

114TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 825

To terminate the authority to waive certain provisions of law requiring the imposition of sanctions with respect to Iran, to codify certain sanctions imposed by Executive order, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MARCH 19, 2015

Mr. CRUZ introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs

A BILL

To terminate the authority to waive certain provisions of law requiring the imposition of sanctions with respect to Iran, to codify certain sanctions imposed by Executive order, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Sanction Iran, Safe-
5 guard America Act of 2015” or the “SISA Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress makes the following findings:

1 (1) A nuclear-capable Iran poses a direct and 2 existential threat to the United States, Israel, and 3 allies around the world.

4 (2) Iran is a leading state sponsor of terrorism,
5 arming and funding terrorist groups around the 6 world, including by providing material support for 7 the terrorist organization Hamas in its relentless at-8 tacks on Israel.

9 (3) The Government of Iran has violated
10 United Nations Security Council Resolutions 1696
11 (2006), 1737 (2006), 1747 (2007), 1803 (2008),
12 1835 (2008), and 1929 (2010), relating to Iran’s
13 nuclear program.

14 (4) The Government of Iran has received sig-
15 nificant economic benefits from the relaxation of 16 economic sanctions pursuant the Joint Plan of Ac-
17 tion, signed November 24, 2013, by Iran and by 18 France, Germany, the Russian Federation, the Peo-
19 ple’s Republic of China, the United Kingdom, and 20 the United States (in this section referred to as the 21 “Joint Plan of Action”), including increased eco-
22 nomic growth, reduced inflation, and a strengthened
23 currency, while making no substantive reductions in 24 its nuclear program.

1 (5) Any deal relating to Iran’s nuclear weapons
2 program that does not completely dismantle the en-
3 tire nuclear weapons program would repeat the same
4 mistakes observed with negotiations with North
5 Korea, a totalitarian country that exported its nu-
6 clear technology to Syria and has shared similar nu-
7 clear and ballistic missile technology with Iran.

8 (6) The Agreed Framework between the United 9 States and the Democratic People’s Republic of 10 Korea, signed in Geneva on October 21, 1994, which 11 called for North Korea to freeze and dismantle its 12 nuclear weapons program in exchange for eased
13 sanctions and normalized relations with the United 14 States, should serve as a reminder of previous failed
15 negotiations resulting in billions of dollars made
16 available for the development of nuclear weapons.

17 (7) Economic sanctions imposed with respect to 18 Iran are designed for the purpose of ending Iran’s
19 pursuit of a nuclear weapons capability, not of initi-
20 ating negotiations. Therefore, any easing of sanc-
21 tions in pursuit of negotiations undermines the pur-
22 pose of the sanctions, as is demonstrated by the case
23 of North Korea.

24 (8) Secretary of State John Kerry has publicly
25 confirmed that any agreement the United States

1 reaches with Iran will not be “legally binding”.
2 Therefore, neither President Barack Obama nor any 3 future President will be legally obligated in any way
4 to enforce or carry out the terms of the agreement
5 unless it is ratified as a treaty by the Senate or ap-
6 proved in an Act of Congress.

7 (9) If the United Nations Security Council
8 passes a resolution to enforce the terms of any 9 agreement with Iran, that resolution will have no
10 force or effect under United States law absent ap-
11 proval by an Act of Congress.

12 (10) In the absence of such approval, neither 13 President Obama nor any future President will be 14 obligated under the Constitution of the United 15 States or the laws of the United States to enforce
16 or carry out the terms of the Security Council reso-
17 lution.

18 (11) The President will instead be required by 19 the Constitution to enforce any Act of Congress,
20 even if the Act is contrary to the terms of the Secu-
21 rity Council resolution.
