RESOLUTION

Marking the fifth anniversary of Ukraine's Revolution of Dignity by honoring the bravery, determination, and sacrifice of the people of Ukraine during and since the Revolution, and condemning continued Russian aggression against Ukraine.

Whereas, on November 21, 2013, peaceful protests began on Independence Square (Maidan) in Kyiv against the decision by the government of then-President Viktor Yanukovich to suspend signing the Ukraine-European Union (EU) Association Agreement and instead pursue closer ties with the Russian Federation;

Whereas the Maidan protests, initially referred to as the Euromaidan, quickly drew thousands of people and broadened to become a general demonstration in support of Ukraine's integration with the European Union and against the corrupt Yanukovich regime;

Whereas, on the night of November 30, 2013, Ukrainian police forces surrounded and violently dispersed peaceful protestors on the Maidan;

Whereas the next day, thousands of Euromaidan demonstrators regrouped and resumed the protests for three months, despite facing continuing and increasing violence from the police;

Whereas, on January 16, 2014, anti-protest laws, known as the "dictatorship laws", were adopted by the Government of Ukraine, which sought to restrict the actions of the Euromaidan protestors;

Whereas these laws were condemned by Euromaidan protestors as well as Western officials, including then-Secretary of State John Kerry, who called them "anti-democratic";

Whereas many of these laws were repealed just 11 days after being signed into law;

Whereas, on the night of February 18, 2014, police assaulted and burned down the Trade Union Building in Kyiv;

which had been used as a headquarters for the Euromaidan movement;

Whereas Yanukovich's government forces began using live ammunition against the Euromaidan movement, leading to the deaths of more than a hundred protestors who are now remembered in Ukraine as the "Heavenly Hundred";

Whereas, on February 21, 2014, in the face of the ongoing Euromaidan protests demanding his resignation, then-President Viktor Yanukovich fled Kyiv, and then fled Ukraine the next day;

Whereas, on February 22, 2014, the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine recognized that Yanukovich had ceased his functions as president, voted him from office, and scheduled early presidential elections for May 25, 2014;

Whereas, on February 25, 2014, fulfilling demands of the Maidan, Ukraine's special police force known as the Berkut was dissolved, as it had been heavily involved in the violence against the Euromaidan protestors;

Whereas the Ukrainian government's use of force against activists throughout the Euromaidan protests, including the use of live bullets, was widely condemned by Western governments, including the United States, and ultimately failed to discourage the Euromaidan movement;

Whereas, on September 1, 2017, the Ukraine–EU Association Agreement came into force after its signing by the Government of Ukraine and the EU;

Whereas, in response to Ukraine's Revolution of Dignity, the Russian Federation launched military aggression against Ukraine, illegally occupied Ukraine's Crimean Peninsula, and instigated a war in eastern Ukraine, which is still ongoing and has killed more than 10,000 Ukrainians;

Whereas the Russian Federation's attempted invasion and annexation of Crimea has been widely seen as an effort to stifle pro-democracy developments across Ukraine in 2014 in the wake of the Revolution of Dignity;

Whereas 2019 marks the 25th anniversary of the signing of the Budapest Memorandum, which committed the United States, the United Kingdom, and the Russian Federation to refrain from the threat or use of force against Ukraine's territorial integrity in exchange for Ukraine giving up its nuclear weapons;

Whereas the Russian Federation is a signatory to the 1994 Budapest Memorandum and thus committed to respect the independence, sovereignty, and territorial integrity of Ukraine;

Whereas the Government of the Russian Federation is further obligated to respect the sovereignty of Ukraine pursuant to its commitments as a signatory to the Helsinki Final Act and the Charter of the United Nations;

Whereas, on March 27, 2014, the United Nations General Assembly adopted Resolution 68/262 calling on states and international organizations not to recognize any change in Crimea's status and affirmed the commitment of the United Nations to recognize Crimea as part of Ukraine;

Whereas the United States and European Union have imposed sanctions on individuals and entities who have enabled the attempted invasion, annexation, and occupation of Crimea;

Whereas, pursuant to the Revolution of Dignity's goal of fighting corruption in Ukraine, the Verkhovna Rada of

Ukraine adopted the Law On the National Anti-Corruption Bureau (NABU) of Ukraine on October 14, 2014;

Whereas, on June 26, 2017, the Law of Ukraine On the Establishment of the High Anti-Corruption Court was signed into law;

Whereas, on July 5, 2018, the Law on National Security was adopted, which has strengthened civilian control over the Ukrainian military, increased transparency in the security sector, and more clearly delineated the powers of law enforcement agencies;

Whereas, on January 6, 2019, the Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople granted autocephaly to the Ukrainian Orthodox Church, thus establishing the first independent Ukrainian Orthodox Church in over 300 years;

Whereas despite requests by the Government of Ukraine, the Government of the Russian Federation has repeatedly refused to extradite former President of Ukraine Viktor Yanukovich to stand trial in Ukraine;

Whereas, on January 24, 2019, a Ukrainian court found Yanukovich guilty in absentia of high treason and complicity in conducting an aggressive war against Ukraine, and sentenced him to 13 years in prison;

Whereas, in order to help Ukraine preserve its sovereignty in the face of Russian aggression, the United States Government has provided Ukraine with over $1,000,000,000 in security assistance, including critical defensive items such as Javelin anti-tank missiles and Island-class cutters; and

Whereas, in the 115th Congress, both the United States Senate and the United States House of Representatives passed resolutions commemorating the 85th anniversary of the Holodomor, the Soviet Union's manmade famine that it committed against the people of Ukraine in 1932 and 1933. Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the Senate—

2 (1) remembers the courage and resolve shown
3 by the Ukrainian people in the Revolution of Dignity;
4 nity;

5 (2) solemnly honors the “Heavenly Hundred”
6 who were killed during the Revolution of Dignity
7 while fighting for the causes of freedom and democ-
8 racy in Ukraine;

9 (3) applauds the progress that the Government
10 of Ukraine has made since the Revolution of Dignity
11 in strengthening the rule of law, aligning itself with 12 Euro-Atlantic norms and standards, and improving
13 military combat readiness and interoperability with
14 the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO);

15 (4) encourages the Government of Ukraine to 16 continue implementing crucial reforms to fight cor-
17 ruption, build strong and free markets, and
18 strengthen democracy and the rule of law;

19 (5) affirms the United States Government’s un-
20 wavering commitment to supporting the continuing
21 efforts of the Government of Ukraine to implement
22 democratic and free market reforms, restoring
23 Ukraine’s territorial integrity, as well as providing
24 additional lethal and non-lethal security assistance

1 to strengthen Ukraine's defense capabilities on land,
2 sea, and in the air in order to improve deterrence
3 against Russian aggression;

4 (6) condemns the Russian Federation's ongoing
5 malign activities against Ukraine and renews its call
6 on the Government of the Russian Federation to im-
7 mediately cease all activity that seeks to undermine
8 Ukraine and destabilize the European continent;

9 (7) reiterates its strong condemnation of the 10 provocative actions and unjustified use of military
11 force by the Government of the Russian Federation
12 in the Kerch Strait against the Ukrainian Navy on 13 November 25, 2018, as a blatant violation of the 14 Russian Federation's commitments under inter-
15 national law and the 2003 Treaty Between the Rus-
16 sian Federation and Ukraine on Cooperation in the 17 Use of the Sea of Azov and the Kerch Strait;

18 (8) expresses its support to all Ukrainian polit-
19 ical prisoners convicted on fabricated charges and
20 incarcerated by Russian or Russian-controlled au-
21 thorities, including the Ukrainian sailors seized in
22 the November 25, 2018, attack near the Kerch
23 Strait who are due treatment under the 1949 Gene-
24 va Conventions and have been illegally kept in deten-
25 tion in the territory of the Russian Federation, while

1 renewing its strong call on the Kremlin to imme-
2 diately release these Ukrainian citizens;

3 (9) affirms the Department of State's Crimea
4 Declaration, announced on July 25, 2018, that re-
5 jects Russia's attempted annexation of Crimea and
6 pledges to maintain this policy until Ukraine's terri-
7 torial integrity is restored;

8 (10) believes that the Nord Stream 2 pipeline
9 poses a major threat to European security, seeks to 10 further undermine Ukraine's economic stability, and 11 threatens to increase the country's vulnerability to 12 further Russian military incursions;

13 (11) calls upon the United States Government,
14 as well as its international allies and partners, to 15 maintain a strong sanctions regime against the Rus-
16 sian Federation until it upholds its international ob-
17 ligations towards Ukraine, including the Budapest
18 Memorandum on Security Assurances and the Minsk
19 Agreements; and

20 (12) congratulates the people of Ukraine on the 21 announcement on January 6, 2019, of autocephaly
22 for an independent Orthodox Church of Ukraine,
23 which has marked an important milestone in
24 Ukraine's pursuit of its own future free from Rus-
25 sian influence.
