1     AN ACT to create 252.045 of the statutes; relating to: waivers from workplace
2     immunization requirements.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill requires any employer that requires any employee or prospective employee to receive an immunization as a condition of employment to waive the immunization requirement for the employee or prospective employee if the employee or prospective employee objects to the immunization for reasons of health, religion, or personal conviction. Under the bill, no employer may require that an employee or prospective employee provide any explanation or justification of the employee's or prospective employee's objection to an immunization. Further, the bill requires an employer to inform an employee or prospective employee of the employee's or prospective employee's right to a waiver from the employer's immunization requirements in writing at any time the employer informs the employee or prospective employee of the employer's immunization requirements.
