2025 ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTION 78

July 31, 2025 - Introduced by Representatives MCCARVILLE, SINICKI, STROUD, KREIBICH, DESMIDT, ORTIZ-VELEZ, KAUFERT, KIRSCH, RIVERA-WAGNER, TENORIO, FITZGERALD, BARE, MIRESE, JOERS, ARNEY, DITTRICH, EMERSON, SUBECK, ANDERSON, JOHNSON and HAYWOOD, cosponsored by Senators HABUSH SINYKIN, JACQUE, CARPENTER, ROYS, DRAKE, RATCLIFF, SPREITZER, WIRCH, PFAFF, KEYESKI, LARSON, HESSELBEIN and L. JOHNSON. Referred to Committee on Rules.

AUTHORS SUBJECT TO CHANGE

1 Relating to: proclaiming June 12, 2025, as Women Veterans Day.

2 Whereas, since the Revolutionary War, women have valiantly served in our 3 nation's military, ensuring the preservation of our security, values, and liberties; 4 and

5 Whereas, President Harry S. Truman signed the Women's Armed Services
6 Integration Act on June 12, 1948, enabling women to serve as permanent, regular 7 members of the U.S. Armed Forces; and 8 Whereas, many states recognize the anniversary of the Women's Armed 9 Services Integration Act's signing as Women Veterans Day; and

10 Whereas, women are the fastest growing demographic in the national veteran 11 population, with the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs projecting that women 12 will constitute nearly one-fifth of the national veteran population by 2040, 13 compared to just 4 percent in 2000; and

14 Whereas, the State of Wisconsin Women's Council estimates that Wisconsin is currently home to over 29,000 women veterans, or about 10 percent of the state's veteran population; and

Whereas, Wisconsin's women veterans continue to serve in vital roles after the end of their military service, including as mothers, community leaders, businesswomen, educators, and beyond; and

Whereas, women veterans experience higher rates of post-traumatic stress disorder, sexual violence, and unemployment compared to veterans who are men; and

Whereas, the State of Wisconsin strives to address these challenges so that our women veterans are treated with the dignity and respect they deserve, in recognition of their immeasurable sacrifices; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the assembly, the senate concurring, That the members of the Wisconsin State Legislature proclaim June 12, 2025, as Women Veterans Day and commend Wisconsin's women veterans for their invaluable courage and dedication in their service of this country.
