RESOLUTION

Commending the University of Washington women's softball team for winning the 2009 NCAA Women's College World Series.

Whereas on June 2, 2009, for the first time in university history, the University of Washington Women Huskies won the National Collegiate Athletic Association ("NCAA") national softball championship game with a 3-2 victory over the University of Florida Gators;

Whereas University of Washington pitcher Danielle Lawrie was named the Women's College World Series Most Valuable Player and the USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year;

Whereas the Huskies finished the 2009 season with an impressive record of 51-12;

Whereas the members of the 2009 University of Washington softball team are excellent representatives of a university that is 1 of the premier academic institutions in Washington State, producing many outstanding student-athletes and other leaders; and

Whereas the members of the women's softball team have brought great honor to themselves, their families, the University of Washington, and the State of Washington: Now, therefore, be it

1       Resolved, That the Senate—

2               (1) congratulates the University of Washington
3       softball team for winning the 2009 Women's College
4       World Series;

5               (2) recognizes the achievements of the players,
6       coaches, students, and staff whose hard work and
7       dedication helped the University of Washington win
8       the championship; and

9               (3) respectfully requests the Secretary of the 10       Senate to transmit an enrolled copy of this resolu-
11       tion to—

12               (A) Mark A. Emmert, president of the 13       University of Washington;

14               (B) Scott Woodward, director of athletics
15       of the University of Washington; and

16               (C) Heather Tarr, head coach of the Uni-
17       versity of Washington softball team.
