101(b) shall not 2 apply for the period—

3               “(A) beginning on the date on which the 4 President submits to Congress a certification 5 under subsection (b)(2); and 6               “(B) ending on the earlier of—

7                   “(i) the date that is 15 legislative 8 days after Congress receives the certifi-9 cation; or

10                  “(ii) the date of enactment of a joint 11 resolution with respect to the certification.

12           “(2) SPECIAL RULE RELATING TO OBLIGATIONS
13 ISSUED DURING SUSPENSION PERIOD.—

14               “(A) IN GENERAL.—If a joint resolution is 15 enacted with respect to a certification under 16 subsection (b)(2), effective on the day after 17 such date of enactment, the limitation in sec-18 tion 3101(b) is increased to the extent that—

19                   “(i) the face amount of obligations
20 issued under this chapter and the face 21 amount of obligations whose principal and 22 interest are guaranteed by the United 23 States Government (except guaranteed ob-24 ligations held by the Secretary of the

1                   Treasury) outstanding on the calendar day 2                   after such date of enactment, exceeds

3                   “(ii) the face amount of such obliga-4                   tions outstanding on the date on which the 5                   President submits the certification.

6                   “(B) LIMITATION.—An obligation shall not 7                   be taken into account under subparagraph (A)
8                   unless the issuance of such obligation was nec-9                   essary to fund a commitment incurred by the 10                  Federal Government that required payment 11                  during the 15-legislative-day period described in 12                  paragraph (1)(B)(i).

13                 “(d) EXPEDITED CONSIDERATION IN HOUSE OF 14                  REPRESENTATIVES.—

15                 “(1) REPORTING AND DISCHARGE.—Any com-
16                  mittee of the House of Representatives to which a 17                  joint resolution is referred shall report it to the 18                  House of Representatives without amendment not 19                  later than 5 calendar days after the date of intro-
20                  duction of the joint resolution. If a committee fails 21                  to report the joint resolution within that period, the 22                  committee shall be discharged from further consider-23                  ation of the joint resolution and the joint resolution 24                  shall be referred to the appropriate calendar.

1                 “(2) PROCEEDING TO CONSIDERATION.—After 2 each committee authorized to consider a joint resolu-
3 tion reports it to the House of Representatives or 4 has been discharged from its consideration, it shall 5 be in order, not later than the sixth day after intro-
6 duction of the joint resolution, to move to proceed
7 to consider the joint resolution in the House of Rep-
8 resentatives. All points of order against the motion 9 are waived. Such a motion shall not be in order after 10 the House of Representatives has disposed of a mo-
11 tion to proceed on a joint resolution addressing a 12 particular submission. The previous question shall be 13 considered as ordered on the motion to its adoption 14 without intervening motion. The motion shall not be 15 debatable. A motion to reconsider the vote by which 16 the motion is disposed of shall not be in order.

17                 “(3) CONSIDERATION.—The joint resolution
18 shall be considered as read. All points of order 19 against the joint resolution and against its consider-20 ation are waived. The previous question shall be con-
21 sidered as ordered on the joint resolution to its pas-22 sage without intervening motion except 2 hours of 23 debate equally divided and controlled by the pro-
24 ponent and an opponent. An amendment to the joint

1 resolution or a motion to reconsider the vote on pas-
2 sage of the joint resolution shall not be in order.

3 “(e) EXPEDITED PROCEDURE IN SENATE.—

4 “(1) PLACEMENT ON CALENDAR.—Upon intro-
5 duction in the Senate, a joint resolution shall be im-
6 mediately placed on the calendar.

7 “(2) FLOOR CONSIDERATION.—

8 “(A) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding rule
9 XXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate, it is 10 in order at any time during the period begin-11 ning on the day after the date on which Con-12 gress receives a certification under paragraph 13 (1) or (2) of subsection (b) and ending on the 14 sixth day after the date of introduction of a 15 joint resolution (even though a previous motion 16 to the same effect has been disagreed to) to 17 move to proceed to the consideration of the 18 joint resolution, and all points of order against 19 the joint resolution (and against consideration 20 of the joint resolution) are waived. The motion 21 to proceed is not debatable. The motion is not 22 subject to a motion to postpone. A motion to 23 reconsider the vote by which the motion is 24 agreed to or disagreed to shall not be in order.
25 If a motion to proceed to the consideration of

1           the resolution is agreed to, the joint resolution
2           shall remain the unfinished business until dis-3           posed of.

4           “(B) CONSIDERATION.—Consideration of 5           the joint resolution, and on all debatable mo-6           tions and appeals in connection therewith, shall 7           be limited to not more than 10 hours, which 8           shall be divided equally between the majority 9           and minority leaders or their designees. A mo-10          tion further to limit debate is in order and not 11          debatable. An amendment to, or a motion to 12          postpone, or a motion to proceed to the consid-
13          eration of other business, or a motion to recom-
14          mit the joint resolution is not in order.

15          “(C) VOTE ON PASSAGE.—If the Senate 16          has voted to proceed to a joint resolution, the 17          vote on passage of the joint resolution shall 18          occur immediately following the conclusion of 19          consideration of the joint resolution, and a sin-
20          gle quorum call at the conclusion of the debate 21          if requested in accordance with the rules of the 22          Senate.

23          “(D) RULINGS OF THE CHAIR ON PROCE-
24          DURE.—Appeals from the decisions of the Chair 25          relating to the application of the rules of the

1           Senate, as the case may be, to the procedure re-2           lating to a joint resolution shall be decided 3           without debate.

4         “(f) COORDINATION WITH ACTION BY OTHER
5 HOUSE.—

6           “(1) IN GENERAL.—If, before passing the joint 7 resolution, one House receives from the other a joint 8 resolution—

9                 “(A) the joint resolution of the other 10 House shall not be referred to a committee; and 11                 “(B) the procedure in the receiving House 12 shall be the same as if no joint resolution had 13 been received from the other House, except that 14 the vote on final passage shall be on the joint 15 resolution of the other House.

16         “(2) TREATMENT OF JOINT RESOLUTION OF 17 OTHER HOUSE.—If the Senate fails to introduce or 18 consider a joint resolution under this section, the 19 joint resolution of the House shall be entitled to ex-20 pedited floor procedures under this section.

21         “(3) TREATMENT OF COMPANION MEASURES.— 22 If, following passage of the joint resolution in the 23 Senate, the Senate receives the companion measure
24 from the House of Representatives, the companion
25 measure shall not be debatable.

1       “(4) CONSIDERATION AFTER PASSAGE.—

2                 “(A) IN GENERAL.—If Congress passes a 3                 joint resolution, the period beginning on the 4                 date the President is presented with the joint 5                 resolution and ending on the date the President
6                 signs, allows to become law without his signa-
7                 ture, or vetoes and returns the joint resolution 8                 (but excluding days when either House is not in 9                 session) shall be disregarded in computing the 10                 legislative day period described in paragraphs 11                 (3) and (4) of subsection (b) and subsection 12                 (c)(1).

13                 “(B) DEBATE.—Debate on a veto message
14                 in the Senate under this section shall be 1 hour 15                 equally divided between the majority and minor-16                 ity leaders or their designees.

17                 “(5) VETO OVERRIDE.—If within the legislative 18                 day period described in paragraphs (3) and (4) of 19                 subsection (b) and subsection (c)(1), Congress over-20                 rides a veto of a joint resolution, except as provided 21                 in subsection (c)(2), the limit on debt provided in 22                 section 3101(b) shall not be raised under this sec-23                 tion.

24                 “(g) RULES OF HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND 25                 SENATE.—Subsections (a), (d), (e), and (f) (except for

1 paragraphs (4)(A) and (5) of such subsection) are enacted
2 by Congress—

3                 “(1) as an exercise of the rulemaking power of 4                 the Senate and House of Representatives, respec-
5                 tively, and as such it is deemed a part of the rules 6                 of each House, respectively, but applicable only with 7                 respect to the procedure to be followed in that 8                 House in the case of a joint resolution, and it super-9                 sedes other rules only to the extent that it is incon-10                 sistent with such rules; and 11                 “(2) with full recognition of the constitutional 12                 right of either House to change the rules (so far as 13                 relating to the procedure of that House) at any time, 14                 in the same manner, and to the same extent as in 15                 the case of any other rule of that House.”.

16                 (b) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—The table of sec-17                 tions for chapter 31 of title 31, United States Code, is 18                 amended by inserting after the item relating to section 19                 3101A the following:
