49 Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

50 Section 1. Section 30-3-10 is amended to read:

51 30-3-10. Custody and parent-time of a child -- Custody factors -- Child conceived
52 as a result of a sexual offense.

53 (1) If a married couple having one or more minor children are separated, or the married
54 couple's marriage is declared void or dissolved, the court shall enter, and has continuing
55 jurisdiction to modify, an order of custody and parent-time.

56 (2) In determining any form of custody and parent-time under Subsection (1), the court

57 shall consider the best interest of the child and may consider among other factors the court
58 finds relevant, the following for each parent:

59 (a) evidence of domestic violence, neglect, physical abuse, sexual abuse, or emotional
60 abuse, involving the child, the parent, or a household member of the parent;

61 (b) the parent's demonstrated understanding of, responsiveness to, and ability to meet
62 the developmental needs of the child, including the child's:

63 (i) physical needs;

64 (ii) emotional needs;

65 (iii) educational needs;

66 (iv) medical needs; and

67 (v) any special needs;

68 (c) the parent's capacity and willingness to function as a parent, including:

69 (i) parenting skills;

70 (ii) co-parenting skills, including:

71 (A) ability to appropriately communicate with the other parent;

72 (B) ability to encourage the sharing of love and affection; and

73 (C) willingness to allow frequent and continuous contact between the child and the
74 other parent, except that, if the court determines that the parent is acting to protect the child
75 from domestic violence, neglect, or abuse, the parent's protective actions may be taken into 76 consideration; and

77 (iii) ability to provide personal care rather than surrogate care;

78 (d) in accordance with Subsection (10), the past conduct and demonstrated moral
79 character of the parent;

80 (e) the emotional stability of the parent;

81 (f) the parent's inability to function as a parent because of drug abuse, excessive
82 drinking, or other causes;

83 (g) whether the parent has intentionally exposed the child to pornography or material
84 harmful to minors, as "material" and "harmful to minors" are defined in Section 76-10-1201;

85 (h) the parent's reasons for having relinquished custody or parent-time in the past;

86 (i) duration and depth of desire for custody or parent-time;

87 (j) the parent's religious compatibility with the child;

- 88 (k) the parent's financial responsibility;
- 89 (l) the child's interaction and relationship with step-parents, extended family members
90 of other individuals who may significantly affect the child's best interests;
- 91 (m) who has been the primary caretaker of the child;
- 92 (n) previous parenting arrangements in which the child has been happy and 93 well-adjusted in the home, school, and community;
- 94 (o) the relative benefit of keeping siblings together;
- 95 (p) the stated wishes and concerns of the child, taking into consideration the child's 96 cognitive ability and emotional maturity;
- 97 (q) the relative strength of the child's bond with the parent, meaning the depth, quality,
98 and nature of the relationship between the parent and the child; and
- 99 (r) any other factor the court finds relevant.
- 100 (3) There is a rebuttable presumption that joint legal custody, as defined in Section 101 30-3-10.1, is in the best interest of the child, except in cases when there is:
- 102 (a) evidence of domestic violence, neglect, physical abuse, sexual abuse, or emotional 103 abuse involving the child, a parent, or a household member of the parent;
- 104 (b) special physical or mental needs of a parent or child, making joint legal custody
105 unreasonable;
- 106 (c) physical distance between the residences of the parents, making joint decision 107 making impractical in certain circumstances; or
- 108 (d) any other factor the court considers relevant including those listed in this section
109 and Section 30-3-10.2.
- 110 (4) (a) The person who desires joint legal custody shall file a proposed parenting plan
111 in accordance with Sections 30-3-10.8 and 30-3-10.9.
- 112 (b) A presumption for joint legal custody may be rebutted by a showing by a 113 preponderance of the evidence that it is not in the best interest of the child.
- 114 (5) (a) A child may not be required by either party to testify unless the trier of fact 115 determines that extenuating circumstances exist that would necessitate the testimony of the 116 child be heard and there is no other reasonable method to present the child's testimony.
- 117 (b) (i) The court may inquire of the child's and take into consideration the child's 118 desires regarding future custody or parent-time schedules, but the expressed desires are not

119 controlling and the court may determine the child's custody or parent-time otherwise.

120 (ii) The desires of a child 14 years old or older shall be given added weight, but is not
121 the single controlling factor.

122 (c) (i) If an interview with a child is conducted by the court pursuant to Subsection
123 (5)(b), the interview shall be conducted by the judge in camera.

124 (ii) The prior consent of the parties may be obtained but is not necessary if the court
125 finds that an interview with a child is the only method to ascertain the child's desires regarding 126 custody.

127 (6) (a) Except as provided in Subsection (6)(b), a court may not discriminate against a
128 parent due to a disability, as defined in Section 57-21-2, in awarding custody or determining 129 whether a substantial change has occurred for the purpose of modifying an award of custody.

130 (b) The court may not consider the disability of a parent as a factor in awarding custody
131 or modifying an award of custody based on a determination of a substantial change in 132 circumstances, unless the court makes specific findings that:

133 (i) the disability significantly or substantially inhibits the parent's ability to provide for 134 the physical and emotional needs of the child at issue; and

135 (ii) the parent with a disability lacks sufficient human, monetary, or other resources
136 available to supplement the parent's ability to provide for the physical and emotional needs of 137 the child at issue.

138 (c) Nothing in this section may be construed to apply to adoption proceedings under 139 Title 78B, Chapter 6, Part 1, Utah Adoption Act.

140 (7) This section does not establish a preference for either parent solely because of the 141 gender of the parent.

142 (8) This section establishes neither a preference nor a presumption for or against joint
143 physical custody or sole physical custody, but allows the court and the family the widest
144 discretion to choose a parenting plan that is in the best interest of the child.

145 (9) When an issue before the court involves custodial responsibility in the event of a
146 deployment of one or both parents who are service members and the service member has not 147 yet been notified of deployment, the court shall resolve the issue based on the standards in 148 Sections 78B-20-306 through 78B-20-309.

149 (10) In considering the past conduct and demonstrated moral standards of each party

150 under Subsection (2)(d) or any other factor a court finds relevant, the court may not:

151 (a) consider or treat a parent's lawful possession or use of cannabis in a medicinal 152 dosage form, a cannabis product in a medicinal dosage form, or a medical cannabis device, in 153 accordance with Title 4, Chapter 41a, Cannabis Production Establishments and Pharmacies,
154 Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2, Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis, or Subsection
155 58-37-3.7(2) or (3) any differently than the court would consider or treat the lawful possession
156 or use of any prescribed controlled substance; or

157 (b) discriminate against a parent because of the parent's status as a:

158 (i) cannabis production establishment agent, as that term is defined in Section
159 4-41a-102;

160 (ii) medical cannabis pharmacy agent, as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201;

161 (iii) medical cannabis courier agent, as that term is defined in Section 26B-4-201; or

162 (iv) medical cannabis cardholder in accordance with Title 26B, Chapter 4, Part 2,
163 Cannabinoid Research and Medical Cannabis.

164 (11) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the court may not grant
165 custody or parent-time of a child to a parent convicted of a sexual offense, as defined in 166 Section 77-37-2, that resulted in the conception of the child unless:

167 (a) the nonconvicted biological parent, or the legal guardian of the child, consents to 168 custody or parent-time and the court determines it is in the best interest of the child to award
169 custody or parent-time to the convicted parent; or

170 (b) after the date of the conviction, the convicted parent and the nonconvicted parent
171 cohabit and establish a mutual custodial environment for the child.

172 (12) A denial of custody or parent-time under Subsection (11) does not:

173 (a) terminate the parental rights of the parent denied parent-time or custody; or

174 (b) affect the obligation of the convicted parent to financially support the child.
