30 Section 1. Section 64-13-29 is amended to read: 31 64-13-29. Violation of parole or probation -- Detention -- Hearing. 32 (1) (a) The department or local law enforcement agency shall ensure that the court is notified of violations of the terms and conditions of probation in the case of probationers under 33 the [department's supervision,] supervision of the department, the local law enforcement 34 agency, or the Board of Pardons and Parole in the case of parolees under the department's 35 36 supervision when: (i) a sanction of incarceration is recommended; or 37

(ii) the department or local law enforcement agency determines that a graduated sanction is not an appropriate response to the offender's violation and recommends revocation of probation or parole.

(b) In cases where the department desires to detain an offender alleged to have violated his parole or probation and where it is unlikely that the Board of Pardons and Parole or court will conduct a hearing within a reasonable time to determine if the offender has violated his conditions of parole or probation, the department shall hold an administrative hearing within a reasonable time, unless the hearing is waived by the parolee or probationer, to determine if there is probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred.

47 (c) If there is a conviction for a crime based on the same charges as the probation or 48 parole violation, or a finding by a federal or state court that there is probable cause to believe
49 that an offender has committed a crime based on the same charges as the probation or parole
50 violation, the department need not hold an administrative hearing.

(2) The appropriate officer or officers of the department shall, as soon as practical following the department's administrative hearing, report to the court or the Board of Pardons and Parole, furnishing a summary of the hearing, and may make recommendations regarding the disposition to be made of the parolee or probationer.

55 (3) Pending any proceeding under this section, the department may take custody of and 56 detain the parolee or probationer involved for a period not to exceed 72 hours excluding 57 weekends and holidays.

58 (4) In cases where probationers are supervised by a local law enforcement agency, the 59 agency may take custody of and detain the probationer involved for a period not to exceed 72 60 hours excluding weekends and holidays if: 61 (a) the probationer commits a major violation or repeated violations of probation; and (b) it is unlikely that the court will conduct a hearing within a reasonable time to 62 determine if the offender has violated the conditions of probation; and 63 (c) the law enforcement agency conducts an administrative hearing within a reasonable 64 time to determine if there is probable cause to believe the offender has violated the conditions 65 66 of probation, unless the hearing is waived by the probationer. 67 (5) If the requirements for Subsection (4) are met, the local law enforcement agency shall ensure the proper court is notified. 68 $\left[\frac{3}{3}\right]$ (6) If the hearing officer determines that there is probable cause to believe that the 69 70 offender has violated the conditions of his parole or probation, the department may detain the 71 offender for a reasonable period of time after the hearing or waiver, as necessary to arrange for 72 the incarceration of the offender. [Written] A written order of the department is sufficient 73 authorization for any peace officer to incarcerate the offender. The department may promulgate rules for the implementation of this section. 74 (7) A written order from the local law enforcement agency is sufficient authorization 75 76 for any peace officer to incarcerate the offender if: 77 (a) the probationers are supervised by a local law enforcement agency; and 78 (b) the appropriate officer or officers determine that there is probable cause to believe 79 that the offender has violated the conditions of probation. 80 (8) If a probationer supervised by a local law enforcement agency commits a violation 81 outside of the jurisdiction of the supervising agency, the arresting agency is not required to 82 hold or transport the probationer for the supervising agency.
