

2011 ASSEMBLY BILL 691

March 12, 2012 - Introduced by Representative POPE-ROBERTS. Referred to Committee on Criminal Justice and Corrections.

1 AN ACT to amend 943.20 (3) (intro.); and to create 943.20 (3m) of the statutes;
2 relating to: increasing a penalty for certain offenses relating to theft from a
3 place of business, and providing a penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, no one may, by virtue of his or her office, business, or employment, intentionally use, transfer, conceal, or otherwise keep money or other items of value without the owner's consent and with the intent to convert the money or other items of value to his or her own use. Generally, penalties for committing this offense increase with the value of the property misappropriated, so that the person commits a Class A misdemeanor if the value of the property is less than or equals $2,500, a Class I felony if the value of the property is more than $2,500 but not more than $5,000, a Class H felony if the value of the property is more than $5,000 but not more than $10,000, and a Class G felony if the value of the property exceeds $10,000.

This bill applies an enhanced penalty to a person who commits this offense if he or she takes the property from a charitable organization and uses it for a partisan political purpose. Under the bill, the person who commits that offense is guilty of a Class I felony if the value of the property is less than or equals $2,500, a Class H felony if the value of the property is more than $2,500 but not more than $5,000, a Class G felony if the value of the property is more than $5,000 but not more than $10,000, and a Class F felony if the value of the property exceeds $10,000.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a
