11 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

12 Sec. 1. RCW 70.24.015 and 1988 c 206 s 901 are each amended to 13 read as follows:

The legislature declares that sexually transmitted diseases and 14 15 blood-borne pathogens constitute a serious and sometimes fatal threat 16 to the public and individual health and welfare of the people of the 17 state. The legislature finds that the incidence of sexually 18 transmitted diseases and blood-borne pathogens is rising at an 19 alarming rate and that these diseases result in significant social, 20 health, and economic costs, including infant and maternal mortality, 21 temporary and lifelong disability, and premature death. The 1 legislature further finds that sexually transmitted diseases and blood-borne pathogens, by their nature, involve sensitive issues of 2 privacy, and it is the intent of the legislature that all programs 3 designed to deal with these diseases afford patients privacy, 4 confidentiality, and dignity. The legislature also finds that medical 5 6 knowledge and information about sexually transmitted diseases and blood-borne pathogens are rapidly changing. It is therefore the 7 intent of the legislature to provide a program that is sufficiently 8 flexible to meet emerging needs, deals efficiently and effectively 9 with reducing the incidence of sexually transmitted diseases and 10 blood-borne pathogens, and provides patients with a secure knowledge 11 12 that information they provide will remain private and confidential.

The orders and measures shall be applied serially with the least intrusive measures used first. The burden of proof shall be on 18 the state or local public health officer to show that specified 19 grounds exist for the issuance of the orders or restrictive measures 20 and that the terms and conditions imposed are no more restrictive 21 22 than necessary to protect the public health.

Upon conclusion of the 6 7 hearing, the court shall issue appropriate orders affirming, modifying, or dismissing the health order. 8
